2005 Season Preview

Under the watchful eye of second-year head coach Gordon Henderson, the University of Arkansas Lady Razorback soccer team continues to show improvement. Using a tough fitness program, each of the returning Lady Razorbacks continues to reach her full athletic potential, and with a full year utilizing Henderson's tactics, Arkansas should be ready for most situations that arise on the field. Next on the agenda is working one of the best recruiting classes in Arkansas history into a veteran lineup.

FORWARD

Perhaps the most wide-open position on the field for the Lady Razorbacks since all-time leading scorer Julie Williford left in 2003, Arkansas is looking for consistency during the 2005 season. Sophomores Sarah Gwisdala and Alison Harter each showed moments of brilliance at the striker position as freshmen, but were unable to maintain their play throughout the 19-game schedule.

Enter the Lady Razorback freshmen; three of Arkansas' nine recruits play forward with each adding some punch. Conway, Ark., native Whitney Allison played through pain in the Arkansas All-Star Game, scoring the golden goal off her broken left toe from outside the penalty area. Lindsay Patterson is big, athletic and strong, and could be a great target for Arkansas' midfielders on crosses from the outside. Sophomore transfer Tara Sageser was the Mid-Continent Conference Newcomer of the Year as she led Centenary in scoring.

MIDFIELD

Arkansas' coaches feel good about the central midfield as two of the rising stars in Southeastern Conference women's soccer patrol the field. Senior Megan McCool is a four-year starter for the Lady'Backs and gives Arkansas its swagger on the field. Coupled with junior Christina Burger, the Lady Razorbacks' leading returning scorer in each of the past two seasons, Arkansas has a fire and ice combination that is tough to overcome.

Junior Katie Stauffer backs up the middle with a powerful shot that is particularly valuable from outside the penalty box. Sophomores Becca Davis and Jessica Ingram each saw limited time as freshmen, and after a good off-season, could step into the central midfield at a moment's notice.

Arkansas' outside midfielders were much improved in 2004 as then junior Morgan McCord and sophomore Katie Hamilton took over the positions. Hamilton emerged as a scoring threat thanks to runs at the post and an improved cross, while McCord has consistently found herself in the starting 11 thanks to hard work.

The Lady Razorbacks add a pair of midfielders to the mix this fall, Texans Leah Collison and Abbey Wilburn. Both are versatile, and while they are slated for midfield duty now, could play forward if they show a knack for the goal.

DEFENSE

The deepest part of the Lady Razorback lineup, Arkansas boasts four returning starters that combined have started 144 games. Led by senior captain Andrea Sparks, senior Katie Taylor and juniors Devon Burger and Allison Harris have shown that they work well together over the past two seasons. In 2004 the quartet added a new phase to their game showing offensive striking ability, an attribute that could make the Lady Razorbacks dangerous from every position on the field.

While the Lady Razorbacks feel that they have a solid group of starters, one of the first players off the bench is senior Holly Rosen. Freshman Megan Fawley and junior transfer Kate Venable have the daunting task of attempting to find playing time with the veteran crew, but each have played multiple positions and should be able to get ample time on the pitch this fall.

GOALKEEPERS

Arkansas' rock in goal for the past two seasons, senior Carrie Dillsaver shows no signs of slowing down. On her way to the top of the Arkansas career goalkeeping charts, Dillsaver dropped her goals against average by a half point between her first two seasons, and another effort like last season could place her in elite company among Lady Razorback goalkeepers.

Joining Arkansas' corp of goalkeepers is Bentonville, Ark., native Michelle Hunter, one of the best goalkeepers the state has produced in several years.

Claremore, Okla.

At Arkansas – With two seasons between the posts for the Lady Razorbacks, Carrie Dillsaver has the potential to end her Lady Razorback career as one of the best goalkeepers in Arkansas history. Setting five sophomore class records in 2004 and a freshman class record in 2003, Dillsaver enters her final season of competition ranked among Arkansas' all-time top six in nearly every statistical category and is second on the goals against average list with a 1.66 GAA.

As a redshirt freshman, Dillsaver earned the starting goalkeeper's role over a senior and did not disappoint as she made acrobatic saves time and again. That season she played more than 1,500 minutes and posted a modest 1.92 GAA. Perhaps Dillsaver's best game came on the road when the Lady'Backs faced George Mason. In that contest, she made nine saves over 90 minutes and picked up the first of three consecutive shutouts.

To say that Dillsaver had a good freshman year would only mean that she had a tremendous sophomore campaign. She set five class records, posting five shutouts including one in conference play, and allowed just 28 goals, the fewest by any Lady Razorback squad since 1991. Her 1.44 goals against average ranks as the sixth best by an individual and fifth best team mark all-time.

As a Sophomore (2004) – UA sophomore records for minutes played in goal (1752:44), shots faced (234), goals against average (1.44), shutouts (5) and games started (19) ♦ 1.44 GAA ♦ 104 saves ♦ 6-11-2 record ♦ five shutouts ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – UA record for freshman minutes played in goal (1,549) ♦ 1.92 GAA ♦ 69 saves ♦ 6-9-2 record ♦ three shutouts ♦ 17 games played ♦ 17 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - A standout all-state performer for the Claremore High School Zebras, she helped her team to a district title as well as two runner-up finishes and one state semifinal. For her club squad, the Tulsa Soccer Club '84, she was a part of eight Oklahoma state titles and a pair of regional runners-up.

Megan McCool

5-8 • Senior • MF
Bethany, Okla.
(Putnum City West)

At Arkansas – Entering her senior season, Megan McCool worked hard over the off-season to report in the best shape possible. During her first two years, she was a serious scoring threat with eight goals and seven assists. As a junior, her role changed slightly in coach Henderson's system, but the focus on defense for the Bethany, Okla., native showed as she became one of the Southeastern Conference's best all-around midfielders.

With a knack for scoring the key goal, McCool may not be Arkansas' first option to score, but she gets the job done. She tallied one game-winner and two game-tying scores. The winner came this past season against Tulsa. Her freshman season she tied the Lady Razorback school record for game-tying goals in SEC play when she picked up scores against Auburn and Vanderbilt.

For her career she has missed only one start, senior day of her freshman season, and since that time has rattled off 35 consecutive matches as a starter. Her 4,520 minutes played exceed all current Lady Razorbacks, except Katie Taylor, making her a solid choice as a captain during her junior season.

As a Junior (2004) – Played center midfield ♦ one goal ♦ three assists ♦ five points ♦ 16 games played ♦ 16 games started.

As a Sophomore (2003) – Played center midfield ♦ third-leading scorer ♦ four goals ♦ four assists ♦ 12 points ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Freshman (2002) - Played center midfield ♦ leading freshman scorer ♦ tied Lady'Back record for game-tying goals in a season in SEC play (2) ♦ four goals ♦ three assists ♦ 11 points.

Pre-Arkansas - McCool was an all-conference and all-district player for Putnum City West High School in Oklahoma City. A four-year letterwinner and starter, she led her team in assists and tied for the lead in goals as a junior. She was named all-district four times, all-conference three times and took all-state honors as a senior. McCool set school records for goals (25) and assists (11) as a senior.

She played her club soccer for the Fury '83 Red, but as a junior played for the Royals '82 and led that squad to a state championship for the U-19 age group. Individually, McCool earned the Fury '83 Orange Classic most valuable player award. She also has ODP experience, playing on the state team between 1997-2000 and entering the region pool in 1997.

Personal - Born on Dec. 6, 1983, McCool is the daughter of Barry and Tina McCool. She has two sisters, Christina and Amber, and is majoring in criminal justice.

Morgan McCord

22-5-5 • Senior • MF
Tulsa, Okla. #13
(Jenks)

Holly Rosen

5-8 • Senior • D
Dallas, Texas #17
(Richardson)

At Arkansas – For three seasons Morgan McCord worked hard in practice, and the commitment paid off as she earned her way into the starting lineup each year. As a freshman and sophomore, McCord began the season off the bench, but quickly found her way into the starting 11 thanks to her productivity with the ball on the flank. Her junior season was no different. Starting every game, she scored once and added a pair of assists. She picked up the third game-winning goal of her career in Arkansas' win over Southern.

As a sophomore, McCord assisted on three scores as she started 10 of 18 games. Her service from the outside and spark to the Arkansas lineup made her a fixture to the starting 11. She was especially active in Arkansas' victory over Drury as she assisted on a pair of scores on crosses from the left side.

As a freshman, McCord made her first start against Kansas in game six. Versus Louisiana-Monroe, she put together her best match as she scored once and assisted on another for three points. Along with her Louisiana-Monroe game, McCord also picked up a pair of game winners, the first of her career coming against SE Missouri State off the bench and the second a massive strike against Alabama.

As a Junior (2004) – Started at outside midfield ♦ one goal ♦ two assists ♦ four points ♦ one game winner ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Sophomore (2003) – Started at outside midfield ♦ three assists ♦ three points ♦ 18 games played ♦ 10 games started.

As a Freshman (2002) - Started at outside midfield ♦ three goals ♦ two assists ♦ eight points ♦ two game-winning goals ♦ 20 games played ♦ 14 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - A member of the three-time state champions, McCord was a key player in Jenks High School's title run. A two-year starter and four-year letterwinner for the Trojans, McCord also helped her squad win three conference and district titles during that time. Her junior year, Jenks was ranked #11 in the country. Playing her club soccer with the Tulsa Soccer Club '84, McCord won even more team championships with three Oklahoma state titles, the fifth, sixth and seventh of the TSC '84's career. The team was also a Region III finalist twice and semifinalist once during that time. McCord played on the Oklahoma state ODP team between 1997-2000.

