PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

ARKANSAS STORYLINES

A LOT COMING BACK

- » Arkansas returns 10 of 11 letterwinners.
- » Four of the top-5 scorers including leading scoring Malica Monk who averaged 15.9 ppg return.
- » That is 80.3% of the scoring back this year.
- » Four of the top-5 leading rebounders return including the leader in Kiara Williams who averaged 6.8 rpg.
- » That is 86.1% of the rebounding who return.
- » Arkansas has four seniors and three juniors.
- » Arkansas returns four players who started the SEC Tournament a year ago. Kentucky and South Carolina return all five players who started the SEC Tournament while Auburn returns 4 players. LSU, Tennessee, Georgia, Vanderbilt, and Missouri have three back followed by 2 for Florida and one each at Texas A&M, Mississippi State, and Ole Miss.

WHAT WE RETURN

Steals	211	167	79.1%

SCHEDULE

- » Eight SEC teams reached the postseason.
- » Two non-conference opponents played in the NCAA Tournament last year.
- » Arkansas faces teams from the Pac-12, Big 12, Big 10, Southland, Sun Belt, Summit, Ohio Valley, American Athletic and Southwestern Athletic conferences.
- » There are no new opponents for the Razorbacks on this year's schedule but a few of the teams are distant memories for Arkansas. Arkansas last faced Wisconsin in 1999, Pittsburgh in 1994, Iowa State in 1980 and Prairie View A&M in 1979.

WHAT'S GONE

- » Graduate student Devin Cosper is the only letterwinner lost.
- » Cosper was second on the team with 14.1 ppg and 5.6 rpg.

WHAT'S NEW

- » There are three newcomers listed but Arkansas also adds in the services of two other players who redshirted last season.
- » A'Tyanna Gaulden and Chelsea Dungee both redshirted last year but practiced with the team. They will be ready to contribute in games this year.
- » Neighbors and staff added one freshman and one junior college player this year. A second incoming junior, Amber Ramirez, will redshirt this season due to NCAA transfer rules.

WHAT WE FACE IN THE SEC

- » Seven league teams were selected to the NCAA Tournament and an eighth earned a WNIT selection.
- » Mississippi State reached the Final Four, South Carolina the quarterfinals and Georgia, Texas A&M and Tennessee advanced to the second round. Missouri was eliminated in the first round. Alabama reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT.
- » Ten of the top-15 scorers in the SEC (all games) return this season including leader Chennedy Carter from Texas A&M. Razorback Malica Monk is among that group and is one of seven seniors.

- » Four players scored in double figures: Alexis Tolefree, 16; A'Tyanna Gaulden, 13; Taylah Thomas, 10; Chelsea Dungee, 10.
- » Arkansas was 10-for-12 from the line, their best performance of the trip.

Game Three: International All-Stars

- » Two players in double figures led by Alexis Tolefree with 23 points. Amber Ramirez added 14 points.
- » Thirteen of 15 players had a rebound.
- » Malica Monk had a game-high five assists. That was a single-game best on the trip.
- » Arkansas hit a game-best 14 3-point field goals, including five from Alexis Tolefree.
- » Arkansas had just eight turnovers, the fewest total for all games.

Newcomers Shine

- » When the three games were over, it was a pair of newcomers who paced Arkansas. Alexis Tolefree led the team with 45 points and 15.0 points per game. Chelsea Dungee, who redshirted at Arkansas last year, scored 28 points and averaged 9.3 ppg.

Overall

Arkansas averaged 82.0 points per game and 48 rebounds per game over the three-game tour.

THE MOST INTERESTING MAN IN COLLEGE BASKETBALL

→ Grew up with a "Big Touk": Coach is lactose intolerant and often had Coke in his bottle.

→ Blueberry Please: When he got old enough to make his own breakfast, Pop Tarts were a regular. He liked the chocolate ones as a kid but prefers frosted blueberry now.

→ Movies: His expansive movie collection includes digital, disk and VHS copies. Did you know he used to work at BlockBuster?

→ Lunch Boxes: Coach collects tin lunch boxes and has them displayed in his home. His first lunch box had KISS on it. He got it in second grade.

→ Athens City Champion: Coach stumbled upon a dart tournament while on a trip to Athens, Georgia. He joined in and was one of the two-man winning team.

WENDI WILLITS

Three-Pointers

Since the introduction of the bonus basket for women's basketball in 1986, there has never been an outside shooter like Fort Cobb, Okla., native Wendi Willits -- either at Arkansas or in the Southeastern Conference. Willits broke the Arkansas career records of Kimberly Wilson early in her senior year, finishing her career just shy of the SEC's all-time record held by LSU's Cornelia Gayden. Willits currently ranks T-4th for three's in a game (9); fifth for made 3-pointers in a season (104), third for career 3-pointers made (316), and seventh for 3-point field goal attempts (771). Both prolific and accurate, she is No. 3 in attempts and No. 2 in percentage for a career at Arkansas. In 1999, she was top five in the NCAA in both three-pointers per game and percentage, earning her the Ed Steitz Award as the nation's top female three-point shooter.

AMY WRIGHT

Career Assists and Consecutive Games Played

Recruited from Williamsburg, Ind., to become the next great point guard in Arkansas history, Amy Wright did not disappoint. A starter at the point from her first day at Arkansas, she broke the freshman assist record of her immediate predecessor, Christy Smith, and never looked back. Assists became her passion, and Wright rewrote the Arkansas record books in her four seasons, removing both her coach and Hall of Honor member Amber Nicholas Shirey and Smith from almost all the major records. Her 172 assists as a freshman led Arkansas to the WNIT Championship and was the closest anyone had come to Donna Wilson's 1988 season record. Her junior season, Wright crushed Wilson's mark with 198 to take Arkansas to the second round of the NCAA tournament. By the end of her career, the only assist records Wright was breaking were her own, including 205 her senior season. Closing her career with 717, she has almost 200 more assists than the former career leader Nicholas Shirey. Wright had more double-digit assist games than any other player, and became the first player in recorded Razorback history to get the hard double of 10 assists and 10 rebounds (versus Miss. State as a junior). In her four seasons, she never missed a game, playing 131 consecutive to break Sytia Messer's mark of 128. Of all her statistics, the one no other point guard can touch is leading her team to four consecutive post-season berths. After closing her playing career with WNBA draft camp, Wright spent one season with Arkansas in marketing before becoming an assistant coach for the 2003-04 season at South Florida. Wright is currently an assistant coach at Texas A&M.

DELMONICA DEHORNEY

Career Blocked Shots, Field Goal Percentage & Free Throw Attempts

While her mark in the career record book is for blocked shots, Delmonica DeHorney was the greatest inside player in Razorback history. She was second only to Bettye Fiscus in points until 2004, and she was the first, and to date the only, Razorback to earn Kodak All-America honors. DeHorney also is the most accurate shooter in school history for a season or career. In fact, she set the season shooting record in three of her four years. A back-to-back SWC Player of the Year, she led the SWC in scoring and Arkansas to consecutive league titles. The SWC Newcomer as a freshman, she was the only player in SWC history to earn three league awards. She shattered the previous blocked shot records, and became the career leader after her junior year. In one season, 1989-90, DeHorney had more blocks (83) than all but two players in school history had for their careers. DeHorney went on to play professionally in Japan after completing her four-year career at Arkansas.

Of her 235 career blocks, the three most important in DeHorney's career came in the first half of the Feb. 23, 1990, game at Texas. All three came against UT's star forward Susan Anderson, shutting down the Lady Longhorns' inside game and allowing Arkansas to take a 38-31 halftime lead. UA went on to break UT's 183-game SWC winning streak.

TEAM SEC SEASON RECORDS

(Before 1998, the SEC regular season was less than 14 games. Absolute marks from 11 and 12 game years and 14 game years where a pre-1998 season holds the mark are noted in brackets.)

SHELLY WALLACE

Career Rebounds

Shelly Wallace's career parallels Arkansas' rise to national prominence, leading the Razorbacks to their first NCAA playoff berth and the 1987 Women's NIT title. Wallace made her biggest record impact with rebounding. She is the only Arkansas women's basketball player to go over the 1,000 mark in rebounds and one of only two in Southwest Conference history. However, she was Arkansas' greatest double threat. Wallace was the first -- and only -- player to average in double figures in points and rebounds for a season (16.5 ppg, 11.8 rpg in 1987-88). She also is one of only two players to score over 40 points, setting the school record with 44, and has the most 30-plus games (seven) of any player. She was also an honorable mention Kodak All-American as a senior.

BUD WALTON ARENA RECORDS

THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena - The Basketball Palace of Mid-America - for 25 years and has defended its home court well with a 263-111 (.703) record since the doors opened.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, then-Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league. His attention turned immediately to basketball. One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Walmart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC.

Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, Bud Walton Arena was born. Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months.

Eye-catching displays that were recently updated on the concourse level salute Razorback highlights. Enhancements prior to the 2009 season included the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, electronic ribbon boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches. Eight suites were added prior to the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2013 and includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area. In the summer of 2015, a $4 million investment was made to the arena to maximize fan experience. Fans enjoy a updated center hung video board with four LED displays that gave Bud Walton Arena the largest video display of any basketball facility in the country at the time.

To go along with the visual enhancements, a brand new sound system was also installed to enhance volume and clarity for every seat in the arena. As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral. According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting. From pre-game to post-game, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Bud Walton Arena is a rich experience, leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

Arkansas hosted the 1994 NCAA Midwest Regional during Walton Arena's inaugural season. In 1995, the Razorback women's basketball team hosted all four rounds of the Preseason Women's NIT -- thanks in large part to the excellent accommodations provided by Bud Walton Arena. It all paled in comparison to the 1999 Women's NIT as Arkansas hosted all five rounds of the post-season event, including an all-time UA and then WNIT record 14,163 fans for the championship game versus Wisconsin. The 1999 WNIT semifinals and finals alone saw over 23,000 fans attend the two games, helping the Razorbacks to a new all-time attendance record of 77,001 total fans. Arkansas also hosted four rounds of the 2000 WNIT at Walton.

BARNHILL ARENA RECORDS

A TOUGH PLACE TO PLAY

It seemed appropriate that the final basketball event at John Barnhill Arena was a women's basketball game and a women's basketball banquet.

As fate would have it, it was a girls' basketball game back in 1977 that was the first hoops contest played in the newly-renovated and expanded home court for the Razorback men's and women's basketball.

Betsy Broyles' Fayetteville High team played days before the first men's or women's college game in what would become known as one of the most feared home courts in modern collegiate basketball.

The next year, Betsy would become the first high school recruit to accept a scholarship to play women's basketball at the University.

On Dec. 7, 1993, she and over 30 former letterwinners returned for A Moment in Time, a banquet to honor women's basketball in Barnhill. It was the evening prior to the women's opener in Bud Walton Arena against DePaul.

During the 17 years between her first and most recent appearances in Barnhill, The Barn was the site of many great moments of women's basketball history.

Arkansas was undefeated in its first home season (6-0) and in three subsequent years (1981-82, 1982-83 and 1990-91).

The women's basketball team set its home consecutive win streak at 21 games from 1981 to 1984.

That streak was broken with 23 in the early 1990s, and for a brief period of time, Barnhill Arena was the home of the longest active women's home winning streak.

Since the start of the NCAA era in 1982-83, only eight unranked teams managed wins in Barnhill (out of 118 who tried).

Some 194 women's varsity collegiate basketball games were played in Barnhill Arena, with the last game a 96-60 win over Oral Roberts on March 1, 1993.

The last varsity basketball game played at Barnhill was a women's contest as Arkansas won an exhibition game over the Bulgarian team of Levski Total, 83-81, on Nov. 16, 1993.

The Spirit of Barnhill lives on both at Bud Walton Arena, and at Barnhill. "The Barn" received a new tenant in 1994 with the start of varsity volleyball at Arkansas. Thanks in large part to its home court advantage, the inaugural Razorback volleyball team won the SEC Western Division title providing a new banner for the old rafters. Gymnastics enjoyed a similar Barnhill boost in 2006. With the inaugural senior class, Arkansas upset national powerhouse UCLA to advance to the NCAA Championship at the Barnhill-hosted NCAA South Central Regional.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

RAZORBACK HISTORY

EARLY ORIGINS

Women's basketball has been a part of the fabric of the University of Arkansas for almost a century. Teams of female students took to outdoor courts and peach baskets just after the turn of the century. While the women waited until 1976 for the first varsity team to officially represent the University, these early photos show how the game captured what was then deemed "the fairer sex" in action.

THE FIRST TEAM

As the photo at right illustrates, almost since the turn of the century, women have banded together to play basketball at the University of Arkansas. In fact, yearbook references to women's basketball predate men's basketball at Arkansas. There are photographs of at least three teams of women's basketball players prior to 1910. From the 1930s until the late 1950s, some of the nation's best AAU players and teams came from the state of Arkansas. After years of "extramural" women's basketball in the late 1960s and early 1970s at the University, the first varsity Razorback basketball team took the court in Barnhill Arena in 1976-77. Under Coach Sharon Ogle, these Razorbacks established the winning tradition at Arkansas with a 10-6 season. Composed of walk-ons, the 1976-77 team was undefeated in Barnhill Arena (6-0) and set a school record for largest margin of victory that may never be broken—79 points— with a 108-29 win over Bartlesville Wesleyan. Three walk-ons received aid to become the first scholarship women at Arkansas: Camille Yancey of Marvel, Pat Keck from Rogers, and Carol Ann Riggs of Fayetteville.

