11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. - SOOIE is hosting its annual Fall Involvement Fair. The event will be held in the Arkansas Union Ballroom. We would love for your RSO to attend. All students who attend will receive a passport to take with them to RSO tables. All completed passports will go into a drawing after the event for prizes. This event would be a great way for your RSO to get the word out to hundreds of students about your RSO's purpose. It will give students an opportunity to talk to members of your RSO to learn more about how they can get involved on campus and the benefits of joining RSOs on campus (specifically yours!). If your RSO wants to participate in the Involvement Fair, please RSVP with SOOIE no later than September 16th. In order to RSVP, please send your RSO name and contact information to Erin Smith, sooieinv@uark.edu. If you have questions, please feel free to contact Erin Smith – SOOIE Director of Involvement.

Announcements:

Dining Services

- The first crop of lettuce seedlings are going into the hydroponic towers in the Freight Farm. Ashley Meek, our campus Dietitian is working with two student interns Taylor Pruitt and Merrisa Jennings to transfer the plants from growing trays this week. First harvest is expected in mid to late September.
- There are still job opportunities for students with Chartwells on campus. Hours are flexible with entry level pay starting at $9. Skilled positions pay higher. Student associates are also eligible for a $250 bonus if they refer a fellow student who is hired and works with us for 6 months or longer. Chartwells provides hands on training and work experience students can use to build a resume. For more information contact uarkfood@uark.edu or visit the Chartwells Employment Center in the Arkansas Union in room 103.
- The new Chartwells nutrition blog went live on Thursday, Aug. 25! Ashley Meek, our campus dietitian is the primary author. Student interns Mackenzie Ladasau and Ashton Julian are also providing content. Go to: www.foodpigsooie.com
- There will be a lunch and learn on Wednesday, Sept. 21 from 12:00 – 1:00 p.m. with Ashley Meek. The event will be broadcast live on our Facebook page. Go to: Chartwells Dining University of Arkansas to catch the event.

Greek Life

- The Keeping it Real program for new members will take place in the Union Ballroom with two sessions beginning Thursday, Sept. 8 at 6:00 p.m. Keeping it Real is a program to encourage and educate new Greek Life members regarding mature management of alcohol. Throughout this program, the audience will learn about various topics as it pertains to risk management on a college campus.
- Panhellenic Council won the National Excellence Award from National Panhellenic Conference, one of 27 out of 670 College Panhellenic Associations to be recognized. UA Panhellenic Council met all seven of these criteria areas to achieve this award: Recruitment, Panhellenic structure, Communication with NPC area advisor, Judicial procedures, Panhellenic programming, Academics, Panhellenic community impact and relations.

- Panhellenic Formal Recruitment began with Orientation on Friday, August 12 with a record-breaking 1,660 Potential New Members (PNMs) registered. A total of 1,413 bids were given out on Bid Day, Aug. 20 in the Greek Theater. Read the UA4student blog for pics and video. <https://ua4student.uark.edu/greek-life-new-members-bid-day-2016/>

Acknowledgments:

Development

We have 38 scholarships currently housed in Student Affairs. During the 2015-16 academic year, we awarded 141 student recipients a total of $103,987.35 in scholarships. Thank you to everyone who assisted with the scholarship process. Our goal this year is to add new scholarship funds and raise more money for existing funds.

Pat Walker Health Center

After 30 Years of Service on Monday, Aug. 1, Dr. Rick Belt retired from the Pat Walker Health Center and the University of Arkansas after 30 years of services. "Dr. Belt has devoted his career to the well-being of students, faculty and staff at the University of Arkansas. His intellect, professional expertise and sincere interest in his work and his patients make him appreciated and valued by many colleagues on our campus," said Mary Alice Serafini, associate vice chancellor and executive director of the health center. "Dr. Belt's retirement caps a very successful career for which he should be congratulated and honored."

Dr. Belt earned his medical degree from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He joined the health center on Aug. 1, 1986, as a primary care physician, and helped advocate for the health center's Women's Clinic, Nurse Triage program and certified nursing assistant position.