At Arkansas – A walk-on to the Lady Razorbacks, Holly Rosen stuck with the program throughout three tough seasons and is prepared to leave it all on the pitch for her final year. Working her way onto the travel squad her freshman year, Rosen made a splash against the U.S. Navel Academy as she put together a solid contest at midfielder. She saw action in five matches that fall and was vital in key situations where her left foot and defensive skills were needed.

As a sophomore, Rosen did not see any action as the Lady'Backs planned to save her a year of eligibility, but with her degree coming in May of '05, Rosen decided to forego that season.

In 2004, Rosen was again back on the pitch for four contests, playing significant minutes against Southern University where she was used as a defender and midfielder.

As a Junior (2004) – Saw time at midfield ♦ four games played.

As a Freshman (2002) - Saw time at defense ♦ five games played.

Pre-Arkansas - Playing in one of the toughest 5A high school districts in the state of Texas, Rosen was a standout for Richardson High School. All over the field, Rosen led her team in assists two of her four years and was the offensive most valuable player as a sophomore. A two-year captain for the Eagles, Rosen led her team in goals and assists as a senior. While away from Richardson, she played for the Dallas Texans and led that squad to numerous team championships over her four years. As a sophomore, Rosen helped the Texans reach the state cup quarterfinals. Over the course of her high school and club career, she played in more than 280 games, scoring 33 goals and adding 65 assists. She was also a member of the Texas state ODP team.

The Lady Razorbacks

Andrea Sparks

5-6 • Senior • D
Arlington, Texas
(Nolan Catholic)

#21

At Arkansas – The captain of the Lady Razorbacks since her sophomore year, Andrea Sparks' abilities and commitment have never been questioned by Arkansas' coaches or players. A solid leader both on and off the pitch, Sparks' presence has made the Lady Razorbacks a stronger team for the past three seasons.

A fabulous freshman season saw Sparks become just the second Lady Razorback ever to earn SoccerBuzz all-Central Region freshman team honors despite battling an ankle injury throughout the season. That year she started in all 19 games the Lady Razorbacks played and was one of the key ingredients to Arkansas' defensive improvement in 2002.

Coming off the bench for most of her sophomore season, Sparks made the most of her opportunities to prove why she was fit for captaincy in her second year. Returning to the starting 11 as a junior, Sparks earned her spot in Arkansas' four-back defense as a central defender and is slated to see the majority of playing time again as a senior.

As a Junior (2004) – started at center back • 18 games played • 18 games started.

As a Sophomore (2003) – 15 games played • three games started.

As a Freshman (2002) - SoccerBuzz all-central region freshman team • started at center back • 19 games played • 18 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - Sparks was a three-time all-district performer and team captain for Nolan Catholic High School in Fort Worth, Texas. As a junior she was named all-state, repeating the feat as a senior. During Sparks' last two seasons, the Vikings won a district championship, two regional championships and took second place in the district and second and third in the state. Her club team, the Sting out of Plano, Texas, was also a force, taking several team titles and going to the state cup quarters her junior year and semis when she was a sophomore. Her senior year saw the Sting finish second in the state.

Katie Taylor

5-4 • Senior • D
Tulsa, Okla.
(Edison Preparatory)

#20

At Arkansas – In terms of offense, 2004 was a breakout year for Katie Taylor. One of the backbones of the Lady Razorback defense, Taylor showed the ability to score from the back line in Arkansas' match against Alabama on Oct. 17, as she knocked in a header from a corner kick. Taylor also added a pair of assists on the season giving her six points over her three years of service. A three-year starter for the Lady Razorbacks, Taylor played both outside defender and center midfield, but spent the majority of her time in the back.

Playing exclusively outside defender as a junior, Taylor's sophomore season saw her start the year at center mid. Adjusting to her new surroundings, she continued to play with the intensity that made her a sterling back and picked up the first assists of her career early in the season.

During her freshman season, Taylor came off the bench for the first four games before solidifying a starting position. A mainstay at right back, Taylor's phenomenal work ethic provided the Lady'Backs with a tough defender who could rattle opposing defenses as she streaked down the sideline.

As a Junior (2004) – Starter at defender • one goal • two assists • four points • 19 games played • 19 games started.

As a Sophomore (2003) – Starter at midfield • two assists • two points • 19 games played • 18 games started.

As a Freshman (2002) - Starter at defense • 20 games played • 17 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - The only four-year starter on the Edison Preparatory roster in 2001, Taylor proved she could play defense against some of the best competition. A four-time team most valuable player and defensive leader, she helped her squad to two district championships and a state semifinal during her first three seasons. Not only a four-year team MVP, Taylor was named all-state, all-conference and all-district four times. During her career at Edison, Taylor broke school records for career goals, assists and goals in a game. Playing her club soccer with the Tulsa Soccer Club '84, Taylor was part of a defense that surrendered just 55 points in 134 games over three seasons. That same squad won numerous tournament titles including eight state championships and two regional finals. During her career, she tallied 53 goals and 51 assists, including 29 during her senior season.

Personal - Born on Sept. 23, 1983, Taylor is the daughter of David and Christina Taylor. She has three siblings, Bryan, Kelly and Lauren, a brother-in-law, Travis, and two nieces, Leah and Hailey, and is majoring in marketing management with a minor in Spanish.

Christina Burger

22-5-6 ♦ Junior ♦ MF

Devon Burger

5-7 ♦ Junior ♦ D
Southlake, Texas
(Carroll)

At Arkansas – Christina Burger is one of Arkansas’ top offensive threats and enters her junior season as the Lady’Backs’ top returning scorer for the second straight season. A versatile player, Arkansas’ coaching staff felt that she would excel at center midfield, a position she would play all 19 games as a sophomore. While moving to forward sparingly, Burger was a fixture on the center of the pitch, and despite the new spot, still managed to put together a five-goal, two-assist season for 12 points. Her 11 career scores and 26 points are the most by any current Lady Razorback, and also give her a chance to crack into Arkansas’ top 10 list for both categories with another solid season.

As a freshman, Burger played in 19 games and started 15, scoring six goals and adding another two assists. She made history on Oct. 5, 2003, against the Kentucky Wildcats when she scored two times in 17 seconds to bring Arkansas back from a 2-0 deficit. The two-goal spurt was the fastest back-to-back goals by a Lady Razorback in team history and ranks tied for 18th in NCAA history for a team and 11th by an individual.

As a Sophomore (2004) – Started at center midfield ♦ five goals ♦ two assists ♦ 12 points ♦ one game-tying goal ♦ 19 games played ♦ 18 games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – Started at outside midfield and forward ♦ six goals ♦ two assists ♦ 14 points ♦ one game-tying goal ♦ 19 games played ♦ 15 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - Along with her twin sister, Devon, Burger was a four-year starter for Carroll High School, helping her team to the state finals as a freshman and semifinals as a sophomore and junior. Playing more of an offensive roll for the Dragons, Burger set a single-season record with 31 goals and 20 assists as a junior for 82 points. The numbers were enough to name her the district’s offensive MVP. That season, Burger also took first-team all-North East Tarrant County and second-team all-area honors. Burger took first-team all-district as both a freshman and sophomore. Burger was a member of the Dallas, Texas, based D’Feeters ‘85 team and assisted with her team’s efforts to reach several tournament finals and championships.

Personal - Born on Feb. 24, 1985, Burger is the daughter of James Burger and Linda Parker. She has two siblings, her twin, Devon, and a brother, James, and is majoring in marketing management.

At Arkansas – Devon Burger is a mainstay in Arkansas’ starting lineup. The Lady Razorback’s left outside back, Burger has the versatility to fill in at all the defenders positions or move up the field. Quick both on and off the ball, Burger’s experience on the pitch is one of her greatest assets.

Starting all 38 games of her career, Burger scored one goal. That finish came in the second match of her career and on the only shot of her two-year career as she fired a shot from 30 yards that snuck in under the crossbar.

Burger should remain in Arkansas’ starting 11 as a junior as she continues to work with teammates Andrea Sparks, Katie Taylor and Allison Harris to form one of the most experienced back lines in the nation.

As a Sophomore (2004) – Started at outside defender ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – Started at outside defender ♦ one goal ♦ two points ♦ one game-tying goal ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - A four-year starter for Carroll High School in Southlake, Texas, Burger was an integral part of the Dragons’ run to regional finals her first three seasons. She was named the district and all-North East Tarrant County newcomer of the year as a freshman, then took more all-district honors, was named the district’s defensive MVP, placed on the all-state tournament team and dubbed first-team all-North East Tarrant County. As a club player, she played for the D’Feeters ‘85 squad out of Dallas, Texas, and helped that squad to several team finals and championships.

The Lady Razorbacks

Katie Hamilton

5-2 ♦ Junior ♦ MF #11
Plano, Texas (Plano West)

At Arkansas – Katie Hamilton is the epitome of the saying, “good things come to those who wait.” Seeing limited action as a freshman, she had a breakout sophomore year in 2004 as she scored a pair of goals, assisted on four others, tied an Arkansas school record and tallied eight points, the most by a Lady Razorback outside midfielder since 2002.

Hamilton’s speed and field sense should keep her on the pitch for a majority of the 2005 season. Her newfound knack for the net also helps in that capacity as she returns this fall as one of Arkansas’ most experienced outside midfielders.