Wynne, Arkansas', Bettye Fiscus arrived at the University in 1981, and Razorback basketball was never the same. Fiscus set the University record for scoring—man or woman—at 2,073 as Arkansas' first All-American. While NBA star Todd Day finally broke Fiscus' scoring mark, she still holds almost all the women's basketball career scoring records. Her jersey—No. 5—was the first retired by the University, receiving that honor in 1986.

IN THE BROYLES TRADITION

The next season, the University of Arkansas awarded its first women's athletic scholarship to a freshman recruit. A local basketball star at Fayetteville High, Betsy Broyles, became the first Razorback high school recruit, one of 10 women recruited during the 1977-78 season. Wearing No. 30 for Arkansas, Betsy, daughter of former athletic director Frank Broyles, had her playing career cut short by an injury, but she did letter two seasons at Arkansas.

ARKANSAS' FIRST SUPERSTAR

Wynne, Arkansas', Bettye Fiscus arrived at the University in 1981, and Razorback basketball was never the same. Fiscus set the University record for scoring—man or woman—at 2,073 as Arkansas' first All-American. While NBA star Todd Day finally broke Fiscus' scoring mark, she still holds almost all the women's basketball career scoring records. Her jersey—No. 5—was the first retired by the University, receiving that honor in 1986.

FIRST NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

A senior-laden Razorback club that had advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1986 received the snub of the committee in 1987. Behind co-captain guard Tracy Webb, the 1986-87 team wrecked its vengeance on the National Women's Invitational Tournament, sweeping through the post-season tournament to bring home the first team national title for a women's squad at Arkansas. Arkansas averaged over 100 points per game for the tournament, crushing California, 112-80, in the championship game.

"DIALING" FOR TROPHIES

Arkansas and the Dial Soap Women's Basketball Classic series had a long, distinguished history. The Dial Classics were the longest-running series in women's hoops. Arkansas had the unofficial distinction of winning more Dial trophies than any team starting in Minnesota. In fact, the Razorbacks played in eight different Dial tournaments in eight seasons, winning trophies in six. This past record combined with increasing promotions led to Arkansas receiving the right to host one of the coveted tournaments, bringing the Dial series to Fayetteville in 1991 (photo below) until the series was disbanded in 1997.

THE SHOTS HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

On Feb. 23, 1990, Arkansas ended the longest conference winning streak in NCAA history by defeating the Texas Lady Longhorns, 82-77. The win broke UT's 183-game streak against Southwest Conference foes, and cleared the way for the first non-Texas SWC women's basketball titlist. It also ended the nation's longest active home win streak at 47 games. Senior guard Juliet Jackson, who hit six free throws in the closing minute to clinch the game, summed it up best: "We messed up all their streaks." The next week junior center Delmonica DeHorney was named Sports Illustrated women's college basketball player of the week.

ONLY SWC WOMEN'S TROPHIES OUTSIDE THE LONE STAR STATE

Arkansas was the first team to beat Texas and the first team to win a share, then later an outright, Southwest Conference championship besides the Lady Longhorns. In 1991, Arkansas also ended the Lone Star state's dominance of the SWC tournament by defeating Texas Tech for the title. These three trophies—the 1990 and 1991 SWC Championship and 1991 SWC Classic—are the only women's basketball trophies in captivity outside the state of Texas.

DELMONICA DEHORNEY, ALL-AMERICAN

While Delmonica DeHorney may have several notable seconds in her resume—second Razorback player to have her jersey (50) retired, second Razorback to play professional basketball, second all-time leading scorer (1,785)—she claims one of the most significant firsts: the first Kodak All-American at the University of Arkansas. DeHorney also is in the record books as the all-time leader in field goal percentage and blocked shots for a career. Her domination in the paint carried Arkansas to the 1990 NCAA West Regional Finals and to the 1991 NCAA Sweet 16. A two-time SWC Player of the Year, Delmonica is the only women's basketball player in SWC history to earn three conference honors. She was SWC Newcomer of the Year as a freshman. DeHorney was inducted into the UA Hall of Honor in 2000.

BARNHILL CROWDS TO REMEMBER

Beginning with the 1989-90 season, the Razorbacks declared W.A.R. (Women's Attendance Record) on a select opponent. The first two W.A.R.s were against Texas, and resulted in the two largest crowds at Barnhill for a women's basketball game. Upon entering the SEC, Arkansas had a Border W.A.R. with LSU. W.A.R. IV featured the 24th-ranked Kentucky Lady Kats. Arkansas' feared home crowd worked its Barnhill magic in the last three W.A.R.s. The last two years were particularly dramatic as the Razorback fans rallied Arkansas from halftime deficits.

AN ALL-AMERICAN BY EVERY MEASURE

No other point guard in Arkansas history had a career that can match Newark's Amber Nicholas. In her four years, she never missed a game, playing 117 consecutive games, and she set the record for the most consecutive games started: 87. Nicholas set the school record for career assists, and her steady hand guided Arkansas to the best record of any four year period in school history. Named the MVP of the 1991 SWC Tournament, Nicholas also earned three Dial MVP awards in consecutive seasons. One of the most beloved Razorbacks, Nicholas also was a two-time selection to the highly prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America team and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. She was inducted into the Hall of Honor in 2002.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

THE NATION COMES TO FAYETTEVILLE

At the end of the 1993-94 season, the University of Arkansas Women's Athletics Department hosted the first major NCAA championship event held in the state of Arkansas. The 1994 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Midwest Regional set marks for regional attendance and hospitality. A true community project, one of the highlights was a street party and battle of the bands on the downtown square called Fayetteville Friday Night for the two teams in Saturday's championship game. Louisiana Tech advanced from Fayetteville to the Final Four with upsets of No. 1-ranked Tennessee and Lisa Leslie's USC Trojans.

A MOMENT IN TIME

As the Razorbacks prepared to move to Bud Walton Arena in December 1993, the Women's Athletics Department held a celebration of 17 years of women's hoops in Barnhill Arena with "A Moment in Time." The banquet held in Barnhill was attended by dozens of former Razorbacks, including three of the four career leaders. A special retrospective video tracing the Razorbacks and their winning tradition in Barnhill was screened as a part of the festivities.

THE CARDIAC KIDS

The 1994-95 season saw the Razorbacks return to the Associated Press Top 25 and the NCAA tournament, posting a 23-7 record. Arkansas did it by winning nine games in the closing minute, three games on last shots, with a team composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores.

A STREAK UNEQUALED

The first freshman recruit to start opening day at point guard for Arkansas, Christy Smith earned attention for her free throw shooting—89.9% to lead the nation—and her tenacious defense—leading the SEC in steals with 3.0 per game. But on Dec. 6, 1995, Smith took her first step toward a mark that might stand for all time. The 5-6 West Lafayette, Ind., point guard started that night against Alabama, and did not leave the court against a SEC opponent for the rest of the season. For all 11 regular season games and two SEC tournament games, Smith played 525 consecutive minutes—a feat unequalled by man or woman in the league. The 1995 SEC Freshman of the Year, Smith also became Arkansas' first woman named to the Associated Press All-America team as an honorable mention.

A PRESIDENTIAL VISIT

Usually, the national champion visits the President of the United States in the White House. On Dec. 9, 1996, President Bill Clinton visited the women's basketball team in their locker room during halftime of the men's game with Cincinnati. It may be the first time a sitting President has dropped in to the locker room of a collegiate women's basketball team, and as luck would have it, it was not the last time the Razorbacks posed with the President.

DREAMS DO COME TRUE

On March 9, 1998, the Razorbacks wanted to get back into the NCAA Tournament. By March 27, 1998, they were in the NCAA Final Four, living the dream they had wished for years. Arkansas made NCAA Tournament history as the lowest seed -- #9 in the West -- to advance to the Final Four. They were the first unranked team in women's basketball history during the modern era to reach the Final Four. And, they were the lowest finishing team in conference play -- tied for sixth in the SEC -- to reach the Final Four. Arkansas did it all on the west coast, spending two whole weeks in the Bay Area. Along the way, the Razorbacks beat four conference champions -- WAC, Pacific, Ivy and ACC -- and three ranked teams -- Hawai'i, Kansas and Duke -- to face conference rival Tennessee at Kansas City.

Arkansas played all four of its pre-Final Four games on late night TV, earning the nickname of Good Morning America's team. Every member of the team contributed to the run, starting with a 24-point effort by Karyn Karlin in the opening round win over #20 Hawai'i, 76-70. Then it was freshman Wendi Willits' turn with a near-NCAA record six three-pointers to blow open Arkansas' second round contest with Harvard, 82-64. In the opening round games held at Stanford, Calif., Christy Smith had zero turnovers and 16 assists.

At the West Regionals in Oakland, junior Sytia Messer stepped to the front as Arkansas' leading scorer in both wins, earning herself the honor as the most outstanding player at the West Regional. Messer had 23 points as Arkansas used an impressive 54-point second half to dispatch Kansas, 79-63, in the Sweet 16. Fellow junior Treva Christensen announced herself with 14 points off the bench against Duke to earn all-tournament selection. Junior Tennille Adams was 6-of-9 with 14 off the bench including the go-ahead bucket in the closing minutes against Duke. The defining moment belonged to Smith, as she calmly sank four free throws in the final seconds to send Arkansas to the Final Four for the first time with a 77-72 win over ACC champion Duke.

FIVE GAMES TO GLORY

When the 1999 season ended, Arkansas was 15-14 and 11th in the SEC. Leading scorer Karyn Karlin was out for the year with a torn ACL. Not the ending Cinderella hoped for after the Final Four. But Arkansas got a second chance with the WNIT, and by virtue of its season attendance was chosen to host the opener with SLC champion Northwestern State. Sophomore Lonniya Bragg, quiet most of the season, tore into NSU for a career-tying 22 points. Arena conflicts helped Arkansas host round two, and a late-season snowstorm led to the smallest crowd at Bud Walton for women's basketball (890). Those that braved the weather saw a sophomore class record 35 points as Okie Wendi Willits busted the Sooners in an overtime thriller, 97-93. The crowds began to pour back into Bud Walton, and Arkansas survived Rice, 76-70, in the quarterfinals thanks to 18 from Bragg. The WNIT picked Arkansas to host again, and the crowd and the Razorbacks did not disappoint as 9,041 saw 5-11 Bragg rack up a career-high 23 against the 6-5 and 6-4 posts of MVC runner-up Drake in a 80-56 rout. It set the stage for a titanic showdown at Walton with Wisconsin. An all-time record 14,163 paid to see Arkansas win the title behind an inspired senior performance from Kamara Stancle with 15 points and 13 rebounds. The victory was marred by the sudden illness and death of Sytia Messer's mother on the eve of the game.

AMERICA'S BEST THREE-POINT SHOOTER

Wendi Willits shattered all of Arkansas' three-point records during the 1998-99 season. More impressive, the 5-8 Fort Cobb, Okla., sophomore came within a single trey of breaking a previously thought unbreakable SEC record -- Cornelia Gayden's single season mark. Willits finished with 104, shooting 35.7% from the arc. Ranking top five in the nation in both percentage and production, Willits was chosen by the Basketball Hall of Fame as its Ed Steitz Award winner. Her uniform, complete with her trademark headband, was displayed for the 1999-2000 season at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. Her senior year, she became the No. 2 three-point scorer in SEC history as well as the all-time leader at Arkansas. Willits closed her career at the ESPN College Three-Point Shooting Contest, where she reached the Final Four.

DROPPING DIMES

Point guard Amy Wright started the second century of Razorback basketball by shattering a once-thought-untouchable record of 186 assists in a season set by Donna Wilson in 1989. Wright's 198 led Arkansas back into the NCAA Tournament second round in 2001, and left her in striking distance for her senior season of the all-time leader, Amber Nicholas Shirey. For her final season, Wright not only took the career record early on, but she broke her own season mark to become the first woman to go over 200 in a season with 205 and close her career with 717.

SECOND TO ONE, BUT SECOND TO NONE

Hot Springs, Ark., native Shameka Christon finished her four-year career at Arkansas as the first woman to threaten the all-time scoring mark of Bettye Fiscus and ended up second all-time with 1,951 points. However, in many ways Christon was second to none in her Arkansas career with many firsts. Early in her career Christon became the first Razorback women's basketball player to represent the United States at the World Championships and the first to win a gold medal on the world stage. As a senior, she was the first Razorback named Associated Press All-America with her selection to the third team, surpassing Christy Smith's four times on the AP team, but as an honorable mention. Christon also became the first voted SEC Player of the Year (both coaches and AP), making her the second Razorback to take player of the year (Delmonica DeHorney in the SWC days). She closed out her time in Fayetteville by becoming the first Razorback taken as a first-round draft pick of the WNBA, going fifth overall to the New York Liberty. Christon added another first as the first Razorback to make an all-pro team as she was on the WNBA's Rookie Team in 2004.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

IT WAS THE BEST OF TIMES...

IT WAS THE WORST OF TIMES

Tom Collen returned as the head coach for the Arkansas women's basketball team in April 2007. Inheriting a team that had set the standard for best start to the first loss with a 15-1 run before setting the standard for futility with a 10-game losing streak, Collen had no expectations of another streak against a schedule including key road contests. After the first win in several years at Missouri, Arkansas came home to face Clemson -- the first ACC team in Walton Arena. Downing the Tigers, the Razorbacks faced the toughest test with NCAA participant Marquette in the finals of the Dartmouth tournament. Trailing by eight, Arkansas rallied for a two-point win. Riding a 14-game streak, the Razorbacks pummeled former SWC rival Texas Tech to close out the pre-conference schedule perfect. The 15-0 start broke the in-season winning streak of the 1990-91 SWC Championship team that set the school record for wins and percentage with a 28-4 finish. The 15 straight games also bested the 11-game run to close the 1998-99 and start the 1999-2000 season. Behind senior double-double averaging post player Lauren Ervin, Arkansas looked ready to vault its top 25 AP ranking back into the NCAA Tournament. Fate had different plans as Ervin tore her ACL in the SEC opener, ending her career as the second all-time double-double points-rebound player. The Razorbacks suffered several other injuries and stumbled to a 2-13 close.

