you say you love the streets of copenhagen

Kate Duby

flirty      and      asymmetrical the houses that cling to each other like a blue and yellow chain the grand sails atop young, shaky ships weathered by the teasing of the tide the eavesdropping accordion players huddled in their corners converting gossip to song and giving you to the city maybe      someday when I visit

I'll sit where you sat on the dock, have my picture taken and learn what love means to you