Starting in all 19 Lady Razorback contests as a sophomore, Hamilton was key to a pair of Lady Razorback victories. Against Mississippi State, her diving header in extra time gave the Lady Razorbacks their second conference victory. Just two weeks prior to the game-winning tally, Hamilton placed herself in Arkansas’ record books when she tied the UA mark for assists in a game with three against Southern University. Hamilton also picked up a goal in the Southern match for a five-point contest, the most by a LadyBack since all-time leading scorer Julie Williford.

As a Sophomore (2004) – Played outside midfield ♦ two goals ♦ four assists ♦ eight points ♦ one game-winning goal ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – Played outside midfield ♦ 16 games played ♦ one game started.

Pre-Arkansas - A member of the back-to-back-to-back state champion Plano West Lady Wolves, Hamilton was a standout on the squad taking second-team all-district honors as a junior and serving as the Wolves’ captain for three seasons. Heading into her senior season with 20 goals and 19 assists, Hamilton was on pace to break her season bests as a senior when she netted five goals and six assists in just half a season. Her Plano West squad held a #1 national ranking her sophomore and junior years. A member of the D’Feeters ‘85 club team, Hamilton took several tournament titles, and was named all-tournament team in nearly every event. Her skills on the pitch placed her in the ODP state pool and on the regional pool teams between 1997-99. An honor roll student, Hamilton was named to the Who’s Who Among American High School Students and also played varsity volleyball for one season.

Personal - Born on June 25, 1985, Hamilton is the daughter of Jim and Mary Hamilton. She has one sister, Ashley, and is majoring in marketing management.

Allison Harris

5-10 ♦ Junior ♦ D #16
Snellville, Ga. (Snellville)

At Arkansas – Starting the 2004 season on a hot streak, Allison Harris was Arkansas’ leading scorer through its first five matches. Scoring her first career goal in Arkansas’ first match of the season, Harris struck a long ball that carried over the opposing goalkeeper to tie that contest at one. Harris contributed in game five as well when she assisted on Katie Stauffer’s goal in Arkansas’ crushing 2-1 loss to Oklahoma.

With one of the strongest legs on the field, Harris is an offensive threat from the midline in. Very good at getting the ball into the air to give her forwards a chance, Harris took a majority of Arkansas’ free kicks for the past two seasons. Also one of the tallest players on the field, Harris is a threat in the box on corner kicks.

While Harris is continuing to develop as an offensive power and as a playmaker, her best weapon is certainly in her defensive prowess. Strong with the ball and able to anticipate the opposition’s moves, Harris has been able to thwart many threats in the Arkansas zone.

As a Sophomore (2004) – Started at center defender ♦ one goal ♦ two assists ♦ one game-tying goal ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – Started at center defender ♦ one assist ♦ one point ♦ 19 games played ♦ 19 games started.

Pre-Arkansas - As is the nature of the defender, Harris’ skills on the pitch did not translate to numerous accolades or points. Harris was a first-team all-Gwinnett County selection as a junior when she helped her team reach the final 16 of the state play-offs for the second straight season. It was her play with the GSA ‘85 Phoenix Red that drew attention from Arkansas’ coaches as she won a national championship in 2001 as a sophomore and the first of two Region III and Georgia state championships for her teams. Harris was also a Georgia Select ODP player for a number of years and played three years of varsity and one year of AAU basketball.

Personal - Born on Sept. 20, 1984, Harris is the daughter of Brian and Robyn Harris. She has one sister, Amber, and is majoring in psychology.

Katie Stauffer

22-5-6 • Junior • MF
Tulsa, Okla. #12
(Bishop Kelley)

Becca Davis

5-5 • Sophomore • D/MF
Flower Mound, Texas #3
(Marcus)

At Arkansas – Playing in just one game as a true freshman, Katie Stauffer was determined to become a key role player for the Lady Razorbacks in 2004. Scoring her first career goal in Arkansas’ loss to Oklahoma early in the season, Stauffer took a feed from Allison Harris at the top of the penalty area and rifled a shot into the net. The tactic was a welcome sight to Arkansas’ coaching staff as they saw in Stauffer a serious threat from outside the box.

Stauffer notched her second goal of the season in the 11-0 drubbing of Southern University as she uncorked another long shot that sailed past a stunned goalkeeper. Playing her best soccer down the stretch, she was sidelined due to a broken wrist and was only allowed to play sparingly over the last few matches.

As a Sophomore (2004) – Played central midfield ♦ two goals ♦ four points ♦ one game-tying goal ♦ 15 games played ♦ two games started.

As a Freshman (2003) – Played central midfield ♦ one game played.

Pre-Arkansas - Stauffer is no stranger to success on the pitch as the Bishop Kelley High School grad won four state and three district championships. The Comets held a 46-match winning streak and were ranked in the top 10 nationally her senior season. Not a major scoring threat her first two seasons, Stauffer came in to her own as a junior, scoring more goals (16) and assists (11) that year than her previous two combined. She returned her senior year to put up another 15 goals and 13 assists to bring her career totals to 42 goals and 33 assists. A two-year team captain for Bishop Kelley, she was a two-time all-state and all-district performer. Her freshman year, she was honorable mention all-district and tallied the game-winning goal in the state semifinal. As a member of the Norman Fury ‘85 out of Norman, Okla., Stauffer helped her squad to a pair of tournament titles and the state championship. Prior to that she was a member of the Tulsa Soccer Club ‘85 and twice went to the state semifinals.

At Arkansas – Playing four matches as a freshman, Becca Davis made the most of her opportunities with one assist. A central midfielder, Davis saw considerable action in Arkansas’ victory over Southern University, the match in which she picked up her helper when she fed a ball to Tina Burger for one of the Lady’Backs’ 11 goals.

Davis came back for spring practice in top shape and looked sharp throughout the off-season which should bode well for her come fall training camp.

As a Freshman (2004) – Played central midfield ♦ one assist ♦ one point ♦ four games played.

Pre-Arkansas – Between her high school and club soccer, Becca Davis earned multiple state championship and finalist performances as a tough defender and playmaker. Playing her high school soccer at Marcus High, she helped the Marauders to two district championships in her first two seasons, then won a Region I championship as a junior. For her individual efforts, Davis was awarded second-team all-district as a sophomore and first-team all-district honors as a junior. Her club program, the D’Feeters ‘86, made three consecutive state finals. The D’Feeters also took Surf Cup finalist and championship honors her freshman and sophomore years, respectively. During her high school days, Davis was a National Honor Society member and officer and a member of the English and Spanish Honor Societies.

The Lady Razorbacks

Sarah Gwisdala

5-5 • Sophomore • D/F
Plano, Texas
(Plano West)

At Arkansas – One of Arkansas’ top scorers in 2004, Sarah Gwisdala’s six goals as a true freshman rank fourth all-time for first-year players with the Lady Razorbacks. Her 12 points are also among Arkansas’ all-time best for freshmen. As a result, the Plano, Texas, native was named Southeastern Conference Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 28. The honor came following Gwisdala’s role in the best start in Arkansas’ history in SEC play as she nabbed two goals on the weekend including the game winner against Vanderbilt and the first goal in Arkansas’ 1-1 tie with Kentucky.

Stellar during the middle of the season, Gwisdala was nearly unstoppable for a five-game stretch in late September. She notched a pair and the game winner against Grambling, then returned for another pair against Southern.

Using the great speed and swagger needed for top goal scorers, Gwisdala could well be on her way to another solid offensive season in 2005.

As a Freshman (2004) – Played forward and outside midfield ♦ six goals scored ♦ 12 points ♦ two game-winning goals ♦ 18 games played ♦ 16 games started.

Pre-Arkansas – Gwisdala’s credentials are among the best to enter Arkansas. A National Soccer Coaches’ Association all-region performer in 2003, she set the Plano West record for assists in a season with 22 while also garnering first-team all-district, area and region honors. Gwisdala added all-state and 5A district co-MVP honors to go along with another all-county selection, a TSACO all-Region II honor, all-tournament state team, two Dallas Morning News Athlete of the Week honors and Plano West offensive MVP. During her career, the Plano West Wolves competed in the state semifinals, and won regional, area and bi-district championships. While her high school accolades are astounding, Gwisdala was also a key contributor of the Dallas Texans ’86 club team which ranked as the number one club program in the nation in 2004. The Texans won the Premier League title and took first at the WAGS Cup in 2004. With Gwisdala at the helm in 2003, they won the state cup and the Raleigh Shootout. While not playing soccer, Gwisdala found time to be a part of the National Honor Society, National Charity League and student congress president.

Personal – Born on Dec. 25, 1985, Gwisdala is the daughter of Jim and Barbara Gwisdala. She has three older brothers, Jim, Andy and Joe, and is majoring in marketing management.

Alison Harter

5-5 • Sophomore • ME/E
Fayetteville, Ark.
(Fayetteville)

At Arkansas – Seeing decent playing time in 2004, Ali Harter scored a pair of goals in her 400-plus minutes of action making her one of the most productive Lady’Backs. Tallying her first career score against Southern University, Harter proved that she could get the job done in Southeastern Conference action as well when she scored to bring Arkansas within one late against SEC foe and 25th-ranked Florida.

Starting one match and coming off the bench in 14 others, Harter’s exceptional speed-whether playing forward or outside midfield is ever persistent. Continued nurturing of this raw talent could make her a solid contributor over the next three seasons.

As a Freshman (2004) – Played forward and outside midfield ♦ two goals ♦ four points ♦ 15 games played ♦ one game started.