HISTORIC CHANGES

On Jan. 1, 2008, the University of Arkansas brought together the men's and women's athletic departments. Starting with the new fiscal year in July 1, 2008, the women's sports teams dropped the usage of "Lady" and "Lady'Back" nicknames.

MORE CHANGES

The Razorbacks returned to the NCAA Tournament reaching the second round before elimination in 2011-12. The team that bumped them? New SEC member Texas A&M. Arkansas and the 12-member SEC began preparation for the addition of the Aggies and Missouri moving the SEC to 14 teams for the 2012-13 season.

FIRST-YEAR FUN

In April 2014, Arkansas welcomed its eighth head coach in program history with the hiring of former ESPN analyst Jimmy Dykes. In his first year, Dykes was handcuffed with just nine players on his roster and faced the daunting task of playing one of the nation's toughest (ranked sixth) schedules. What did the first-year coach and the Razorbacks do?

They won 18 games, defeated three ranked opponents and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Along the way, sophomore Jessica Jackson picked up All-SEC Second-Team honors and Dykes earned the respect of his peers and was named one of two finalists for the Spalding Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year.

SECOND-YEAR SUCCESS

In Jimmy Dykes' second season, the Razorbacks started the conference schedule facing four ranked teams in its first five opponents - the only team in the Big Five Conferences to do so. Arkansas picked up three wins in home games against No. 13 Texas A&M, No. 13 Tennessee and No. 24 Missouri during that run. The Razorbacks finished with seven SEC wins, improving from six league wins in the previous season.

A NEW CHAPTER

University of Arkansas Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long has announced the hiring of Mike Neighbors as the ninth coach in Arkansas women's basketball history on April 3. Neighbors returns to his alma mater after four seasons as the head coach at the University of Washington where he led the Huskies to their first-ever Final Four. "I am excited to welcome Coach Neighbors back to his home state and back to his alma mater the University of Arkansas," Long said. "It was vitally important to our search committee and to me that we attract someone who is entrenched in the women's game and someone who has demonstrated the ability to connect with our young women on and off the court. Mike Neighbors has spent his career teaching, coaching and mentoring young women dating back to his time as a high school coach in Arkansas. He is a member of an elite group of coaches who have taken a team to the Final Four and that is the kind of leader we need in the strongest conference in women's basketball. I know that Mike's energy and excitement about being a Razorback will inspire our student-athletes and our fans."

COMING HOME

The University of Arkansas welcomed home Mike Neighbors as the ninth coach in Arkansas women's basketball history on April 2, 2017. Neighbors returns to his alma mater after four seasons as the head coach at the University of Washington where he led the Huskies to their first-ever Final Four.

Neighbors guided Washington to four seasons of unprecedented success, highlighted by the 2016 NCAA Final Four and two NCAA Sweet 16 appearances. Named the program's head coach after two years as an assistant, Neighbors led the Huskies to a 98-41 record that was fueled by three consecutive 23-plus win seasons and included four postseason appearances (3 NCAA, 1 WNIT).

30 GREATEST GAMES

#1A – ARKANSAS 77, #8 DUKE 72

March 23, 1998

A total team effort. Christy Smith fulfills the dream of every little girl-she must make the free throws to send Arkansas to the Final Four. Smith does not get to the line without Tennille Adams' offensive stick-back to put Arkansas ahead. Treva Christensen and Sytia Messer solidify their picks as All-West and West Region MVP. The game gives rise to two of the greatest moments in women's basketball history. The first came before the game. After a silent ride through the Oakland twilight, Gary Blair rose as the team bus halted. "Don't get off the bus if you don't expect to win," he said, then turned and left the bus. The second came after as Smith and Stancle fell to the floor at the end of the game. ESPN commentator Beth Mowens declared, "Do you believe in miracles?"

#1B-ARKANSAS 82, #6 TEXAS 77

February 23, 1990

The clipping above from the Dallas Morning News says it all. Senior Juliet Jackson's clutch free throws ice the first loss by UT to a SWC member-183 consecutive games. Delmonica DeHorney led Arkansas with 26 points, eight boards and four blocks. Jackson had 19 points and seven assists, and of course, was 7-of-8 at the line-4-of-4 in the closing minute. DeHorney was national player of the week after the game, but those that were there will tell you the best part was seeing The Drum bathed in white-not victory burnt orange-lights.

#2-#22 ARKANSAS 82, #2 LSU 72

January 19, 2003

The largest regular season crowd in school history (11,486) and ESPN watched as Arkansas won the first top 10 vs. top 10 game in school history. Arkansas' "Big Three" of Shameka Christon (25 points, 7 boards), India Lewis (19 points) and Dana Cherry (13 points, 12 rebounds) were joined with SEC all-freshman Ruby Vaden (13 points, 7 boards) as the Razorbacks dominated the second-ranked Tigers. LSU threatened late, but the comeback only served to add to the instant classic status of the game. Along with mark the best start in SEC play to date, LSU became the highest-ranked team to lose to Arkansas.

#3-ARKANSAS 72, #9 TENNESSEE 71 (OT)

February 23, 2012

Sarah Watkins hit a layup with eight seconds on the clock forcing overtime with the game tied at 62, and Lyndsay Harris hit two in overtime giving Arkansas a 72-71 win in overtime over No. 9/11 Tennessee in Knoxville, Tenn. The Razorbacks hit the final four points and held Tennessee scoreless late for the win. Harris paced Arkansas with 20 points and Watkins had 18. Senior C'eira Ricketts added 16 in the win. Arkansas' first half effort was fantastic and they played themselves to a 31-26 lead at the break. Harris had 11 points to lead all scorers in the first 20 minutes but Arkansas' aggressive play racked up nine fouls. The Razorbacks shot 57.9 percent in the first half hitting 11-of-19 shots and the Razorbacks did a good job defensively, holding Tennessee to 9-for-20 from the floor and forcing 10 Lady Vol turnovers. Tennessee came out much more aggressive defensively in the second half and outscored Arkansas 36-31 in the second half but Watkins layup allowed Arkansas to hold on to the tie and force the extra period. The Razorbacks finished the game hitting 25-for-50 from the floor and eight three pointers.

#4-#22 ARKANSAS 81, #7 GEORGIA 70

March 18, 1990

Considered for years one of the top 10 upsets in NCAA women's tournament history, Arkansas goes to Athens, Ga., to stun the Lady Bulldogs behind 30 points from Juliet Jackson. Georgia's strategy was to shut down Delmonica DeHorney and Blair Savage inside and isolate Amber Nicholas outside. They dared Jackson to beat them, and she did by raining down 12-of-19 from the perimeter.

#5-ARKANSAS 67, WISCONSIN 64

March 23, 1999

Don't try to tell the WNIT record crowd of 14,163 fans at Walton Arena that this was the game for 65th in the country. The back-and-forth battle with the Badgers was befitting any championship. Seniors Kamara Stancle and sophomore Wendi Willits score 15 each as the team wins one for Sytia Messer's mom who passed away 24 hours before the game.

#6-#22 ARKANSAS 77, #6 TENNESSEE 75

December 29, 1996

The Razorbacks make national headlines with their first-ever win over Tennessee. Sytia Messer holds Chamique Holdsclaw to a single field goal and only 7 points while Christy Smith and Kimberly Wilson go off for 21 points each. Wilson jumped on UT early, hitting her first three treys and giving Arkansas a 19-11 advantage. Defense was the difference as four turnovers keyed a 13-0 run by Arkansas, capped by a three-pointer by Sytia Messer for a 48-36 lead. Tennessee did not go away, rallying to within a point, 76-75, with :56 to play. The Lady Vols had one last chance to win the game, but missed an inside shot. Karen Jones pulled down the rebound of her life and was fouled by Tennessee. Jones' free throw in the final seconds gave Arkansas its final margin of victory.

#7A-ARKANSAS 74, #7 SOUTH CAROLINA 46

January 27, 2002

#7B-ARKANSAS 67, #8 VANDERBILT 57

January 31, 2002

A combination entry because they are the first time that Arkansas defeated consecutive top 10 teams at Fayetteville, and because of the circumstances around the games. The Razorbacks stumbled at USC only three weeks earlier, 91-66, and thanks to some humbling early games were 1-6 to open SEC play. Not only did Arkansas turn the season around, it did it in convincing fashion. Forcing 26 turnovers, India Lewis and Dana Cherry had 17 each as UA meted out its worst beating of a ranked team during the regular season on USC. Four days later, Shameka Christon poured in 21 to lead Arkansas past Vanderbilt as the Razorbacks controlled the game start to finish.

30 GREATEST GAMES

#8-#1 TEXAS 71, ARKANSAS 70

February 18, 1984

The Texas win that wasn't. Arkansas scrapped with the top team in the nation, and got the opportunity of a lifetime with the ball and the clock running out at Barnhill Arena. Senior Amanda Holley's baseline jumper hangs in the air, hits the bucket, rolls around the rim and falls out as the horn sounds. The Razorbacks will have three more close calls with their arch-rivals, but a basketball generation will pass before Texas falls in 1990.

#9-#22 ARKANSAS 90, UCLA 80 (OT)

March 14, 1990

Perhaps the most exciting overtime game in Arkansas history, the Razorbacks come back from a 10-point deficit late in the game to tie the contest and send it into overtime. Led by All-America candidate Rehema Stephens, UCLA had five players in double figures but the Bruins ran out of gas in the extra five minutes as Amber Nicholas (22 points) and Blair Savage (21 points) lead a 15-5 overtime run. Not only a memorable game, it was the first-ever win by Arkansas in the NCAA tournament and the first-ever NCAA tournament game hosted by Arkansas.

#10-ARKANSAS 79, KANSAS 63

March 21, 1998

The Cinderella story comes to life as Arkansas holds All-American Lynn Pride of Kansas scoreless to rally from a 32-28 halftime deficit. Sytia Messer leads the charge with a 17-point second half effort as Arkansas dominates KU, 51-31, in the final 20 minutes. After shooting only 36% in the first half, UA blisters the Jayhawks for 63% in the second.

#11-#6 TEXAS 101, ARKANSAS 99

March 11, 1989

Quite simply, Southwest Conference fans say this may be the greatest championship game ever played—men or women—at the SWC Classic. The first-ever women's basketball game at Reunion Arena did not disappoint as the two teams produced near-flawless games. Each committed a season-low eight turnovers, and the 200 points scored were school records for combined score for both. Trailing 51-46 at halftime, Arkansas responded with 52.8% from the field led by a career game by Lisa Martin with 31 points. Four of Arkansas' starters were in double digits as Shelly Wallace added 20 points and 15 boards. Clarissa Davis saved the day with 36 for Texas.

#12-ARKANSAS 78, #10 FLORIDA 69

March 2, 2001

Arkansas rode a 10-game losing streak to the Gators into the second round of the SEC Tournament, but freshman Shameka Christon had 22 points, 11 rebounds and four stitches as the Lady'Backs jumped on Florida early. Arkansas led by as many as 20 before Christon departed the game with a busted lip. She returned, but not before Florida closed to within seven. Behind 22 from Wendi Willits and 10 from Lonniya Bragg, Arkansas went on a 7-0 run late to advance to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in school history.

#13-#18 ARKANSAS 73, #8 VANDY 71 (OT)

February 19, 1995

Kelly Johnson said she has never hit a game-winner at the buzzer in her life. She didn't get the chance to do so again in her career, but when Christy Smith laced the pass down low to Johnson, she buried the 15-foot baseline jumper as time expired to give Arkansas its first-ever win over Vandy. The photo, above, of Johnson's shot has become one of the most requested classic images in women's basketball history.

#14 - ARKANSAS 80, MISSISSIPPI ST. 73

March 4, 2005

Midway through the first half of Arkansas' opening game at the SEC Tournament, Susie Gardner's team looked headed for a blowout trailing by 17 points with 4:01 left in the first. Trimming the deficit to 11 at half, Arkansas held MSU scoreless almost four minutes to start the second and soon pulled within striking distance. A trio of sophomores led by Sarah Pfeifer were in double-digits to give Arkansas an eight-point lead with just under four minutes to play, a 25-point swing from the same point in the first half.

#15-ARKANSAS 66, #23 SMSU 63

December 29, 1993

There are few things better than beating a rival, and even better when it comes unexpectedly. First-year head coach Gary Blair drew up the play for his freshman three-point sharpshooter Kimberly Wilson. With seconds left, Wilson calmly stroked the winning shot, breaking an unprecedented two-year losing streak to SMS. Wilson became the Bear stalker, posting a 4-0 career mark with SMS.

#15-CALIFORNIA 66, ARKANSAS 62

March 21, 1982

Arkansas' first appearance at a national tournament almost became its first win. The host Golden Bears hold off a pesky Arkansas team in the opening round of the 1982 AIAW Championships. Tied 29-29 at halftime, turnovers and fouls are the undoing of Arkansas. The Razorbacks had 31 turnovers—11 more than Cal—and leading scorer Bettye Fiscus fouls out with 17 points. Kim Bunge also has 17 points, but with four fouls.