Pre-Arkansas – Just the third Fayetteville, Ark., native to be recruited at Arkansas, Harter is the most decorated of her predecessors. A member of the state champions and the 17th-ranked team in the nation her freshman year at Fayetteville, Harter led her squad back to the state championship game two of the next three seasons, finishing runner-up both times. For her efforts, Harter was named the FHS rookie of the year as a freshman, then took all-state honors the next three seasons and was awarded the Bulldogs’ team MVP award in 2004. As a member of the Comets club program, Harter won three state championships and a pair of prestigious Ozark Cup Classic titles her final two seasons. Harter graduated from Fayetteville with high honors and was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Personal – Born on Jan. 26, 1986, Harter is the daughter of Lance and Kim Harter of Fayetteville and Liz Harter of Springdale. She has four siblings, Jeff, Megan, Kristy and Josh, and is majoring in business.

The Lady Razorbacks

Jessica Ingram

22 5-7 ♦ Sophomore ♦ MF
Duncanville, Texas
(Duncanville) #15

At Arkansas – Jessica Ingram’s time on the field as a true freshman was limited in large part to Arkansas’ depth at central midfield. Despite that problem, she did manage to participate in three matches, including Arkansas’ victory over Southern where she saw 71 minutes on the pitch as a defensive midfielder. A year of conditioning under coach Henderson should have Ingram primed and ready to see significant time this fall as she works her way into the Lady Razorback system.

As a Freshman (2004) – Played central midfield ♦ three games played.

Pre-Arkansas – A leader both on and off the field, Ingram spent four years as a captain both on her club team, Dallas Sting ‘86, and her high school, Duncanville. An outstanding goal scorer as a freshman, Ingram tallied 15 goals and 12 assists in just 11 games. The feat earned her offensive MVP honors and an all-district selection. Missing her sophomore campaign due to injury, Ingram’s role changed in her final two seasons as she focused more on the defensive aspects of the sport. She still managed to knock home three goals and eight assists over her final two seasons. Ingram was named defensive MVP as a junior and earned her second all-district selection. When not on the soccer pitch, Ingram found

The Lady Razorback Newcomers

Whitney Allison

5-4 • Freshman • F
Conway, Ark.
(Conway)

#14

From Coach Henderson - "Whitney Allison will be an important part of the puzzle for us. She bleeds Arkansas red and you can't coach that. I think that the trait will be infectious to the team. On top of that, she brings an athletic ability that we look for in all our players. In Britain, we would call her a grafter: a player that is no nonsense, hard-nosed and has an incredible work ethic; a player that will do anything to get the ball and put it in the back of the net. She could develop into a flank defender and her potential is unlimited."

Pre-Arkansas - One of the best goal scorers in Arkansas state history, Allison netted more than 40 goals in her four years with Conway High School, including 21 her junior season when she set her school's record for goals in a season. A four-year letterwinner and three-time all-state selection, Allison led her team in scoring three of her four seasons. She capped off her Conway career with the game-winning golden goal in the Arkansas All-Star Game, giving her East squad a 1-0 victory. As a club player for the Little Rock Futbol '87s, Allison's team won the state championship three times, advancing to regionals in each of her first three seasons. She took four CASA and Capital City Cup titles and again led her teams in scoring. An honor roll student, Allison was also active in student government, FBLA, debate, speech composition and the creative writing club.

Personal - Born on Oct. 13, 1986, Allison is the daughter of John and Jennifer Allison. She has one brother, John, and is majoring in political science and English.

Leah Collison

5-8 • Freshman • MF
Katy, Texas
(Cinco Ranch)

#18

From Coach Henderson - "It is important any time you have a legacy returning to the University. Leah Collison's parents Bill and Terie both graduated from Arkansas. She is a versatile player that is predominantly left-sided and can play a flank midfielder role or forward. She'll probably play one of those positions for us, since she is very quick and serves a magnificent ball. She's strong with a good eye for the goal, has a terrific work rate and a commitment to learn. She'll be a very good player; the only question is when. She definitely has the potential to see significant minutes."

Pre-Arkansas - Collison's Cinco Ranch squad from Katy, Texas, is one of the best AAAAA teams in the state of Texas. In her four years, Cinco Ranch took three district championships and made the regional finals her first two seasons. Beginning her senior year, the Cougars were ranked third in the Greater Houston area. As a sophomore Collison was named honorable mention all-district, as she ranked third in the area in scoring, and followed it up with a second-team all-district award as a junior. Playing for Texas Premier, Collison won a pair of state titles as well as numerous tournament championships. As a senior her team was first in the south of the Texas Premier League. Collison was also a member of the ODP pool team throughout her years as a prep. Collison was a member of the National Honor Society and student council and was ranked in the top quarter of her graduating class.

Personal - Born on Feb. 10, 1987, Collison is the daughter of Bill and Terie Collison. She has two siblings, Kristy and Eric, and is majoring in engineering.

Megan Fawley

5-5 • Freshman • D
Richardson, Texas
(J.J. Pearce)

#19

From Coach Henderson - "Megan Fawley is fast, intelligent, crafty and technically very sound with the ability to play multiple roles. She is probably more of a defensive player than Abbey Wilburn which indicates to me that she could be a very good flank or central defender. She is very good in the air for her size and is tough to beat 1-v-1. She is another player that is dedicated to the game and would run through a brick wall while playing for Arkansas."

Pre-Arkansas - No stranger to winning, Fawley has been a part of numerous championships throughout her prep career. Captain of the J.J. Pearce freshman team, she impressed her coaches so much her first season that she was moved to the varsity squad to aid in their pursuit of a Bi-District Championship and Regional crown. That season, Fawley tallied seven goals and seven assists for 21 points. Her sophomore season as a Mustang saw Fawley take second-team all-district honors at forward as she won another district title and reached the regional finals. As a junior, Fawley continued to improve and this time took first-team all-district honors as well as being named to the second-team all-Dallas/Fort Worth team despite moving to defense. Proving her versatility, Fawley earned first-team all-district honors for a third time her senior year, but this time as a midfielder. During her career she tallied 22 goals and 15 assists for 59 points.

As a club player with the Sting, she was team captain as her team ranked 49th in the country and 11th in the US Youth Soccer's Region 3. Not just active on the pitch, Fawley was a member of the National Honor Society, Who's Who Among American High School Students and Young Life.

Personal - Born on Feb. 10, 1987, Fawley is the daughter of Ty and Stacey Fawley. She has one brother, Matt, and is majoring in elementary education.

The Lady Razorback Newcomers

Michelle Hunter

5-7 • Freshman • GK
Springdale, Ark.

#22

From Coach Henderson - "Michelle Hunter is someone that we have been keeping an eye on for quite some time. She was outstanding in the Arkansas All-Star game, and is a local product which should be exciting for the community. She is just another piece of evidence that local players can play at the Southeastern Conference level. She should provide excellent cover for us at the goalkeeper position."

Pre-Arkansas - A four-year starter for Springdale High School, Hunter is a local product whose upside potential is very high. Her time in goal with the perennial state tournament representatives earned her the experience needed to compete at the highest levels. As a freshman, Hunter was named defensive MVP and Newcomer of the Year for Springdale, then repeated the defensive honor as a sophomore. Her sophomore season saw her record a career-high 18 shutouts as she led the Bulldogs to the state tournament. As a senior, she was named to the West Plains all-tournament team and took all-region team MVP honors. On the club level, Hunter began with the Arkansas Comets, then was one of the founding members of the Ingram FC when it began her senior season.

Personal - Born on Jan. 6, 1987, Hunter is the daughter of Jim and Dodie Hunter. She has one brother, Arlo Evans, and is majoring in journalism.

Lindsay Patterson

5-9 • Freshman • F
Lewisville, Texas
(Lewisville)

#23

From Coach Henderson - "Lindsay Patterson will do well in the SEC. She is incredibly strong in the air with pretty good pace for a tall woman. She has a very good shot and sense of finishing with exceptional strength to shield the ball and hold off defenders. She is an Abby Wambach type of player, and if she can develop into half the player that Wambach is, then she'll be in good shape. We are excited about her potential and bringing her to the team. She is different from other forwards in the SEC and it will be interesting to see what other teams do. She'll be very tough to defend because of her strength and ability in the air."

Pre-Arkansas - In just two years at Lewisville High School, Patterson tallied 26 goals and 11 assists heading into her final season. As a freshman she scored 17 of those and was named the Dallas Morning News' all-area as well as the District 6-5A Newcomer of the Year. Patterson led the squad to a Bi-District title that season before missing her sophomore year to a knee injury. Returning as a junior, Patterson returned to the starting lineup at center midfield and was named first-team all district and the Fightin' Farmers' offensive MVP. Playing her club ball as a junior and senior with Dallas Inter, Patterson helped her squad to a state cup semifinalist spot as a senior. Prior to playing with the Inter, she was a member of the Sting and won a Region III title during the 2001-02 campaign and went to the finals a year before.

Personal - Born on Jan. 23, 1987, Patterson is the daughter of Jim Patterson and Lisa Burns. She has two siblings, Jennifer and Jansen, and is majoring in criminal justice. Her grandfather played football for the University of Texas.

Tara Sageser

5-6 • Sophomore • F
Austin, Texas
(Centenary)

#10

From Coach Henderson - "Tara Sageser comes in with an impressive resume. She was the Newcomer of the Year and leading scorer for the Mid-Continent Conference and her team. She is a proven goal scorer and is relishing the opportunity to prove herself against the SEC."

Pre-Arkansas - Sageser had a tremendous year for the Centenary College Ladies as a true freshman in 2004, leading the team in scoring with 10 goals and three assists for 23 points. A first-team all-Mid-Continent Conference performer, Sageser was also named the Mid-Con Newcomer of the Year. Her five game-winning goals also led the Ladies and rank fifth on Centenary's all-time list. For her efforts against Northwestern State and Stephen F. Austin, Sageser was named the Mid-Con Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 13, 2004.

Pre-College - Sageser was an integral part of the success of Bowie High School in her four years while earning second-team all-district honors. She also earned three academic all-district honors three times in her four years. Playing for the Austin Capitals Soccer Club in Austin, Texas, Sageser was named the team's most valuable player in 2002. She was a member of the National Honors Society and Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Personal - Born on Oct. 28, 1985, Sageser is the daughter of Wesley and Genette Sageser. She has three siblings, Lindsey, Jonathan and Riley, and is majoring in kinesiology.

The Lady Razorback Newcomers

Kate
Venable

5-6 • Junior • D
The Woodlands, Texas
(U.S. Military Acad.)

Abbey
Wilburn

5-5 • Freshman • MF
Irving, Texas
(MacArthur)

From Coach Henderson - "Kate Venable should have a big impact for us this year. She is a junior transfer with two years of Division I experience in a very good conference. She provides instant leadership both on and off the field. The challenge for Kate will be establishing a regular position because she has played everywhere."

Pre-Arkansas - Transferring to Arkansas from the United States Military Academy, Venable was known as one of the most versatile players on the Black Knights' roster. Playing nearly every position on the field in her two years at West Point, Venable was a two-year starter, tallying three goals and one assist in 38 career games. As a freshman, she scored all her points including two game-winning efforts. Her sophomore season saw Venable play predominantly defense, tallying 15 starts in 19 contests. That season Army went 8-8-4 overall and 3-1-3 in Patriot League play.

Pre-College - A native of The Woodlands, Texas, Venable was a leader for The Woodlands High School team where she was named the team's Outstanding Defensive Player in 2001. On the club level, Venable was a key member of the Challenge '85. Venable was also the valedictorian of her graduating class.

Personal - Born on Nov. 21, 1985, Venable is the daughter of Alan and Brenda Venable. She has a sister, Jennifer, and is majoring in criminal justice.

From Coach Henderson - "Abbey Wilburn comes from the same club team as Lindsay Patterson which is one of the top clubs in Texas. She has good speed and is a crafty, intelligent player. She is a true utility player and can be effective at central midfield, outside midfield or forward for us. She is very intelligent with strong technical abilities and a magnificent work rate. She will be an important player for us because of her versatility, and will make us a better team at many places, so it will be fun to see where she plays for us."

Pre-Arkansas - Not just a quality goal scorer, Wilburn is even better when it comes to the assist. As a junior she assisted on 15 goals, and for her career had 30 with 80 total points. A four-year starter at MacArthur High School, Wilburn was named her team's MVP as a junior and senior and was the Cardinal's captain for two seasons. Not just recognized by her high school, Wilburn was also the MVP for her district at midfield in 2004 and then took the utility MVP honor in 2005. Along with her years of experience with her club team Inter, Wilburn spent five years with the North Texas ODP state team. Her Inter club won numerous championships during her time and went to the state semi-finals for three consecutive seasons. In the classroom, Wilburn was ranked sixth in her graduating class of 380 and was both the science student and female athlete of the year in 2005. She was a member of the National Honor Society and named its most valuable member.

Personal - Born on March 10, 1987, Wilburn is the daughter of Cary and Linda Wilburn. She has one brother, Brett, and is majoring in business.

Head Coach Gordon Henderson

When looking for a head soccer coach, University of Arkansas officials knew that they wanted someone with the passion and drive to take the Lady Razorbacks to the next level. They found that when they plucked Gordon Henderson away from a very successful Idaho State program that had won numerous league and league championship titles and had just completed a stellar run that took it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Knowing that Lady Razorbacks have been around since the mid-'80s, the first thing on Henderson's agenda was the restoration of the traditions that made the University of Arkansas soccer program one of the most unique places to play. In six months on the job, Henderson embraced what it means to be a Lady Razorback, and took it a step further by introducing new avenues to express Arkansas pride.

When hired on December 16, 2003, Henderson was already set to begin the transformation. "I'm genuinely excited about the possibilities at Arkansas. When you start talking about institutions that are in a league of their own, the University of Arkansas is one of those.

It is a pleasure, a thrill and an honor to be a part of the coaching staff."

"Gordon has been very successful at every step in his career," Arkansas' Director of Women's Athletics Bev Lewis said. "He's very competitive and he has a tremendous reputation as a developer of players. He was a fit with our program and with our staff, and I think he'll insure that our athletes have a quality experience at Arkansas."

The changes instilled by Henderson in his first year were evident in game one as the Lady Razorbacks went out with fire in their eyes. The game one momentum led the Lady Razorbacks to one of their best nonconference seasons ever. Heading into the Southeastern Conference schedule with momentum, Arkansas got off to a fast start by going undefeated in its first three contests for its best league start in 12 years.

While Henderson knows that he has taken over a program in one of the strongest conferences in the country, he also knows that it is no time to rest. One of the first things on his agenda was to start a fitness program that was better than most soccer teams in the country. In its first two weeks of training, Arkansas' athletes were pushed to their limits, but the pain and pressure quickly paid off. In just five spring games, the Lady Razorbacks were much improved both on the field and in their level of fitness. The culmination of all the hard work came when Arkansas forced a 1-1 tie with Big 12 runner-up and NCAA second-round participant Missouri in Columbia, Mo.

"Part of what I want to bring to Arkansas is a culture of success," Henderson said. "I have tremendous respect for the former coaches at Arkansas and the work that has been done here. I hope to bring the program on to even bigger and better things."

With the current squad on the right track, Henderson and his staff focused on the recruiting trail where he left no stone unturned in searching for the best players not just in the country but in the world. The result was arguably the best recruiting class in Arkansas history and a group of eight women that were ranked by SoccerBuzz as one of the top classes in the nation and in the central region. Consisting of six players from Arkansas and Texas, and a pair of transfers, Arkansas should have a new look in 2005.

Prior to his arrival in Fayetteville, Henderson was the head coach at Idaho State in Pocatello, where in six seasons he amassed an impressive 56-51-11 record. While just over .500 in that span, it is what Henderson's teams did in the final four years of his tenure that made Arkansas' search committee investigate the possibilities of bringing him to Fayetteville. In that span, the Bengals won at least 10 games, made three NCAA tournament appearances, won three Big Sky tournament titles as well as a Big Sky regular-season championship. Those final four years saw Idaho State pick up 47 wins to just 28 losses and seven ties for an outstanding .616 winning percentage.

For his efforts on the field with Idaho State, Henderson was named Big Sky Coach of the Year three times over the last four seasons. His players were not without their accolades as well. Henderson produced 37 all-conference selections since 1998 including 14 first and second teamers. His players earned three Big Sky Tournament most valuable player awards, six offensive player of the week and 12 defensive player of the week honors, two Golden Boots for being the league's top scorer, two Big Sky defensive MVPs and a Big Sky Freshman of the Year award. Henderson is most proud of the two National Soccer Coaches Association all-region players he produced while at Idaho State.

As a team, Idaho State also broke numerous records including those for wins and shutouts in a season.

Henderson spent the first nine years of his career building programs from their inception into formidable foes, and is excited about the challenge of taking an established team to the next level. One of his main focuses at each stop has been to build a culture of success to which subsequent teams aspire to continue. That challenge is not lost upon his team at Arkansas. Through a short spring, the Lady Razorbacks have already shown significant improvement in their attitudes on the pitch and should continue to improve as their success is shown on the scoreboard.

Not just focusing all his attention on the pitch, Henderson is also a stickler for academics and pushes his athletes to achieve both on the field and in the classroom. Over his last two seasons at Idaho State, Henderson's teams earned two National Soccer Coaches Association of America National Team Academic Honors. His attention to the classroom should go hand-in-hand with the Lady Razorbacks' success in academia. Over the past eight semesters, the Lady Razorbacks have earned a cumulative grade point average over 3.0 and have taken three NSCAA Team Academic Honors of their own.

Henderson's head coaching career began at North Dakota State, where he started the program and spent three seasons in Fargo, N.D., between 1995-98. During that time he earned a 27-24-0 record at the NCAA Division II university, and began a reputation as a developer of young players as his squad was one of the best in the North Central Conference. He coached two players to NSCAA all-Region honors and produced the NCC Freshman of the Year in 1996 and 1997.

Upon leaving his native Scotland in 1991, Henderson came to the United States and worked before attending Sonoma State University to get his master's in education. While at Sonoma, he also served as an assistant coach for the women's soccer program for two seasons.

Henderson is a United States Soccer Federation State Instructor and has earned his U.S.S.F. National 'A' License. In addition he has attained his Scottish National Coaching Badge.

Henderson was a talented player in his own right. A forward for Heriot Watt University in Edinburgh, Scotland, he was one of his club's leading scorers. Henderson also spent three seasons with the Scottish National Collegiate Team before graduating in 1991 with a degree in physical education.

Henderson and his wife Lisa have two children, Cameron (8) and Ailee (6). The family resides in Fayetteville.

Assistant Coach Steve Oliver

When searching for the best coaches to fill his Arkansas staff, Gordon Henderson did not need to look any further than the office across the hall. One of the nation's top goalkeeper coaches, Steve Oliver, was already on staff, and keeping the England native soon became a priority. Starting his seventh year at the University of Arkansas, Oliver has professional playing credentials to back up his teaching ability.