#17-ARKANSAS 73, OLE MISS 72

January 2, 1993

The first major victory in the SEC as the former SWC Champion defeats the defending SEC Champion Lady Rebels. Shea Henderson is the star of the day as the Star City guard drives down the lane in the closing seconds to hit the game winner.

#18-ARKANSAS 97, OU 93 (OT)

March 14, 1999

Fort Cobb, Okla., product Wendi Willits takes over the Border War between UA and OU. The second round Women's NIT match-up is a toe-to-toe physical battle. In the midst of a record-setting season of three-point shooting, Willits scores a career-high 35 points to lead Arkansas into the quarterfinals.

#19-#6 VANDERBILT 81, ARKANSAS 78

March 9, 2002

Shameka Christon had the greatest game at the University of Arkansas in over a generation, but her 40 points in 37 minutes played was not enough to overcome Vanderbilt at the Gaylord Entertainment Center in Nashville for the SEC Tournament semifinals. At the start of the second half, it looked like there wouldn't be much drama as Vandy extended its 44-26 halftime lead to 22-points, 52-30, with 17 minutes left. Then Christon took over, scoring a school record 28 points for a half. Arkansas cut the lead to one, 79-78, with 22 seconds left. Missed VU throws gave Arkansas the last shot, but with nine seconds to play Christon was called for a charge that allowed Vandy to shoot free throws for the final score.

#20-ARKANSAS 52, #20 VANDY 51 (OT)

January 8, 2006

Another Commodore OT heartache, but this one came in one of the most dramatic fashions as sophomore Brittney Vaughn sank the longest buzzer-beating shot in Walton Arena history to send this contest into OT. One of only three known end of the period half-court shots, Vaughn's 47-footer is the only one to close regulation. Vaughn was scoreless for 39:30, but her driving reverse layup trimmed the Vandy lead to three, 46-43, to set the stage for her game-tying heave. The night proved "vaughn-derful" as her sister Rochelle scored a career-high tying 22 points, including a pair of free throws with 13 seconds left in the overtime period to ice the victory for Arkansas.

30 GREATEST GAMES

#21-ARKANSAS 82, #17 PSU 78

January 9, 1999

In its first appearance on CBS, Arkansas does not disappoint. Karyn Karlin dominated the Lady Lions in the paint, scoring 18 points almost at will as Arkansas built a 15-point lead with eight minutes to play. Penn State rallied, and with two minutes left led by two points. Wendi Willits to the rescue with a 21-footer to put Arkansas back up by one, then a steal on the ensuing PSU possession that led to a pair of free throws. The 5-0 Willits run put Arkansas up by three with 50 seconds to play.

#22-ARKANSAS 45, #24 KENTUCKY 43

January 23, 1993

Undoubtedly the quirkiest win in Arkansas history. The Wildcats were returning to the top 25 for the first time in years, but the Razorbacks made sure the stay was short. It was an improbable win as Arkansas rode a five-game losing streak and was in jeopardy of losing three straight at home for the first time in school history. Defense was the key as Arkansas not only got the win, but did it in record-setting fashion. This was only the second game in Arkansas history in which no one was in double figures, and remains the only time Arkansas has won without a double-digit scorer. Shea Henderson led the team with nine points. Barnhill Arena and one of the Women's Athletics Department's W.A.R. (women's attendance record) promotions share credit for the win. At 5,391, it ranked as the fourth largest crowd to watch the Razorbacks in Barnhill Arena.

#23-ARKANSAS 71, #16 GEORGIA 63

February 8, 2004

Arkansas rode a three-game home losing streak for only the second time in school history into an ESPN game with #16 Georgia, but Susie Gardner continued her coaching mojo against her alma mater as the Razorbacks controlled the close game from start to finish. With only eight players on the bench due to injuries, UA was led by Shameka Christon with 28 points, a double-double from Rochelle Vaughn with 11 points and 12 assists and a near-double of 14 points and 9 rebounds from Kristin Moore.

#24-ARKANSAS 59, ALABAMA 58

February 2, 2003

India Lewis was known for her three-point shooting, but in her career at Arkansas she had not hit a game-winner until this afternoon in Tuscaloosa. Arkansas struggled most of the game, no player more than Lewis who entered the final seconds 0-for-7 from the field. Down by two, Lewis took the ball to her right, feinted a drive then stepped back for a fall-away 22-footer as the horn sounded. The win proved a turning point for the conference season, ending a three-game losing streak.

#26-ARKANSAS 79, OKLAHOMA ST. 70

February 16, 1982

Coach Matilda Willis called it her "Champagne Game" in the pregame press, but Oklahoma State was not so willing to give up Arkansas' first-ever 20-win season easily. It looked easy with a 43-29 lead at half, but the Cowgirls cut the spread to three, 69-66, with 3:17 to play. In turn, Bettye Fiscus, Connie Fitzgerald and Erma Greer stepped up with key buckets to pull away from OSU. For the game, Fiscus had 27, followed by Kim Bunge with 14 and Amanda Holley with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

#27-- ARKANSAS 68, KSU 53

January 2, 1982

The first win for Arkansas over a top 20 ranked team. Bettye Fiscus and Amanda Holley turn in double-double games-Fiscus an amazing 20 points with 18 rebounds and Holley 12 points with 11 rebounds. Cheryl Orcholski shares top scoring honors with 20 points of her own.

#28-ARKANSAS 77, #25 ALABAMA 73

February 18, 1999

Arkansas had its Senior Day one game too late but the Razorbacks scored their first win ever at Coleman Coliseum with a 77-73 upset of 25th-ranked Alabama. Senior Sytia Messer scored a season high 21 points and senior Tennille Adams came off the bench for her second career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. Alabama led by eight at halftime, but the lead wasn't enough to hold off Arkansas. The Razorbacks outscored Bama, 45-33, in the second half. Alabama crept back to within one, but freshman Amy Wright responded with a three-pointer to make it a four-point bulge, 71-67.

#29-#14 ARKANSAS 76, #20 TEXAS 61

January 8, 1991

The rematch with Texas is more bust than dust-up as Delmonica DeHorney dominates the lane again and Amber Nicholas pours in the assists and outside shots. Arkansas controlled the game from tip to final horn. The win proves the victory previous year at Austin was not a fluke, and with Arkansas headed out of the SWC, this proves to be the only win over Texas at Barnhill Arena in school history. It results in the largest crowd at Barnhill Arena for a women's basketball game-6,819 fans. When Bud Walton Arena opens, this figure is eclipsed by the growth of women's basketball popularity thanks to the SEC.

#30-ARKANSAS 83, #11 IOWA 57

November 23, 1997

The Reebok Classic at the Fleet Center in Boston, Mass., was the scene of a mugging as Arkansas shredded the 11th-ranked Hawkeyes. Kamara Stancle scored 21 points in only her second game at Arkansas after transferring from Conners State JC. The Razorbacks defense forced 22 turnovers as Arkansas outrebounded the much taller Hawkeyes, 39-22. Tennille Adams picked up her first double-double of her career with 13 points and 11 rebounds. Leading 38-29 at half, the Razorbacks crushed Iowa with a 13-0 run early in the second half and held the Hawkeyes scoreless for 4:43.

Honorable Mention

ARKANSAS 78, CLEMSON 68

March 15, 2002

A game in the books as much for an individual as the team as Shameka Christon scores 36 points in 33 minutes to lead the Razorbacks in the NCAA first round. The loss was the first ever for Clemson under Jim Davies in the first round, and Christon's 36-made more dramatic by an early first half injury that sidelined her for seven minutes-gave the sophomore the second most points scored in consecutive games (see Game #18) in school history.

EXHIBITION GAMES

BACK IN THE DAY -- EXHIBITION GAMES

During the 1980s, teams were allowed to practice away from campus, and Arkansas took full advantage of the rule to play numerous Red-White games across the state. Most of these were played in the former gyms of star Razorbacks, or near home towns of players like Tracy Webb (Batesville) or Bettye Fiscus (Wynne).

The Razorbacks played their first exhibition game in 1984 at the start of the NCAA era against a Korean touring team sponsored by Kolon.

Arkansas stepped up the quality of its exhibition opponent with national teams during the late 1980s, and went on the road to central Arkansas with a pair of games at the former high schools of current Razorbacks. The NCAA changed rules regarding off-campus games in the early 1990s, and all exhibition games returned to Fayetteville.

Twice Arkansas faced Olympic teams. The Razorbacks defeated the Spanish Olympians in 1990, but the most memorable game was against USA Basketball's National Team in 1995. The core of the gold medal 1996 Atlanta Games team thumped the Razorbacks, but it was a once-in-a-lifetime chance to be a part of the special collegiate tour. Among the notables taking the floor were Lisa Leslie, Rebecca Lobo, Sheryl Swoops, Dawn Staley and Jennifer Azzi. It also is the only exhibition game ever played during the regular season -- Dec. 12 -- and made 1995 the only season with three exhibition games.

Until the late 1990s, most of the teams Arkansas faced were high-quality semi-pro teams from around the world, with the exception of the U.S.-based Athletes in Action. AIA made Fayetteville a regular stop on its women's collegiate tour, and the Crusaders remain the team with the most games against Arkansas (8).

The quality of competition from overseas declined at the end of the 1990s, with some teams traveling junior squads filled with high school-aged players. The resulting blowouts, combined with the emergence of regional teams of American former collegians such as Everyone's Internet, saw a decline of the foreign exhibition games that hit bottom with the events of 9/11 in 2001.

However, the greatest change in the exhibition game came in 2004 as the NCAA allowed Division I members to schedule non-Division I college teams as exhibition opponents. While a regular practice during the AIAW era, Arkansas played a non-Division I college with its two exhibition games scheduled for November 2005, taking on nearby Division II members Missouri Southern of Joplin and Cameron University from Lawton, Okla. This marks the first game against a lower division US collegiate team in over two decades (School of the Ozarks on Dec. 11, 2004).

Arkansas has existing series records with the new exhibition opponents, but new games against non-Division I teams will not count against those series marks.

SEC TOURNAMENT RECORDS

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Beginning with its inception on Feb. 7, 1980, and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.

Since 2001, the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis, Nashville, North Little Rock, Ark., Greenville, S.C and Duluth, Ga.

SEC TOURNAMENT FACT

The SEC was the first conference ever to televise every game of its postseason Women's Basketball Tournament.

SEC TOURNAMENT CHANGES

The 2012-13 season marked the second time in SEC history the Women's Basketball Tournament underwent a format change. The tournament, which had been a four-day event featuring 12 teams since 1992, expanded to 14 teams, adding an extra day of competition. The addition of a day to the tournament will feature two additional contests played on Wednesday. Seeds 11 through 14 will compete in the opening games of the bracket, with the rest of the event continuing on Thursday.

PREVIOUS SEC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT SITES:

Fourteen cities have hosted: Albany, Ga. (1987-1992); Athens, Ga. (1984, 1986); Baton Rouge, La. (1981); Chattanooga, Tenn. (1993-1997, 1999-2000); Columbus, Ga. (1998); Duluth, Ga. (2007, 2010, 2013, 2014); Greenville, S.C. (2005, 2017); Jacksonville, Fla. (2016); Knoxville, Tenn. (1980, 1983); Lexington, Ky. (1982); Oxford, Miss. (1985); Memphis, Tenn. (2001); Nashville, Tenn.

(2002, 2004, 2008, 2011, 2012, 2018); and North Little Rock, Ark. (2003, 2006, 2009, 2015).

2015 NCAA SECOND ROUND March 20, 2015 | Ferrell Center Waco, Texas | First Round

Arkansas 57, #22 Northwestern 55

Junior Melissa Wolff scored 13 points and grabbed 15 rebounds leading the University of Arkansas to a 57-55 win over Northwestern in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Waco, Texas. Arkansas closed the game on a 22-7 run and held the Wildcats without a basket for almost four minutes at the end of the contest. Sophomore Kelsey Brooks paced Arkansas with 15 points and six boards while Jessica Jackson added 14 points and eight rebounds. Jhasmin Bowen also scored in double figures with 12 points. Wolff's double-double was the eighth of her career and Arkansas is 7-1 when she records a double-double. Northwestern jumped out to a 13 point lead late in the second half and Arkansas seemed to be struggling from the floor. The Razorbacks used their defense to make the comeback slowing down the Wildcats scoring while chipping away at the lead. NU was up four, 51-55, at the 3:59 mark and Arkansas shutdown their offense from that point on. Brooks got a steal and a layup cutting the lead to two and Wolff followed with a steal and Bowen converted on the jumper to tie the game at 55 with 1:14 to play. It was the seventh tie of the contest. NU missed its next opportunity and Jackson grabbed the rebound, She was fouled with: 29 seconds to play and hit one of the two bonus shots giving the Razorbacks the lead. Wolff came down with the biggest rebound of the game and was pinned along the sideline but wisely called the timeout to save the possession. Arkansas shot 31.8 percent from the floor and went 11-for-19 from the line. The Wildcats shot 44.9 percent and committed 19 turnovers in the loss.

March 22, 2015 | Ferrell Center Waco, Texas | Second Round

#5 Baylor 73, Arkansas 44

Seniors Calli Berna and Jhasmin Bowen ended their Razorback careers after leading the University of Arkansas women's basketball team to an 18-win season and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Arkansas fell to No.5/6 Baylor (34-3) on the Bears' home court, 73-44, to close the season. Jessica Jackson led the Arkansas scorers with 15 points while junior Melissa Wolff had 13 in the loss. Bowen finished her night with seven points and eight rebounds while Berna had five points, six rebounds and eight assists in their final game. It was as physical and fast-paced as an SEC game the Razorbacks have played all year and Arkansas battled tough in the opening 10 minutes. Baylor's defense came to life and shut down the Razorbacks holding Arkansas without a field goal from the 12:38 mark through 3:39. The Bears went on a 9-0 run and opened up a 31-16 lead at the under four timeout. The lead continued to grow as the Razorback offense struggled to find the basket. Arkansas finished the first 20 minutes shooting 25.7 percent on 9-for-25 from the floor. Wolff paced the Razorbacks in the opening half with eight points. Baylor opened the second half on an 8-0 run as the Razorback offense never got on track. Arkansas finished the game shooting just 24.6 percent on 15-for-61 from the floor. The Razorbacks were 2-for-16 from distance, 12-for-19 from the free throw line and grabbed 32 rebounds Sunday.