Since joining the Lady Razorbacks in the winter of 1999, Oliver has been instrumental in the success of Arkansas' back line and goalkeepers. In the spring of 2002, Oliver added recruiter to his list of duties when he took over Arkansas' recruiting efforts, and the level of athlete entering the University has increased in each year.

In Oliver's six years with the Lady Razorbacks' keepers, his pupils have almost completely rewritten the Arkansas record book. From 2000-2003 Lindsay Haywood played more minutes in net than any other freshman or sophomore in Arkansas history. In 1999, Megan Bals was superb between the posts, setting freshman records for shots faced, saves, shutouts, games played and games started. While their records were lofty, the Lady'Backs turned the program over to Carrie Dillsaver in the fall of 2003 and have seen the next goalkeeping star break nearly every class record Arkansas keeps in two seasons.

Oliver's mark on the Arkansas defense was immediate as he coached the Lady Razorbacks into a cohesive unit that cut down by a fourth the number of goals that were scored against them. Several years later, the Lady'Backs still keep their opponents off the scoreboard at the same margin.

In 2002, Oliver was faced with a new challenge when he was forced to replace two four-year starters on defense. Using a freshman and sophomore to fill the void, Arkansas matured into a unit that over the final 13 matches was involved in four one-goal games, three overtimes and three shutouts.

Prior to Arkansas, Oliver spent two years at the University of Maryland assisting the team to two NCAA tournament appearances going as far as the quarterfinals in 1997. Oliver's work helped produced 23 wins to just 16 losses in one of the toughest conferences for women's soccer, the Atlantic Coast Conference.

With coaching experience at many levels and in several countries, Oliver brings an international flavor to the Arkansas system. He has been the head man or an assistant in the United States, England and Ireland. He has worked at the professional, collegiate and Olympic development levels. A student of the game, he has earned a pair of international coaching licenses, the UEFA 'A' license and IFA Goalkeeping Diploma.

During the summer, Oliver works as a camp instructor for both the University of Arkansas Soccer Camps and the Terry Venables Soccer Schools. He has been the director of goalkeepers for Terry Venables for the past five summers. Oliver still found time to work with the Arkansas Comets club soccer team from 1999 to 2004, recently accepting the Director of Coaching job for the Ingram FC in Northwest Arkansas.

A native of England, Oliver has been coaching in the United States since 1989, when he split time between England and the States. One of his first U.S. coaching jobs was the director of the Soccer Concepts Schools in 1990, and he eventually took the director's job of the World Class Soccer School.

Some of Oliver's overseas coaching positions have included a stint with the Queens Park Rangers, a very successful Division I team in England, goalkeeper's coach at the Brentwood Private School from 1991-95 and goalkeeper's coach for the Southend United Football Club. He also assisted with the National Schools Squad in Belfast, Northern Ireland, between 1994 and 1995.

Oliver was a standout player during his playing career. In 1982 he signed with Southend United where he played for four seasons. Oliver then moved on to play one season with the Colchester United before halting his professional career. He returned to the field in 1995 as the back-up goalkeeper for Southend United, while also serving as keeper's coach.

Oliver and his wife, Katie, have four children: Jessica, 10; Harry, 9; and the twins Abby and Lizzy, 5.

Assistant Coach Anna Sanders

Joining the Lady Razorbacks in the fall of 2004, Anna Sanders begins her second year as an assistant coach with the Arkansas soccer team. A Fayetteville, Ark., native, Sanders was a standout soccer player for the Fayetteville High School Bulldogs before heading to the University of Mississippi to pursue her bachelor's degree in exercise science.

Sanders' responsibilities include recruiting efforts, fitness, film exchange and participating in practice when needed. Her appointment with the Lady Razorbacks is her first collegiate coaching position, but certainly not the first time she has been on the sidelines. Following her graduation from the University of Mississippi, Sanders went to Cascia Hall Preparatory school in Tulsa, Okla., where she was the head women's varsity coach for one season. In that capacity, she led her squad to one of its best seasons ever and was named the Oklahoma High School District Soccer Coach of the Year.

Sanders has also worked with numerous summer camps including the Oklahoma Outrage Soccer Camps, University of Arkansas Soccer Camps and the Terry Venables Soccer School.

Prior to her stint as a coach, Sanders was a four-year starter at outside midfield and one of the Southeastern Conference's most tenacious players for the University of Mississippi Lady Rebels. During her four seasons, the Lady Rebels won two SEC Western Division Championships and made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Championship Tournament. Sanders accumulated 13 goals and 20 assists for 46 points at Mississippi, all of which rank among the Lady Rebels' all-time best. Upon her graduation from Ole Miss, Sanders ranked eighth on the career points and goals charts and still sits tied for fourth on the career assists list. She also ranks second all-time for assists in a game when she helped four Lady Rebel goals in an 11-0 drubbing of Alabama A&M in 2001.

While playing at one of Arkansas' Southeastern Conference rivals, Sanders was able to make a pair of trips to her hometown and was always excited to see the Lady Razorbacks. In fact, Sanders became somewhat of an Arkansas killer as she acquired one goal and two assists in four matches against the Lady'Backs. As a sophomore she played lights out as she helped the Rebels take a 2-1 lead late in the first half, then iced the match with a second assist in the 67th minute. Her lone goal against Arkansas came in 2001 when she put Ole Miss on the scoreboard with a score in the seventh minute in Fayetteville.

Not just an outstanding player at Mississippi, Sanders was also a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was the only student-athlete at Ole Miss on the University's Committee for Intercollegiate Athletics.

Following her soccer career and bachelor's degree in the winter of 2002, Sanders took an internship at FITSO, a gym in Tulsa, Okla., where she was a personal trainer and fitness instructor. During that time she also coached at Cascia Preparatory, before returning to her alma mater to pursue her master's degree in exercise science.

During the summer of 2004, Sanders took an internship with the Auburn University strength and conditioning department before accepting the assistant coach position at Arkansas.

Sanders is the daughter of Tom and Barbara Sanders.

Soccer Support Staff

Sean Collins - Assistant Athletic Trainer, A.T., C.

Sean Collins joined the Lady Razorbacks in 1999 and begins his seventh season as an assistant athletic trainer in the Women's Athletics Department.

In charge of the soccer team for the past seven years, Collins took on the traveling duties with the club prior to the 2004 season as he also worked with the perennial championship contender Lady Razorback cross country/track and field squad.

Collins joined the Lady'Backs from Carroll College, a private Catholic college in Montana where he served as the head athletic trainer. While at Carroll, Collins worked with six varsity sports and approximately 150 male and female athletes. His duties encompassed all areas of the training room including sport and game coverage, injury rehabilitation, insurance and budgeting duties as well as conditioning program duties. In addition to his training room duties, Collins was also a guest lecturer in several athletic training classes as well as serving as a CPR instructor.

Prior to his work at Carroll College, Collins attended the University of Montana as a graduate assistant working primarily with men's and women's track.

In addition to his athletic training certification, Collins is a certified strength and conditioning specialist and holds his private pilot's license.

Collins graduated from the University of Montana in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training and completed his master's degree in sports psychology at Montana in 1997. He was married in the summer of 2005 to the former Nolynn Sutherland.

Philip Pierce - Assistant Communications Director

Philip Pierce joined the Women's Communications Office in January of 1998 after serving a year and a half as an intern for the Arkansas Men's Sports Information Office. Since joining the Lady Razorbacks, Pierce has worked with five of Arkansas' 11 sports and is currently teamed with the Lady'Back soccer, cross country and track and field teams. Over the past five seasons, Pierce served as the Media Coordinator for the NCAA Men's and Women's Indoor Track and Field Championships in Fayetteville, Ark.

While working as an intern for the Arkansas men, Pierce was the contact for the national championship cross-country/track and field program as well as golf. The Razorbacks won six SEC and four NCAA titles in cross country/track while Pierce worked with the program. Pierce also worked with Associate Athletic Director Bill Smith on the creation of the Arkansas men's athletics web site, HOGWIRED.com.

A 1996 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace (Ohio), Pierce received a bachelor's degree in sports management and business administration. While at Baldwin-Wallace he worked in the sports information office for three years working on all of the Yellow Jackets' 20 varsity sports. A native of Darien, Conn., Pierce is the son of Norman and Cynthia Pierce.

Kevin Jones - Facilities Supervisor

Kevin Jones begins his 11th year with Women's Athletics, and is in charge of the upkeep of the Lady'Backs' home facilities. Jones has several accomplishments to his credit since joining the Lady'Backs. He has earned several awards for his turf work, including national recognition in 1998, 2000, 2002 and 2003 from the National Fastpitch Coaches Association/Turf Grounds Crew Field Maintenance of the Year award. Jones is also a member of the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA).

J.C. Moreau - Strength and Conditioning Coach

Joining the Lady Razorback staff in the summer of 2004, J.C. Moreau begins his second season with the Lady Razorbacks. Formerly at the University of Memphis, Moreau is in charge of the strength and conditioning for all 11 Lady Razorback teams.

While an assistant at Memphis, Moreau was placed in charge of the Tigers' soccer, cross country and volleyball teams and as well as the men's sprinters. He also assisted with Memphis' football and baseball programs.

Moreau began his career at Colgate University in 1999 before making stops at Lafayette (Pa.) College and Memphis. A certified sports performance coach, he graduated from Colgate with a degree in history in 2000. He is currently pursuing his master's degree at Memphis in human movement science and education.

2004 Season Review

It was an up and down season for the Lady Razorbacks in 2004 under first-year head coach Gordon Henderson, as the team began to learn the intricacies of a new philosophy and game plan. The Lady Razorbacks improved throughout the season, closing out the schedule with a modest record and several notable accomplishments including their best-ever start in Southeastern Conference play, three school records and one of their best non-conference records in 19 years.

Taking their show on the road to open the 2004 campaign, Arkansas faced a scrappy Southeast Missouri team in Cape Girardeau, Mo., to begin the Henderson era of Lady Razorback soccer. Falling behind, Arkansas came back twice in the contest, eventually falling on the Astroturf pitch, 3-2. Frustrated, but not discouraged, Arkansas would return home two days later, and end a 10-year winless streak against the University of Tulsa on Aug. 29 with a 1-0 victory thanks to Megan McCool's game winner, scored just over one minute into the contest.

After a disappointing 1-0 loss at Oral Roberts in early September, the Lady'Backs continued a four-match stretch on the road with a pair of games in Huntsville, Ala. Perhaps it was the hot weather or a return to the team philosophy, but the Lady'Backs were unstoppable as they downed Grambling and Southern by a combined margin of 15-0 to improve to 4-3 overall. Arkansas' match with Freshman Sarah Gwisdala became just the third Lady Razorback to earn an SEC Player of the Week honor.

Southern set three Lady Razorback records including margin of victory and goals in a game, while sophomore Katie Hamilton notched three assists to tie another record. Nine Lady Razorbacks scored on the weekend, and for her accomplishments, freshman Sarah Gwisdala was named the SEC's Offensive Player of the Week as she netted four goals.

Arkansas concluded its non-conference schedule the following week in Virginia against Old Dominion, falling to the Monarchs, 3-1, entering SEC play at 4-4.

It was a special night under the lights on Sept. 24 when Vanderbilt came to Fayetteville to open SEC play. The Lady Razorbacks also welcomed the crew from SEC-TV who broadcasted a match from Lady'Back Field for the first time since its renovation. The combination of excitement and anticipation led the Lady Razorbacks to a 2-1 win over the Commodores for Arkansas' third straight win over their conference foe. The victory was just the fifth time that the Lady Razorbacks opened SEC play with a win in 11 years.

The Lady Razorbacks faced Kentucky on Sunday afternoon, and despite a poor track record against the Wildcats, made an early Gwisdala goal stand up over 110 minutes to earn a 1-1 tie. The results moved the Lady'Backs to 1-0-1 on the season to keep the fledgling squad undefeated in conference action.

In what was perhaps the most exciting game of the 2004 season, Arkansas traveled to Starkville, Miss., to face the Bulldogs of Mississippi State. Hoping to keep their unblemished conference record intact, the Lady'Backs scored in the 13th minute when Brashear knocked in a rebound off a junior Katie Taylor shot for the game's first score. Ten minutes later, the Bulldogs would counter with a through ball that led to an easy score. A 1-1 game throughout the rest of regulation, the contest moved into extra time where Brashear tracked down a ball along the right touchline and sent a cross soaring to the far post. Making a splendid run, Hamilton dove at the ball and knocked in a diving header golden goal at 92:44 to end the contest and move the Lady Razorbacks to 2-0-1 in SEC play, their best start ever.

Katie Hamilton had a breakout season in 2004 including a school record for assists in a game.

Arkansas' season continued on the road before the Lady Razorbacks returned home to face #19 Auburn at Lady'Back Field. Once again the Lady Razorbacks played a stellar game defensively, but couldn't find their scoring touch, falling to their ranked opponent 1-0 on a 25-yard shot in the 89th minute. The emotions left on the field after the disappointing loss haunted the Lady'Backs on Sunday afternoon as they allowed Alabama to score three times in the first eight minutes of play. Down but not out, Arkansas outplayed its opponent for the next 82 minutes, but the damage had been done and the Lady'Backs fell 3-1.

Another defensive struggle ensued against South Carolina in Arkansas' next match, but it was the Lady Razorbacks' lack of offense that allowed the Gamecocks a 1-0 victory at Lady'Back Field. Traveling to 25th-ranked Florida, Arkansas hoped to knock off its first ranked foe. Scoreless at the half, the Gators notched a goal in the 51st minute, then another in the 75th to take a 2-0 lead. Freshman Alison Harter scored in the 77th minute to bring the Lady'Backs within one of extra time, but could not find the right combination to force overtime, dropping their fourth consecutive decision, 2-1.

Arkansas wrapped up its 2004 campaign with a road match against division rival LSU in Baton Rouge, La. Looking a step off throughout the contest, Arkansas was unable to recover from the first score of the contest and eventually lost the match 3-0 to end its season.

Giving up the game's first goal in the 23rd minute did not deter Arkansas from storming back to tie the game at the half on Allison Harris' first career goal. Falling behind again early in the second, Arkansas knotted the score at two thanks to a Christina Burger tally. Moments later, SEMO capitalized again, this time not allowing the Lady'Backs back into the contest despite several great opportunities.

Megan McCool started her first game of the season and made it count, scoring the eventual game winner just 1:19 into the contest. In front of a season-opening record crowd of 639, the Lady Razorbacks were aggressive in every facet of the game. Carrie Dillsaver picked up her fourth career shutout and her seventh career win. The victory by the Lady Razorbacks was the first time in 10 years that Arkansas defeated the Golden Hurricane.

Senior Jenni Brashear netted her first goal of the season on a header in the 47th minute to give Arkansas all the offense it needed against Southwest Missouri State. An even battle throughout, Arkansas' lone goal came off one of its eight corner kicks. Junior Meredith Thompson provided the winning corner to Brashear. Carrie Dillsaver recorded her second consecutive shutout in the win and the fifth of her career.

For the second consecutive game, the Lady Razorbacks had a clean sheet through the half, but against Oklahoma Arkansas didn't have the best of luck. After falling behind 1-0, Arkansas tallied a goal off the foot of Katie Stauffer, the first of her career, to knot the score. Unfortunately, OU took advantage of a momentary lapse in Arkansas' game to give them a 2-1 lead.

The Lady Razorbacks benefited from an early own goal, then let Sarah Gwisdala work her magic in the closing moments to open SEC play with a victory over Vanderbilt. Gwisdala connected on a 14-yard shot after a through ball from Megan McCool in the 84th minute. Carrie Dillsaver made four saves including one to keep the game tied as she punched a ball over the crossbar, and got help from Andrea Sparks who made a goal line save off a corner kick.

Once again Sarah Gwisdala scored the goal, but it was a late shot off a corner by Kentucky that forced overtime as Arkansas opened conference play undefeated for the first time since 1995. The tie snapped a six-match winning streak for Kentucky against Arkansas. Gwisdala's goal came in the 72nd minute when she dribbled around a trio of Kentucky players and hit a left-footed shot over the keeper and into the far corner of the goal.

The Lady Razorbacks picked up their first-ever result in Athens when they tied the Bulldogs 0-0 and notched their fifth shutout in the process. Arkansas looked very strong on defense and Carrie Dillsaver picked up eight saves in the effort which gave the Lady'Backs their eighth point of the season. Offensively, Arkansas had few very solid scoring chances highlighted by a Morgan McCord corner kick that just missed a streaking Jenni Brashear.

Looking to defend their home field on senior night, the Lady Razorbacks battled valiantly against the South Carolina Gamecocks, but could not overcome a first-half goal, falling, 1-0. Arkansas was certainly not without its chances as it placed five shots on the South Carolina net, but each Lady'Back attempt was thwarted by the Gamecock keeper.

The Lady Razorbacks gave the Florida Gators fits in the offensive zone by not allowing any shots from inside the penalty area. The tactic worked to perfection as Florida's first goal came from outside the box on a rifle hit to the short side of the goal. Arkansas picked up a goal to make the contest 2-1 late in the game when Ali Harter got behind the Florida defense and neatly placed a shot into the corner of the goal for her second career score.

Needing a win and help to make the SEC Tournament, Arkansas went to Baton Rouge and battled for 84 minutes before a score off a corner dashed its hopes of a postseason. Arkansas got the help, but was unable to take care of its own business. Senior Jenni Brashear looked good in her final game, and freshman Sarah Gwisdala continued to showcase herself as a rising star.

Lady Razorback History

The University of Arkansas has been a pioneer for women's sports throughout the past 30 years, and the Lady Razorback soccer team is no exception. One of the first women's soccer teams in the country, Arkansas began varsity play in 1986, and since that time has earned the respect of the nation as one of the toughest places to play. Over the course of the past 20 years, there have been many significant plays, wins, losses and firsts: the first victory on September 21, 1986, at Texas A&M University; the Southeastern Conference's first Player of the Year; and the construction of Lady'Back Field to its current state. But all pale in comparison to the personalities of the more than 150 women who have made Arkansas women's soccer what it is today.

Beginning in the fall of 1986, the Lady Razorbacks played a 12-game schedule under its first head coach, Curtis Sergeant, going 3-9-0 against regional opponents from Texas and Missouri.

The Lady Razorbacks turned things around in their second year of competition. Improving by leaps and bounds, the team went 10-8 for its first winning season while posting six shutouts. The 1987 schedule also allowed the Lady'Backs to not only play regional opponents, but also to travel as the team took its first significant roadtrip to the Sunshine State for a pair of matches in Boca Raton, Fla.

After two seasons of varsity play, the Lady Razorbacks turned the program over to Kathy Ludwig prior to the 1988 season. An all-American during her playing days, Ludwig brought experience at the Division I level to Arkansas' program. Working with a large group of young players, Ludwig's first Lady Razorback team struggled at the beginning of the 1988 season, but came back strong during the second half.