2012 NCAA SECOND ROUND March 17, 2012 | Reed Arena College Station, Texas | First Round

Arkansas 72, Dayton 55

Arkansas overcame a 14-point first half deficit and beat Dayton 72-55 on Saturday in the first round of the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in College Station, Texas. The Razorbacks (24-8) ended the game on a 20-2 run and won their first NCAA Tournament game since 2003, while making their first appearance in the tournament since the same season. Quistelle Williams led four Arkansas players in double-figures with 15 points. Keira Peak and Lyndsay Harris each scored 14 points, while C'eira Ricketts added 13. Andrea Hoover scored 16 points and Justine Raterman added 14 for Dayton (23-7).

March 19, 2012 | Reed Arena College Station, Texas | Second Round

#22 Texas A&M 61, Arkansas 59

Arkansas did its best to rally from 14 points down again, but in the end it couldn't close out Texas A&M. The third-seeded Aggies, the reigning national champions, avoided an upset bid by sixth-seeded Arkansas to take a 61-59 victory in the second round of the Women's NCAA Tournament. No. 22 Texas A&M (24-10) had a 14-point lead early in the second half and still led by 13 points, 53-40, with 7:55 left. The Razorbacks (24-9) rallied with a 19-5 run to take a 59-58 lead with 1:21 left. After each team missed short shots, Texas A&M's Sydney Carter was fouled by Ashley Daniels with 23.5 seconds left. Carter made both free throws to give the Aggies a 60-59 lead. The Razorbacks played for the last shot. When Texas A&M denied C'eira Ricketts a clear path to the basket on a drive, she passed to Quistelle Williams, who missed short on a jumper from just inside the free-throw line with 4.5 seconds left. The Aggies' Tyra White rebounded the miss and was fouled with 1.2 seconds left. White made one free throw for the final margin. The game was a matchup between Aggies Coach Gary Blair and Collen, his former Arkansas assistant. Williams, a junior reserve forward, led Arkansas' comeback with 14 points and eight rebounds. She had provided the offensive spark in the Razorbacks' first-round victory against Dayton, when the Flyers had led by 14 points in the first half. A three-pointer by Ricketts started an 8-0 run that pulled Arkansas to within 53-48.

2003 NCAA SECOND ROUND

March 23, 2003 | Fifth Third Arena
Cincinnati, Ohio | First Round

#24 Arkansas 71, Cincinnati 51

Dana Cherry stepped up with one of her most complete games of the season, scoring 18 points to lead 24th-ranked Arkansas. The margin of victory is not indicative of the close nature of the game as the Lady'Backs trailed most of the first half as Shameka Christon played only three minutes due to foul trouble and India Lewis faltered from the field. The duo was scoreless in the first half for the first time this year, but one of Cherry's best opening periods kept Arkansas close, 32-28 at halftime. Cherry scored 10 in the first half, over a third of Arkansas early scoring. Arkansas shot 45% in the second half with Christon getting all 13 of her points in the second half along with 10 from Lewis late. Lewis went on an eight-point run to hold Cincinnati at bay before the Bearcats' fouling in the last minute inflated the score. While the focus was on the top three scorers, Arkansas' bench out-scored Cincinnati, 26-3, with freshman Ruby Vaden scoring 10 points on 5-of-5 from the field before fouling out of the game.

March 25, 2003 | Fifth Third Arena
Cincinnati, Ohio | Second Round

#5 Texas 67, #24 Arkansas 50

Shameka Christon scored 16 points, but the Lady Razorbacks weren't able to overcome the inside strength of the Texas. Christon and senior India Lewis came out blazing from behind the arc as the Lady'Backs hit their first five three-pointers on the way to a 6-of-9 first half. Arkansas lead the game midway through the first half, but the slow wearing down by Texas' inside game led by Stacy Stephens gave the Longhorns a 38-29 halftime lead. Arkansas cut the Texas halftime lead to eight, 41-33, of a layup from senior Lakishia Harper, but UT went on a 13-3 run to take control. The Lady'Backs tied their record low for points in a NCAA tournament game.

2002 NCAA SECOND ROUND March 15, 2002 | Ahearn Field House Manhattan, Kansas | First Round

Arkansas 78, Clemson 68

Arkansas rarely wins without at least two of its top shooters in double digits, but behind one of the greatest NCAA Tournament performances in school history from Shameka Christon, the Lady Razorbacks defeated Clemson, 78-68, to advance to the tournament second round. Arkansas got 36 points from an injured Christon. Amy Wright had eight points with 11 assists. Christon did it on only 33 minutes played thanks to a first-degree ankle sprain in the first half. When she went down, Arkansas was trailing an aggressive Clemson team. Christon returned and took over the game, hitting eight of Arkansas next 10 to push the Lady'Backs to a 56-46 lead. The Lady'Backs extended the lead to 15, 68-53, with four minutes to play. Wright's 11 assists pushed her over the 700 mark for her career. Along with Wright, Arkansas got eight points from Dana Cherry and seven each from India Lewis and Lakishia Harper.

March 17, 2002 | Ahearn Field House Manhattan, Kansas | Second Round

#11 Kansas State 82, Arkansas 68

On a night plagued by a power outage at Bramlage Coliseum, the Arkansas Lady Razorbacks experienced an offensive outage in the crucial final minutes to allow the 11th-ranked Kansas State Wildcats to defeat the Lady Razorbacks, 82-68. Shameka Christon led with 19 points and eight rebounds. India Lewis scored 15, but only two in the second half. Amy Wright had a season high 14 points and nine assists. The nine assists pushed her to 205 for the season, breaking her own single-season record of 198. Arkansas stayed with the Wildcats through the opening seven minutes despite a huge shooting advantage, 71.4% to 36.4%. After losing post player Kiesha Baird due to an elbow to the eye the Lady'Backs were unable to mount a comeback.

Arkansas 68, #24 Baylor 59

Lonniya Bragg led four Lady Razorbacks in double digits with 16 points and picked up a career-tying 14 rebounds. The Lady'Backs struggled from the field in the first half, hitting only 28.6% and missing their last 11 shots of the half to trail 33-28 at halftime. Then Bragg and fellow seniors Wendi Willits and Celia Anderson took over the game. Bragg outrebounded Baylor's all-Big 12 center Danielle Crockrom, and with Anderson controlled the lane in the second half. Arkansas held Baylor to only 27.8% from the field in the second half, including eight straight missed shots by the Lady Bears' leading scorer, Sheila Lambert.

#5/5 Duke 75, Arkansas 54

Amy Wright and Dana Cherry led Arkansas with 11 points each. Wright opened the game with a three-point flurry and took UA out to a quick lead. Poor shooting after the first three minutes of the game crippled the Arkansas offense. The Lady'Backs finished with only 33% from the field compared to 48% for Duke. Trailing by seven at half, Arkansas made a final run at Duke with back-to-back jumpers from Bragg and Christon to cut the lead to three, 36-33, A 10-0 run by Duke put the game away.

1998 NCAA FINAL FOUR March 13, 1998 | Maples Pavilion Stanford, Calif. | First Round

Arkansas 76, #20 Hawai'i 70

After a 69% first half for Hawai'i, Arkansas began to wonder about its NCAA tournament fate. The 20th-ranked Wahine got a dose of SEC defense in the second half as Arkansas shut down the WAC's leading scorer, UH senior Nani Cockett. Meanwhile, Wendi Willits dropped three straight rainbow treys on the Wahine to help Arkansas gain the lead midway through the second half. Inside the lane, Hawai'i had no solution for Karyn Karlin, who hit her first five shots from the field and closed the game with 24 points on 12-of-17 from the field.

March 15, 1998 | Maples Pavilion Stanford, Calif. | Second Round

Arkansas 82, Harvard 64

Christy Smith proved why she was an all-American by leading Arkansas back into the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1991. Smith had 19 points, 11 assists and zero turnovers in 35 minutes against the Crimson. Harvard trailed 45-32 by halftime as Arkansas never looked back. Karyn Karlin had 16 points and Sytia Messer 15. The second half, however, belonged to Wendi Willits who hit six three-pointers to break her two-day-old Arkansas record for treys in a tournament game and came within one of breaking the NCAA tournament mark. She finished with 18.

March 21, 1998 | The New Arena Oakland, Calif. | Sweet 16

Arkansas 79, Kansas 63

The Lady Razorbacks' season was in trouble by halftime. Trailing Kansas 32-28 and shooting poorly, Arkansas needed a revival. They got it in the locker room and came out to set a NCAA West Regional record with 51 second-half points to blow out the Jayhawks. Sytia Messer led the way with 23 points. Messer controlled the floor on both ends by shooting 60% and holding KU's leading scorer Lynn Pride to only three points. Messer also led Arkansas on the glass with eight rebounds. Karyn Karlin had 16 and Christy Smith 14. Smith managed her second straight game without a turnover.

March 23, 1998 | The New Arena Oakland, Calif. | Elite Eight

Arkansas 77, #8 Duke 72

The Lady'Backs fought foul trouble and the Duke Blue Devils size for 39 minutes. In the end, it was Arkansas' ability to control the glass and hit free throws when fouled that sent the Lady'Backs to the Final Four. Tennille Adams' stickback with under two minutes to play gave Arkansas its final lead of the game, 73-72. After its own misses and turnovers, Duke fouled Christy Smith twice in the final 31 seconds. She hit all four to ice the win. In the first half, it was another Adams rebound and bucket that gave the Lady'Backs the halftime lead, 32-31. Adams finished with 14 off 6-of-9 from the field. Treva Christensen came off the bench to spark Arkansas midway through the second half, hitting 6-of-11 for 14 points of her own. Sytia Messer led Arkansas with 20.

#1 Tennessee 86, Arkansas 58

Arkansas hung with Tennessee the first half, and looked to go into the locker room down by eight until a missed assignment left Kelly Jolly wide open for the only three-pointer the Lady Vols made in the NCAA semifinal game. As a result, UT took a 39-28 spread to intermission, and Arkansas was sent reeling by a Tennessee run to start the second half. Kamara Stancle came off the bench with 12 and Treva Christensen led with 14.

1995 NCAA SECOND ROUND March 16, 1995 | Alaska Airlines Arena Seattle, Wash. | First Round

#15 Arkansas 67, San Francisco 58

Karen Jones' jumper capped a 15-0 run midway through the second half to advance Arkansas into the second round of the NCAA tournament. Arkansas trailed 28-27 at halftime after committing 13 first half turnovers. The turnovers continued in the early second half as the LadyBacks stumbled to a 43-35 deficit with 13:02 to play. From that point, Arkansas shut down USF's offense for nearly six minutes. Jones finished with a new career high 17 points. Stephanie Bloomer led Arkansas with 19 points, followed by Kelly Johnson with 14 (12 in the second half). Kimberly Wilson had 11.

March 18, 1995 | Alaska Airlines Arena Seattle, Wash. | Second Round

#14 WASHINGTON 54, #15 ARKANSAS 50

The cardiac kids came up just one shot short of the Sweet 16, losing to Washington on the Huskies home court. Trailing most of the game, Kimberly Wilson and Christy Smith teamed for back-to-back three-pointers in the closing seconds to make it a two-point game. This time, however, Washington had the young guard with ice water in her veins as Laure Savasta stepped to the line to hit six-of-six in the last 20 seconds of the game to advance the Huskies. Arkansas trailed by five, 23-18, at halftime in a low scoring defensive battle. In fact, 15 of the game's 104 points came in the last 45 seconds. Smith had 14 points and Stephanie Bloomer and Karen Jones each had 12.

March 22, 1990 | Maples Pavilion Palo Alto, Calif. | Regional

Arkansas 87, Stephen F. Austin 82

Arkansas traveled to the coast facing a regional opponent in Stephen F. Austin as tournament action continued. Delmonica DeHorney scored 32 leading four Razorbacks in double figures in the six-point win over the Ladyjacks. DeHorney was 14-for-16 from the floor and had seven rounds. Amber Nicholas dished out 12 assists for Arkansas.

March 24, 1990 | Maples Pavilion Palo Alto, Calif. | Regional Final

#2 Stanford 114, Arkansas 87

Delmonica DeHorney's 39 points was not enough to lift the Razorbacks over Stanford in the Regional Final on the Cardinal's home court. DeHorney's point total stands as Arkansas' NCAA Tournament player point record and was just five points shy of the school record for points in a single game. Amber Nicholas set an Arkansas NCAA Tournament single game record with 13 assists and the 114 points allowed is the most points a Razorback team has ever given up in the NCAA Tournament.

SEC/BIG 12 CHALLENGE

Arkansas is 2-2 in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge game that began in the 2014-15 season. The event expanded from four teams who played at the SEC and Big 12 Conference Tournament sites the first two seasons to include the Big 12's full membership versus 10 SEC teams beginning in December 2016. The inaugural challenge was held in 2014 in Little Rock, Ark., and featured a top 5 match-up with No. 3 Texas squaring off against No. 4 Texas A&M. Oklahoma and Arkansas, who were both receiving votes in the Associated Press Poll, played in the second game. The conferences split the Challenge with the two games decided by a total of nine points.