One of the things for which Ludwig will long be remembered was the recruitment of Ruthie Miller from Broken Arrow, Okla., and Molly Myers of Colorado Springs, Colo. The pair was instrumental in Arkansas' five-year run of non-losing seasons, which began in 1989, and is a major part of Arkansas' career record books.

Miller took over the career lead in scoring during her senior season and held the mark until 2003, while Myers was the first of many outstanding goalkeepers at Arkansas, but none have been able to overcome her eight Arkansas records.

Prior to the 1990 season, Marcia McDermott became the Lady Razorbacks third head coach, and her three-year stint is one of the most productive of Arkansas' history. During her time, the Lady Razorbacks won 26 matches and set a school record for wins in a season with 11 in 1991.

During McDermott's tenure, Arkansas made another commitment to the soccer program when it constructed Lady'Back Field at its current position on the corner of California and Sixth Street. At the time of its construction, Lady'Back Field was the first collegiate soccer field used solely by a women's team, and to this day remains one of only a handful of such fields.

The off-season between the 1992 and 1993 seasons was a busy one for the Lady Razorbacks. Former North Carolina standout Janet Rayfield was hired as the fourth coach of the Arkansas soccer program, and the University announced that it was joining the Southeastern Conference. Both incidents made waves throughout the nation, and Arkansas did not disappoint. The Lady Razorbacks went 10-10 in Rayfield's first season, and then crushed Auburn on way to the SEC Tournament finals where they lost in overtime to Vanderbilt.

The 1993 campaign was not just significant in what Arkansas was able to do against the SEC, but also in that saw the construction of a field house at Lady'Back Field. The '93 team also produced the most prolific scoring output in Arkansas soccer history. Led by the tandem of Honey Marsh and Amy Van Laecke, Arkansas tallied 57 goals over its 20 games while conceding just 36. Marsh's play throughout the season allowed her to be named the SEC's first Player of the Year and first tournament MVP.

Honey Marsh was the SEC's first Player of the Year and Tournament MVP.

The 1994 season saw the Lady Razorbacks' play their first regular-season conference matches, then host the second SEC Championship Tournament. Once again the Lady Razorbacks were strong in the postseason, advancing to the tournament semifinals before falling a second time to the Vanderbilt Commodores.

The SEC had a boom in 1995 as six teams were added to the league to compete for supremacy, and Arkansas remained in the thick of the action.

The Lady Razorbacks earned their first SEC win in a 2-1 overtime victory over Mississippi State on Sept. 8, 1995, and saw goalkeeper Holly Smith emerge as the next standout player on Arkansas' roster. As the SEC continued to push women's sports into the lime-light, Arkansas did its part by welcoming the first televised match of SEC women's soccer at Lady'Back Field.

Holly Smith's amazing 1996 season between the posts led Arkansas to the SEC Championship game.

Arkansas' 1996 season was one of the best seasons in the Lady Razorbacks' history as it

Lady Razorback History

The first televised SEC soccer match occurred at Lady'Back Field and blossomed into a yearly package for SEC women's soccer.

won 11 matches and took the SEC's Western Division crown. Beginning the year 1-3-0, Arkansas rallied to win eight of its next 10 games to put themselves in the catbird's seat. At the SEC Tournament, the Lady'Backs defeated Vanderbilt for the first time since joining the conference, then knocked off Georgia 3-1 before falling to Florida in the championship game, 3-2, in double overtime.

The firsts continued to come in 1997 when Arkansas added lights to Lady'Back Field, allowing the Lady Razorbacks to host their first night game on their home pitch on Aug. 30, 1997.

Following the resignation of Rayfield after the 1998 season, Arkansas hired Alan Kirkup to take the reigns of the program. One of the winningest women's collegiate soccer coaches of all-time, Kirkup brought a keen knowledge of the game to the Lady Razorbacks which showed in his first year as coach. One of Kirkup's first duties included the recruitment of Pam Pesnell, the first Fayetteville, Ark., native to the Lady Razorback soccer team, and then he focused on his team which ended the 1999 season in a tie for first in the SEC West.

Arkansas' first game under the lights at Lady'Back Field occurred in 1997.

Getting the most out of his players, Kirkup took a group of unknown players and made them into a force, especially at tournament time. In his first SEC Championships, Kirkup started six freshmen against the defending national champion, Florida Gators, and held a 2-0 lead on his opponent after 10 minutes of action.

Holly Collins shattered the Lady'Backs' assist record in 2001.

Kirkup's tutelage also led to the fall of nearly every Arkansas offensive record. Midfielder Holly Collins broke the Lady Razorbacks' assist record in 2000 when she notched her 18th, then destroyed it as a senior in 2001 by raising the mark to 26. Another Kirkup recruit, Julie Williford, broke Miller's records for goals and points in a career, and became the first Lady Razorback to eclipse the 100-point mark for her career.

In 2001 Lady'Back Field added stadium seating for 1,500 as well as press facilities to reach its current configuration.

The Gordon Henderson era of Lady Razorback soccer began in the spring of 2004 and continues with a return to grass roots. Henderson's philosophy focuses on the team and community development which translated to record crowds in his first season.

Julie Williford broke the 12-year-old records of Ruthie Miller in 2002.

20th Anniversary Celebration

The University of Arkansas Lady Razorback soccer team has embraced its 20th Anniversary celebration and has already conducted events in appreciation. This past April Arkansas hosted its sixth consecutive Alumni Weekend that included several social gatherings and culminated with a match on Lady'Back Field between the veterans and the current team members. While Arkansas' current squad won to preserve its perfect record, the game was hard fought and became even more interesting when the alumni fielded a team of 20 against 11 Lady Razorbacks.

Lunch during Alumni Weekend

While the Alumni Weekend is much anticipated, Arkansas' coaches are implementing a new program this fall to honor all the Lady Razorback alumni for perpetuity. Soon the sidewalks of Lady'Back Field will mirror those of the University when all graduating seniors will have their names etched into the concrete leading up to the grandstands.

"I'm very excited about the sidewalks," Arkansas head coach Gordon Henderson said. "We really want to build the tradition of Lady Razorback soccer, and what better way to do that than to honor those student-athletes that came through this program and made it what it is today."

The University of Arkansas has been very proud of its student-athletes over the years and the soccer team is no exception. To honor those that have excelled both on the field of play and in the classroom, the Women's Athletics Department created awards reflecting that academic achievement. The Southeastern Conference also honors student-athletes for their contributions in the classroom. Each of the academic lists requires that a student maintain a 3.0 grade point average minimum.

The Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference has continued its rise as one of the top conferences in women's soccer.

The 2004 women's soccer season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the country. Three teams from the SEC were invited to the NCAA tournament. Auburn, Florida and Tennessee made the 64-team field. The three teams combined for a record of 3-3 with the Lady Vols advancing to the Third Round before falling at Ohio State. The SEC now has a 33-34-3 (.493) NCAA Tournament record in 31 appearances.

SEC women's soccer will begin its 13th season in the year of 2005 deeply rooted in the national scene of collegiate soccer. Since the SEC initiated women's soccer as a varsity sport in 1993, the sport's popularity has grown through the country and especially in the Southeast. A definitive point in the SEC's women's soccer success came in 1995 when FOX Sports South broadcasted the SEC Tournament Championship match between Alabama and Kentucky on a tape-delayed basis, signifying the first appearance of an SEC women's soccer match on television. Southeastern Conference women's soccer continued to grow over the next couple of years as the conference made a name for itself nationally. In 1998, the SEC had its breakout season with Florida winning the conference's first NCAA title in women's soccer in just the program's fourth year of existence. The league led the nation with six NCAA Tournament teams that year, an accomplishment which firmly inserted the SEC as one of the major conferences in women's soccer. The SEC also made bigger strides in its television coverage with three regular season matches and the SEC Tournament championship match shown live on the SECTV package. In 2004, SEC-TV's women's soccer coverage was four regular-season matches, in addition to the SEC Tournament championship match. That incremental growth combined with increasing exposure on the national and regional scene has SEC women's soccer looking to blossom to new heights in the year 2005 and beyond.

Lady'Back Field

The University of Arkansas has always been pro-active when it comes to women's athletics, and the lifespan of Lady'Back Field is a tribute to that stance. When it was constructed in 1992, Lady'Back Field was the first collegiate soccer field in the country that was dedicated solely to the use of a women's team. To this day it remains one of a handful of such fields.

With improvements planned following its construction, a field house was built to house locker rooms for both participating teams, and lights were erected to allow the Lady'Backs to practice and play at any time.

Arguably the best pitch in the Southeastern Conference, for facilities and playing surface, the field was the host for the 1994 SEC Championship Tournament and was the first field to televise a women's soccer match in the SEC.

Completed for the 1999 season were several improvements including wrought-iron fencing around the field, a ticket booth and permanent professional-style players' benches.

Following the 1999 soccer campaign, construction of a new stadium to accommodate the growing fan base at Lady'Back Field began. The spring of 2001 saw the stadium seat 1,500 spectators, including chair-back seating for season-ticket holders as well as fully functional press facilities, television and radio booths and a VIP hospitality area.

Lady'Back Field looks to undergo another facelift in the near future as the field house will be renovated to accommodate the technologies of the past 10 years. Included in those plans are a team meeting room, new medical area and the expansion of the current locker room.

Lady'Back Field constructed; first collegiate soccer complex exclusively for women.

1993

Fieldhouse at Lady'Back Field is completed with locker rooms for both teams.

1994

Lady'Back Field hosts the SEC Soccer Championships.

1995

Lady'Back Field is the site of the first televised SEC soccer match.