BACK IN THE DAY -- SEC SCHEDULING

Starting with the 2010 SEC championship season, women's basketball began a 16-game schedule. The league maintained the 16-game schedule in 2012-13 after the addition of Missouri and Texas A&M to league. This schedule format continues today.

Each team's 16-game schedule will feature home-and-home games against divisional opponents, while featuring one permanent opponent and two rotating opponents from the opposite division. Arkansas' permanent opponent is Missouri.

When Arkansas joined the SEC in 1991, the league played a single round-robin schedule. To promote women's basketball, the conference required each team to play home-and-home with a fixed "rival" partner in 1996 with the 12th game that did not count. For Arkansas, this became LSU. Several SEC teams (UT-Vandy, Ole Miss-MSU, Auburn-Bama) had home-and-home series in previous years and simply designated one game as the league counter. The next season, 1997, both games counted for a 12-game season.

A NCAA mandated minimum 14 regular-season games against conference opponents brought about a 14-game format in 1998. The formula started with round-robin against the entire league, then added home-and-home with the rival partner and a rotating home-and-home with one team from the Eastern Division and one team from the Western Division. The schedule operated on a two-year cycle.

Amber Nicholas Shirey was honored as an SEC Legend

ONE OF A KIND

These are the only Southwest Conference women's basketball trophies located outside the state of Texas. Arkansas was the first team to defeat the University of Texas in SWC play, capturing a share of the 1990 regular season title. Arkansas took the 1991 title outright, then defeated Texas Tech for the 1991 SWC Classic title to become the first non-Texas team to win the league's postseason tournament. Arkansas departed the SWC the next season, and the fact that the Razorbacks were the team to end the Longhorn dynasty is sometimes overlooked in women's basketball history.

BACK IN THE DAY - SWC SCHEDULING

The Southwest Conference started championships for women during the 1981-82 academic year. As was the custom of many conferences, there was no regular season play in 1982, and only a conference championship tournament. Not all of the SWC members participated in the event hosted by Texas A&M, and it took place midseason rather than at the end of the year.

In 1982-83, the league played single round robin and hosted its first true post-season tournament at Austin. The following year the regular season format of double-round robin was established. The 16-game schedule remained unchanged for the rest of SWC history, and featured a looping schedule that reversed the order of play during the year. The primary game days followed the men's schedule -- Thursdays and Saturdays -- and several institutions played double-headers.

The top teams in the league both in attendance and performance, Arkansas and Texas, did not play double-headers.

BEHIND THE NUMBERS

2 numbers are retired at Arkansas, both in the year following the end of the careers of the only players to wear those numbers in school history: #5 (Bettye Fiscus) and #50 (Delmonica DeHorney).

15 15 athletes have worn #22, 14 wore #23 and 13 wore #32.

17 17 players have worn two different numbers during their career. Kelsey Hatcher became the 17th player to change when she moved from 2 to 3. The others: Sarah Pfeifer (33 & 40), Melissa Hobbs (22 & 23), Rochelle Vaughn (21 & 25), Cara Wright (14 & 31), Shameka Christon (24 & 20), Celia Anderson (44 & 33), Debbie Roe (15 & 30), Debbie Olivas (14 & 30), Connie Fitzgerald (15 & 24), DeAnn Henry (20 & 23), Tammy Siefkes (22 & 32), Lita Stricklin (25 & 44), Tamara Mathis (33 & 52), Paula Phillips (42 & 52) Quistelle Williams (42 & 24) and Carol Ann Riggs (33 & 35). Interestingly, Pfeifer becomes the first player ever to switch back, going from 40 to 33 in 2007-08.

ARE YOU MISSING FROM OUR LISTS?

The records for the first three varsity teams at the University of Arkansas are not complete, but we believe we have identified all the modern-era Razorbacks. If you find a mistake in our letterwinner or all-time jersey listings, please contact us to let us know. Also, if you played basketball for Arkansas in the pre-varsity era -- prior to 1976 -- we are looking for your information. Please contact Jeri Thorpe in Communications at (479) 283-3344 or jthorpe@uark.edu.

LETTERWINNERS

Sarah Pfeifer

Letters Won and Years Played

One of the most unique careers at Arkansas belonged to one of its most loyal players. Two season-ending injuries and an extension of her eligibility clock resulted in Pfeifer becoming the first player in school history to participate in six seasons and earn five varsity letters. She is also the only player to have played for three different coaches. Pfeifer may also have the title for most surgeries during a career -- five -- including three on her two shoulders. Along with her devotion to the team, she also earned her bachelor's and master's degrees and is the only player in SEC history to be named Scholar-Athlete of the Year twice. Note in this photo from her second sophomore season the tape work on her shooting arm which she utilized to avoid an in-season surgery.

ALL SEC HONORS

The All-Southeastern Conference-Team is selected by the league coaches and has changed twice in the recent seasons. Since the league's inception, the-team was composed of a first- and second-team of 10 players each. In 2003, only 10 players -- five first, five second -- were selected. In 2004, 16 players -- eight first and eight second -- were chosen, the format which continues today. Five freshmen are chosen to the all-freshman-team (with the exception of 1999). In addition, the academic-team for the SEC, the SEC Academic Honor Roll, is chosen each season. After 2001, the honor roll is one year out of sequence to allow seniors to earn fourth-year honors. Recent additions to the-team structure were made in 2003 with the Community Service Team, 2004 with Scholar-Athlete of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, 2006 saw the first Freshmen of the Week and 2008 a five-player all-defensive-team.

SWC HALL OF FAME

The Texas Sports Hall of Fame (TSHOF), in conjunction with the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the Little Rock Touchdown Club, announced the selection of Bettye Fiscus into its 2015 class of inductees for the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame.

As the first female athlete inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor in 1994, Bettye Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged. She was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career, and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only Razorback women's basketball player over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the University's all-time leading scorer. She averaged 18.5 points per game during her career. She was a Wade Trophy Award finalist, an award given to the nation's top women's player. Her jersey number – No. 5 – was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas – male or female – and was placed in the trophy case and the rafters of Barnhill Arena. In 2015 during a special ceremony, a banner was raised in her honor in Bud Walton Arena, the current home of Razorback Basketball. She still holds 12 Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws and eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

Administrator Bev Lewis was inducted in 2016 followed by player Amber Nicholas Shirey in 2017.

NCAA WOMAN OF THE YEAR

AMBER NICHOLAS
1992 STATE WINNER

BLAIR SAVAGE
1993 STATE WINNER

CHRISTY SMITH
1998 STATE WINNER

Started in 1991 to recognize female athletes, the NCAA Woman of the Year program showcases individuals who have been standouts in athletics, academics and community service.

The Razorback women's basketball team has three university and statewide selections in the NCAA Woman of the Year program.

The University of Arkansas has produced 10 of the first 11 Women of the Year for the state, including the first top 10 national finalist for the state of Arkansas -- track and field All-American Jessica Dailey.

Each NCAA member institution selects its university-wide Woman of the Year. Those nominations are forwarded to the state level where a panel of journalists and NCAA officials vote to select a representative for the state at the national level. These 51 state Women of the Year are honored at the NCAA Woman of the Year banquet where a top 10 and a single national Woman of the Year are chosen.

Bettye Fiscus (back row standing at left) is the first Razorback women's basketball player to earn all-tournament. This is the all-tournament team from one of the great women's basketball tournaments of the early era, the Northern Lights Invitational hosted by University of Alaska-Anchorage.

ARKANSAS IN THE PROS

The Razorbacks have contributed to the WNBA ranks with four players who have made the rosters. A fifth was invited to try out but did not make the opening day roster. A sixth player, C'eira Ricketts, was the 24th overall pick in the 2012 draft but did not make the roster.

Ricketts went on to play overseas for the Flying Foxes in Austria. Teammates Lyndsay Harris and Ashley Daniels also went overseas in 2012-13. Harris plays in Spain and Daniels in Portugal.

The most notable player is Shameka Christon. Christon is the most successful Arkansas women's basketball player in the WNBA.

The former SEC Player of the Year and SEC Legend remains the highest drafted women's basketball player in Arkansas history when she was taken fifth overall in the first round by the New York Liberty.

Playing in 33 of 34 regular-season games as a contributor from the bench, Christon helped the Liberty to a second-place finish in the Eastern Division in 2004 and was selected to the All-Star team in 2009 when she led the Liberty with 16.1 ppg and 31.7 minutes-per-game.

Christon was traded to the Chicago Sky for the 2010 season averaging 8.5 ppg and 2.4 rpg and avg. She finished her career with the Phoenix Mercury, retiring in 2016.

In the past seasons, Arkansas has sent 12 of its star players into the professional ranks, with four of the most notable standouts helping their teams reach the WNBA playoffs during their rookie seasons.

Lauren Ervin joined her team in 2009. The Connecticut Sun drafted Ervin in the third round of the 2008 WNBA Draft even though the double-double post threat could not play the 2008 season due to a college career ending ACL injury.

Wendi Willits came home in 2001 with a World Championship ring as a member of the Los Angeles Sparks. Willits became the second Razorback to make a WNBA regular-season roster. Signed by the Sparks as a free agent, Willits survived the preseason games and graduation to make the opening day roster for L.A.

It was ironic that Willits' Sparks knocked off her former Arkansas' teammate's old WNBA team.

In 1998, Christy Smith became the first Razorback women's basketball player to go to the WNBA. She was the only WNBA player to go from the 1998 Women's Final Four to the 1998 WNBA Playoffs.

Her pro career in 1998 resembled her college days at Arkansas. Drafted 17th overall as the second-round pick of the Sting, Smith started the first 13 games of the WNBA season. Her rookie season looked promising until a broken right pinkie sidelined her for six games. She came back to start the season finale for the Sting and played in the Stings' playoff series with eventual WNBA champion Houston.

In 2002, there were four former Arkansas players in WNBA camps. Joining Willits were three free agents, Amy Wright with the Detroit Shock and Karyn Karlin and Shaka Massey with the Miami Sol.

After the 2003 season, Dana Cherry joined Arkansas' WNBA draft list. While union negotiations prevented a draft camp, Cherry impressed the scouts during her senior season to become the 23rd player taken in the 2003 draft, selected by the Charlotte Sting.

Cherry's teammate India Lewis took her three-point shooting skills to The Netherlands to play for BV Lavy in Amsterdam in 2003 and 2004. Brittney Vaughn earned a spot on the Minnesota Lynx training camp roster and played in exhibition contests in 2008.

Arkansas isn't limited to the WNBA. Karyn Karlin had the chance to play with three pro teams in the year prior to her 2002 training camp appearance with the Sol -- the Finnish league before being picked up by Calais in the French league then on to the Birmingham Power of the National Women's Basketball League.

Celia Anderson signed to play with the Alexander the Great team based in Thessaloniki. Despite being the shortest American post in the league, Anderson led the Greek pro circuit in rebounding during the 2002 season. She has returned to Arkansas to pursue a master's degree.

Another member of the Final Four team, Treva Christensen saw action in the Finnish league in 2002 for the Insolo team.

Former Kodak All-American Delmonica DeHorney played for Japan Air Lines for a season after she led the Razorbacks to the NCAA West Regional Finals in 1990 and the Sweet 16 in 1991. DeHorney also played pro ball briefly in France.

Smith was the second Razorback to participate in the WNBA predraft camp. Her former teammate, Kimberly Wilson, worked out during the first-ever predraft camp in 1997. Smith also holds the distinction of being the second Lady'Back drafted by an American pro league. Cheryl Orcholski was drafted by the Columbus Minks of the old Women's Basketball Association.

ANOTHER CONNECTION

In 2009, the WNBA announced that the Detroit team would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., and shortly after, the league announced former Razorback men's head coach Nolan Richardson would be the team's first head coach.

Richardson and the Tulsa Shock played to a 6-28 inaugural season record. Richardson also added former Razorback men's assistant coach Wayne Stehlik to the bench as an assistant.

In 2016, former Razorback assistant coach Nicki Collen joined the WNBA's Connecticut Sun as an assistant coach. She was named the head coach of the Atlanta Dream Oct. 30, 2017. Collen earned Coach of the Year honors in her rookie season (2018) leading the Dream to the quarterfinals in the WNBA playoffs.

HALL OF HONOR SHAMEKA CHRISTON

The first Arkansas women's basketball player to earn Associated Press All-America honors, Hot Springs, Ark., native Shameka Christon became Arkansas' first, first-round professional draft selection after earning 2004 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors. Leading the league in scoring with 21.8 points-per-game her senior year, Christon played in three NCAA tournaments at Arkansas and closed her career as the second all-time leading scorer with 1,951 points. She led Arkansas to semifinal finishes at the 2001 and 2002 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, still the all-time best performance for the Razorbacks. As a six-year veteran with the WNBA

New York Liberty, she was on the 2004 Rookie Team and a WNBA All-Star in 2009. Christon was traded to the Chicago Sky for the 2011 season but injuries kept her out of the lineup. Christon was traded to the San Antonio Stars and retired from the WNBA with the Phoenix Mercury in 2015.

RECORDS

One of the most decorated players in program history, Christon worked with the Razorbacks as the team's color analyst on the radio for one season as well.

HALL OF HONOR

DELMONICA DEHORNEY-HAWKINS

Delmonica DeHorney Hawkins became the second Razorback basketball player and the fourth overall inductee to the Arkansas Hall of Honor in September 2000. The first Kodak All-American at the University of Arkansas, DeHorney set the standard by which all future post players will be judged. The only player in Southwest Conference history to receive three player of the year honors during her career, DeHorney led Arkansas to its peak of domination of the SWC and onto the national stage as a top 10 team.

DeHorney exhibited her promise her first season at Arkansas, earning SWC Newcomer of the Year honors. Her sophomore season was limited due to injuries, but the 6-4 Poteau, Okla., product came back stronger than ever as a junior.

It was during the 1989-90 season that DeHorney and Arkansas became household words in the sports world. Leading Arkansas and the SWC in scoring and field goal percentage, DeHorney paced the Razorbacks to the first win over Texas by a conference opponent. The win at Texas broke a 183-game streak and the UT strangle-hold on the conference title. As the SWC co-champions, Arkansas was selected for the NCAA tournament. DeHorney stepped up her game, earning All-NCAA West Regional team honors for her back-to-back 30-point games at the Stanford-hosted tournament. Arkansas reached the Elite Eight with DeHorney leading the way.

For her efforts, DeHorney was voted the SWC Player of the Year in 1990 as well as one of the 10 players selected by the WBCA for the Kodak All-America team.

As a senior, DeHorney proved herself again. Repeating as SWC Player of the Year, she led Arkansas to an undisputed SWC crown with a pair of wins over Texas and a 15-1 conference mark. Arkansas added the 1991 SWC Classic trophy to its collection to become the first team besides UT to win the postseason conference tournament. Ranked as high as 8th in the nation, Arkansas received a first-round bye in the 1991 NCAA Tournament, but was upset in the Sweet 16 by Lamar.

ONE OF A KIND

In the storied history of the Southwest Conference, only one woman was voted by the league coaches to a player of the year honor three times in a career. Delmonica DeHorney was the SWC Newcomer of the Year as a freshman in 1988. An injury limited her playing time as a sophomore, but she returned full force as a junior and a senior to lead the league in scoring and earn the 1990 and 1991 SWC Player of the Year award. The first player twice voted first team all-conference, DeHorney was chosen SWC Player of the Week three times and all-tournament once. Her career was remembered years later as she was the only women's basketball player voted to the five-player first-team of the SWC All-Decade Team.

One of Delmonica's three blocks that were key to Arkansas' snapping the Texas 183-game win streak in SWC games in 1990.

DELMONICA HAWKINS TODAY

Married to Jackson Hawkins and the mother of two, Delmonica lives in Baltimore, Md., and works as a juvenile probation officer. Immediately after her playing career at Arkansas, she spent a season in Japan in professional basketball, then a brief time in France. She returned to Fayetteville for the retirement of her jersey, only the second in school history, before settling with her family in Baltimore.

DeHorney-Hawkins joined the Razorback women at the 2011 SEC Championship where she was honored as an SEC Great.

RECORDS

The post against all others are measured in Arkansas Razorback women's basketball history, Delmonica was one of the most accurate scorers in school history and the key to Arkansas leading the nation in field goal percentage during the 1990-91 season.

HALL OF HONOR

BETTYE FISCUS

The first of the true greats in Razorback history, Bettye Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged.

In a career of firsts, Fiscus received perhaps her final and most unique honor in 1994 when she became the first female athlete inducted into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor.

Fiscus was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career, and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only women's basketball player over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American and NBA standout Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the university's all-time leading scorer.

Also one in a long line of Arkansas prep legends to play for the Razorbacks, she led her hometown of Wynne, Ark., to the AAA state title and was named player of the year by the Arkansas Democrat.

Her jersey number -- No. 5 -- was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas -- male or female -- and hangs in the Razorback trophy case, as well as in Barnhill Arena.

Even though her career ended in 1985, she still holds seven Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws and seven class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

Adding to her career honors, she was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

She was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 2015.

IT'S NOT ALL ABOUT SCORING

While her career rebound mark of 785 did not last more than three years, Bettye remains No. 2 on the career rebound list and the top guard-wing rebounder. Notable Razorbacks below Bettye in boards: Kodak All-American Delmonica DeHorney and SEC Player of the Year Shameka Christon

Bettye Fiscus was Arkansas' first all-conference player, earning first-team all-SWC in 1982. She was a three-time all-SWC selection in her career, two-time all-SWC tournament and was selected to the SWC All-Decade Team

BETTYE FISCUS TODAY

Bettye Fiscus remains a part of the great history of the Razorback program. She was the first player in university history to have her jersey retired in 1986.

To celebrate the end of the Barnhill Arena era and the opening of Bud Walton Arena, the Women's Athletics Department issued commemorative tickets for the first women's game in the new facility. Each ticket had the image of one of the four career leaders, and a special banquet was held to celebrate "A Moment in Time." Bettye was joined at the banquet by Amber Nicholas Shirey (UA's then assist leader) and Shelly Wallace, the only woman to break Bettye's mark for rebounds.

As a part of the 30th anniversary season of Razorback basketball, the University chose Bettye as its Southeastern Conference Great to be honored at the 2006 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament in North Little Rock.

RECORDS

Two decades later, Bettye Fiscus remains Arkansas' all-time scoring leader with 2,073 points, but the original star of the program still holds another seven individual records and seven class records.

HALL OF HONOR

SYTIA MESSER

Named the most outstanding player of the 1998 NCAA West Regional, former Razorback women's basketball player Sytia Messer was an integral part of two of Arkansas' greatest women's basketball teams, the 1998 Final Four and 1999 WNIT Championship squads.

Messer is a 1,000-point scorer (1,379) and, at 5-8, she pulled down 603 rebounds as one of the best rebounding guards in school history. She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and she was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996.

Messer averaged 12.6 ppg in 1997-98, her best season, leading Arkansas to the program's first Final Four appearance. She was named to the Joe Smith Pre-Season All-American team in 1998-99 and then led her team as they ran the table to the WNIT title against Wisconsin.

Along with her play for the Razorbacks, Messer also took time to play in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletēs in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletēs in Action touring team.

Following college, Messer began her coaching career with stops at Arkansas State, Memphis, Georgia Tech, Tennessee Tech and most recently Baylor.

RECORDS

Sytia Messer was part of two record-setting seasons for Razorback women's basketball. She was a two-time captain while helping Arkansas to the program's first Final Four in 1998 and again when the Razorbacks won the WNIT title in 1999.

HALL OF HONOR

AMBER NICHOLAS SHIREY

While others may have better statistics, arguably no other Razorback has had the impact upon the Arkansas women's basketball program as Amber Nicholas Shirey. An All-SWC and Academic All-America player in the late 1980s and early 1990s, she is the first former women's player to become a full-time coaching staff member at Arkansas. As a result, she played a critical hand in recruiting and coaching the athletes who replaced her in the record books.

It seems fitting that the player to hold the Arkansas record for assists would have the best winning percentage in her career (over 75 pct.) of any Razorback. In the process, her teams won 86 games, two SWC titles and made three NCAA appearances. Thanks in part to her 538 assists, her post players led the SWC in scoring twice.

She ended her career second in steals and one of only two players to rank in the top 10 in points, rebounds, steals and assists. Nicholas can rightly lay claim to a stake in the 86 games won during her four years as she played in all 117 games and started a school-record 87 consecutive games. The 1991 SWC Tournament MVP, Nicholas also was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipient.

Her legacy to the program continued as an assistant coach, working with guards like former SEC three-point accuracy champion Kimberly Wilson, former four-time AP All-American Christy Smith and three-point record holder Wendi Willits. She had the privilege to coach the woman who finished off her assist record, Amy Wright. Shirey was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in the fall of 2017.

RECORDS

Of all the records that Amber Nicholas set during her career, which included virtually every assist and free throw mark, the two that speak to the essence of her game remain to this day. She is the only starting point guard to take her team to three consecutive NCAA tournaments and the only Arkansas player named MVP of the SWC Classic.

CAREER

Three-point percentage, career: 41.6%
 Three-point percentage, season: 47.7%
 Free throw percentage, career: 84.5%
 Consecutive games started: 87

CLASS RECORDS

It's somehow fitting that the consummate point guard of her era hold no class records. However, her post players, Delmonica DeHorney (junior season) and Shelly Wallace (senior season) hold the school class records for most points in a game, season and season scoring average.

"MISS LADY'BACK"

During the program's 25th anniversary celebration, that's the headline on the newspaper article about Amber Nicholas Shirey. The label fits as no person has been involved in more games than any other individual in Arkansas history, 117 as a player, 27 as a graduate assistant coach and 436 as an assistant coach. That's a total of 580 games over a span of 19 years.

A SCHOLAR AND AN ATHLETE

Recipient of several academic awards, Amber was the first Razorback to earn an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. She also was the NCAA Woman of the Year from the state of Arkansas in 1992.

AMBER SHIREY TODAY

Honored by the university with selection to the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor in 2002 as the third Razorback women's basketball player inducted, Shirey was also honored by the athletic department's as the Legend player at the 2003 Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament hosted in North Little Rock at ALLTEL Arena. She married Fayetteville High teacher Jason Shirey in 1999, and the Shireys have three children, a son, Ross, and daughters, Reese and Rheid.

HALL OF HONOR

CHRISTY SMITH

The fifth Razorback women's basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Christy Smith lives forever in the memories of women's basketball fans for her heroic leadership of the 1998 NCAA Final Four team.

She became the first Razorback to lead the nation in a NCAA statistical category by shooting 89.9 percent at the free throw line as a freshman. Yet, one of her 15 missed free throws that season cost Arkansas a chance to advance to overtime versus Ole Miss. That loss put Arkansas at 1-3 for SEC games, but Smith would not be denied and led Arkansas on a 6-1 finish to give the Razorbacks their best SEC finish in school history, 7-4, tied for fourth overall.

As a sophomore, Smith had the best single free throw shooting game in Division I for the 1995-96 season, a 15-of-15 effort to defeat Ohio State in the preseason WNIT. Arkansas roared to a program-best start of 13-1, but the team faltered when Smith tore her ACL at Kentucky midway through conference play. Without Smith, the team accepted a NWIT berth.

Upon her return, Arkansas opened 12-1 including Smith leading the Razorbacks' first-ever win over Tennessee, but a tough close made Arkansas the bubble team left out of the NCAA Tournament.

In her final season, Smith rallied Arkansas again into a NCAA bid, but with a ninth seed and the unenviable assignment to the Stanford-hosted subregional it appeared Smith would end her career short of her dream. But two flawless games from the West Lafayette, Ind., guard -- zero turnovers -- put Arkansas into the West Regional at Oakland. Defeating Kansas in the Sweet 16, and struggling from behind against eight-ranked Duke, Smith fulfilled her destiny appropriately at the free throw line. In the waning seconds, Duke fouled Smith twice and she calmly sank all four to send Arkansas to the Final Four in Kansas City. It remains to this day the only time an unranked team reached the Final Four.

Smith closed her career second all-time in assists and fifth in scoring. Only 31 assists shy of her coach Amber Nicholas' record, she certainly would have closed No. 1 in assists without her knee injury. She remains the highest scoring point guard in school history.

Along with her All-SEC honors, Christy was a member of the inaugural AP Women's All-America Team in 1995. She was a four-time honorable mention AP All-American, a feat made more notable by her season ending knee injury in 1996.

RECORDS

The highest scoring point guard in Arkansas history, Smith was one of the most accurate free throw shooters in the nation during her career. In fact, she led Division I in 1994-95 for the season and had the single best game in all of Division I in 1995-96.

CAREER

Three-point pct., half: 100% (5-of-5)
 Free throw percentage, season: 89.9%
 Free throw pct., game: 100% (16-of-16)

CLASS RECORDS

In addition to these records, Smith holds another 14 records for SEC games only including career free throws, career free throw percentage and career consecutive SEC starts -- 43. In fact, she is the only Razorback to start every SEC game of her career that she was able to play.

CHRISTY SMITH TODAY

Following her trip to the Final Four, Smith was a second round draft pick of the Charlotte Sting, and as the starting point guard for the franchise led the Sting to the WNBA Playoffs. Injuries limited her playing time the following season and eventually ended her professional career.

Smith was the fifth Razorback women's basketball player selected by the A-Club membership for inclusion in the Arkansas Hall of Honor. She was inducted in 2005.

She and former Razorback defensive back Jeromy Flowers have three children. She is currently the head coach at Incarnant Word in San Antonio, Texas.

HALL OF HONOR

TRACY WEBB

The fourth Razorback women's basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era.

Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the Razorbacks' first women's basketball NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament.

The leader of a recruiting class that put Arkansas on the map, the Batesville, Ark., native stole more than the basketball during her four-year career.

Aside from 293 basketballs, Webb stole the show and the hearts of Arkansas fans as one of the most popular on-the-court personalities of the mid-1980s. The first true point guard star, Webb finished her career holding almost all the Razorback assist and steal records. She was the first Razorback player to earn "first team" All-Southwest Conference honors, a distinction that began her senior season.

She was also one of the first three Razorbacks named conference player of the week. Her junior-season team was the first in school history to earn an NCAA berth, losing by a point at Missouri in the opening round, 66-65. Her senior season was exciting as the Razorbacks missed beating No. 1-ranked UT by a bucket in Fayetteville (59-56) and at the SWC Tournament (72-70), then was overlooked for a return trip to the NCAA. Fueled to prove they belonged in the NCAA, Webb's team crushed the WNIT field by a 16-point average as she was named the tournament MVP.

MAKING HER POINT

Back in the 1980s, the NCAA tournament was limited to only 32 bids, and as a result many great basketball players never reached the Big Dance. Such was the case for the 1986-87 Razorbacks and their leader, Tracy Webb. Snubbed by the NCAA committee, Webb and company headed west to Amarillo, Texas, and the National Women's Invitational Tournament on a mission. Not only did Arkansas want to win, the team crushed the opposition by a record-setting margin that stood until the end of the NWIT's existence. That same year, Webb had a profound impact on Arkansas' future as she impressed upon a young recruit, Amber Nicholas, her duty to stay home and take over for her at point guard.

RECORDS

One of the first true point guards in Arkansas history, Tracy Webb set the standard by which future "1" players were measured. When she finished her career in 1987, she held almost every guard oriented career mark, including assists, steals and free throw percentage. She still holds these Arkansas marks.

CAREER

Second for Steals, career: 293
Steals, season: 95
Personal fouls: 323

CLASS RECORDS

Senior season steals: 95
Senior game assists: 11 (tied)

She also holds the record for career assists and career steals in SWC games, plus the career and season records for best free throw percentage in SWC games.

TRACY RICE TODAY

After finishing her playing career at Arkansas, Tracy was a graduate assistant coach for the Razorbacks in 1987-88.

She worked for several years as a flight attendant for a major carrier. Married to Paul Rice and the mother of three, Webb lives in Hot Springs, Ark.

Tracy was the University of Arkansas' honored former player at the 2005 Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament in Greenville, S.C.

She was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

HALL OF HONOR

AMY WRIGHT

The all-time record holder for assists in a career (717) and second for a single season (205), Wright finished her career as the first starting point guard to take her team to four consecutive post-season appearances (1999-2000, WNIT; 2001-02, NCAA).

As a freshman, Wright guided Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT Championship. Her teams won 77 games, including three 20-win seasons, for one of the most successful four-year periods for Arkansas. Her senior season team set the Arkansas record for the least turnovers in a season.

After her playing career, she has become a successful Division I women's basketball assistant coach. An SEC Academic Honor Roll selection and member of the Arkansas Academic Honor Roll as a sophomore (1999-2000), Wright never missed a game, playing in a school-record 131 consecutive contests. She was named to the Women's Basketball News Service preseason All-America team in 2001-02.

Following her collegiate career, Wright participated in the WNBA Pre-Draft Camp and was drafted by the Detroit Shock in 2002.

A native of Williamsburg, Ind., Wright earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Arkansas in 2002. She completed her master's degree in sports and administration from Ohio University in December 2012. Following her playing career, Wright went into coaching and currently serves as an assistant women's basketball coach at Texas A&M University.

AMY WRIGHT TODAY

Amy Wright is in her sixth season (2017-18) as an assistant coach at Texas A&M, working with Texas A&M's point guards, in-bound plays and serving as recruiting coordinator.

During her time at A&M, she helped the Aggies win the 2013 SEC Tournament Championship and reach the Elite Eight of the 2014 NCAA Tournament. She has helped the Aggies to two second-place finishes in the SEC in a five year span.

In her 13-year coaching career, Wright has been a part of 12 postseason teams, eight of which were NCAA Tournament teams, and has won four conference championships. Her teams have won 278 games, an average of 21.4 wins a year.

She has coached 11 first team all-conference selections, including Kelsey Bone (2012-13) and Courtney Walker (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16), who were named All-SEC at Texas A&M.

RECORDS

Amy Wright led Arkansas in assists four consecutive seasons erasing one of the oldest records in program history with 717 career helps. She is one of just three point guards (Tracy Webb, C'eira Ricketts) to lead the Razorbacks in assists all four seasons.

HALLS OF FAME/HONOR

ARKANSAS SPORTS HALL OF FAME

(Established in January, 1959, to honor individuals who have made a special contribution to athletics in Arkansas.)

2006 BETTYE FISCUS

A native of Wynne, she is listed as the first "great" women's basketball player for the modern day Lady Razorbacks. Having guided Wynne to the 1981 state championship (scoring 18 points in the final 2:30 minutes of the title game), she also became a legend at the University of Arkansas. The first Lady Razorback to score more than 1,000 points in her career, Fiscus took the U of A to the Sweet 16 as a freshman. She's a member of the Southwest Conference's All-Decade team and had her number 5 jersey retired. She continues to hold a number of U of A records to this day. Fiscus is the program-leading scorer with 2,073 points, was the first player in program history to score 1,000 points and the only one to reach the 2,000-point plateau. Fiscus still holds program career records for points, field goals made (794), free throws made (485) and scoring average (18.5). She is a member of the Arkansas Hall of Honor and named an SEC Great in 2006.

2008 TRACY WEBB RICE

Tracy was a standout lady basketball player at Batesville High and was named "Player of the Year" by the Arkansas Democrat and the Associated Press. Playing on 2 state championship teams, she was named to the Gazette's Super Team, averaging 22.5 points, 8.6 rebounds, and 6 assist her senior season. She scored a career 1,691 points and was named state tournament MVP. Tracy was also a member of the state championship tennis doubles tennis team her sophomore & senior years. As a Lady Razorback true point guard, she gained All-SWC status, guiding Arkansas to 4 consecutive 20 win seasons and the NCAA tournament for the first time. She also guided the Lady'Backs to an WNIT title, grabbing MVP honors. Upon leaving the U of A she held most of the steal and assist records

2014 GARY BLAIR, WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Gary Blair is a former head women's basketball coach at the University of Arkansas and currently the head women's basketball coach at Texas A&M University. Blair led Arkansas to five NCAA appearances including the 1998 Final Four and four second round appearances including his last three seasons with the Razorbacks. During his tenure (1993-2003), the Razorbacks made eight postseason appearances in 10 years including earning a WNIT championship in 1999. Blair's overall record at Arkansas was 198-120 (.623). Blair is one of only three NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches to lead two schools to the NCAA Women's Final Four. Blair led Texas A&M to the 2011 national championship. At the start of this season, Blair had a 237-100 record at Texas A&M and a 645-263 overall record. He was the head coach at Stephen F. Austin from 1985-93, compiling a 210-43 record at the Texas school. He ranks among the top 20 in career victories and in the top 30 by winning percentage among active Division I coaches. Blair already has been inducted into three halls of fame: the Texas High School Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002, the Stephen F. Austin University Ladyjack Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Southland Conference Hall of Honor in 2009.

2015 CHRISTY SMITH

Christy Smith graduated from Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1998 and a master's degree in biomechanics in 2001. She was a four-year starter at point guard from 1995-1998. Smith's honors include being a four-time honorable mention All-American, first-team All-SEC in 1998, second-team All-SEC in 1996 and 1997, SEC Freshman of the Year in 1995. Smith led Arkansas to the 1998 Final Four, and was a UA Sports Hall of Honor inductee in 2005. The Razorbacks were 84-41 overall in her four seasons with two NCAA Tournament appearances and a WNIT appearance. She is Arkansas' eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,459 career points, ranks fourth on career assists with 507 and third in steals with 239. She played two seasons in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting after being a first-round draft pick, No. 17 overall, in 1998. Smith is married to Tommy Cook and has three kids: Daughter Dayton and sons Tyson and Crew.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS SPORTS HALL OF HONOR

The University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor was established in 1988 as a means of honoring the all-time great athletes and coaches that have done so much in establishing a tradition of excellence in University of Arkansas athletics. Only former Razorback letterwinners are allowed to vote. Bios from their induction release are posted if they were available.

1994 Bettye Fiscus

1998 Bev Lewis

Lewis spent 19 years (1989-2007) as the director of Women's Athletics. During her tenure, the University of Arkansas has moved to increase athletic participation for women with the addition of volleyball, golf, gymnastics and softball. All four sports competed in NCAA post-season competition by each inaugural recruiting class' senior season and have established themselves as nationally competitive programs. Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' new facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics. Lewis' leadership was also key to the construction of Bogle Park and Razorback Field, the home to Razorback softball and Razorback soccer, respectively. Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. In 1998, she was voted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor for her contributions as a coach and administrator.

2000 Delmonica DeHorney

Named a Kodak All-American in 1990. - A two-time Southwest Conference Player of the Year and the league's Newcomer of the Year. - Still holds program records for field goal percentage (.609), free throw attempts (648) and blocks (235). - Led Arkansas in scoring in record-setting win over Texas that snapped a 183-game SWC win streak for the Longhorns and led to a conference title. - Member of the Arkansas Hall of Honor. 2002 Amber Nicholas Shirey

The 1990 Southwest Conference Tournament MVP, Amber Nicholas Shirey lettered from 1989-92 and was a two-time All-SWC selection. The career leader in assists at Arkansas prior to the 2002 season, no point guard has matched her team's run of back-to-back conference titles and three consecutive NCAA appearances. The only 1,000 point-500 assist Lady'Back, she was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, was NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Arkansas and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. Becoming an assistant coach in 1993, she was an assistant for the 1998 NCAA Final Four team.

2004 Tracy Webb Rice

The fourth Lady Razorback basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era. Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the Lady'Backs' first NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament. The leader of a recruiting class that put Arkansas on the map, the Batesville, Ark., native stole more than the basketball during her four-year career. Aside from 293 basketballs, Webb stole the show and the hearts of Lady'Back fans as one of the most popular on-the-court personalities of the mid-1980s. The first true point guard star, Webb finished her career holding almost all the Lady Razorback assist and steal records. She was the first Lady'Back player to earn "first team" all-Southwest Conference honors, a distinction that began her senior season. She was also one of the first three Lady'Backs named conference player of the week. Her junior season team was the first in school history to earn an NCAA berth, losing by a point at Missouri in the opening round, 66-65. Her senior season was exciting as the Lady'Backs missed beating #1-ranked UT by a bucket in Fayetteville (59-56) and at the SWC Tournament (72-70), then was overlooked for a return trip to the NCAA. Fueled to prove they belonged in the NCAA, Webb's team crushed the WNIT field by a 16-point average as she was named the tournament MVP.

2005 Christy Smith

2014 Shameka Christon

The first Arkansas women's basketball player to earn Associated Press All-America honors, Hot Springs, Ark., native Shameka Christon became Arkansas' first, first-round professional draft selection after earning 2004 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors. Leading the league in scoring with 21.8 points-per-game her senior year, Christon played in three NCAA tournaments at Arkansas and closed her career as the second all-time leading scorer with 1,951 points. She led Arkansas to semifinal finishes at the 2001 and 2002 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, still the all-time best performance for the Razorbacks. As a six-year veteran with the WNBA New York Liberty, she was on the 2004 Rookie Team and a WNBA All-Star in 2009. Christon was traded to the Chicago Sky for the 2011 season but injuries kept her out of the lineup. Christon is now with the Phoenix Mercury.

2017 Amy Wright

The all-time record holder for assists in a career (717) and second for a single season (205), Wright finished her career as the first starting point guard to take her team to four consecutive post-season appearances (1999-2000, WNIT; 2001-02, NCAA). As a freshman, Wright guided Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT Championship. Her teams won 77 games, including three 20-win seasons, for one of the most successful four-year periods for Arkansas. Her senior season team set the Arkansas record for the least turnovers in a season. After her playing career, she has become a successful Division I women's basketball assistant coach. An SEC Academic Honor Roll selection and member of the Arkansas Academic Honor Roll as a sophomore (1999-2000), Wright never missed a game, playing in a school-record 131 consecutive contests. She was named to the Women's Basketball News Service preseason All-America team in 2001-02. Following her collegiate career, Wright participated in the WNBA Pre-Draft Camp and was drafted by the Detroit Shock in 2002. A native of Williamsburg, Ind., Wright earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Arkansas in 2002. She completed her master's degree in sports and administration from Ohio University in December 2012. Following her playing career, Wright went into coaching and currently serves as an assistant women's basketball coach at Texas A&M University.

2018 Sytia Messer

Named the most outstanding player of the 1998 NCAA West Regional, former Razorback women's basketball player Sytia Messer was an integral part of two of Arkansas' greatest women's basketball teams, the 1998 Final Four and 1999 WNIT Championship squads. Messer is a 1,000-point scorer (1,379) and, at 5-8, she pulled down 603 rebounds as one of the best rebounding guards in school history. She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and she was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996. Messer averaged 12.6 ppg in 1997-98, her best season, leading Arkansas to the program's first Final Four appearance. She was named to the Joe Smith Pre-Season All-American team in 1998-99 and then led her team as they ran the table to the WNIT title against Wisconsin. Along with her play for the Razorbacks, Messer also took time to play in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletes in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletes in Action touring team. Following college, Messer began her coaching career with stops at Arkansas State, Memphis, Georgia Tech, Tennessee Tech and most recently Baylor.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

The Texas Sports Hall of Fame (TSHOF), in conjunction with the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the Little Rock Touchdown Club, announced the selection of Bettye Fiscus into its 2015 class of inductees for the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame.

1994 Bettye Fiscus

As the first female athlete inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor in 1994, Bettye Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged. She was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career, and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only Razorback women's basketball player over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the University's all-time leading scorer. She averaged 18.5 points per game during her career. She was a Wade Trophy Award finalist, an award given to the nation's top women's player. Her jersey number - No. 5 - was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas - male or female - and was placed in the trophy case and the rafters of Barnhill Arena. In 2015 during a special ceremony, a banner was raised in her honor in Bud Walton Arena, the current home of Razorback Basketball. She still holds 12 Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws and eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

2016 Bev Lewis (Women's Track and Field, Administrator)

Prior to Bev Lewis assuming the duties of director of women's athletics in 1989, her Razorback women's cross country and track teams had six top 20 national finishes, and she coached Team USA at the 1990 World Junior Cross Country Championships. Her coaching was instrumental in establishing Arkansas' perfect record of sending a team or individual to every collegiate national meet since the program's inception. Lewis also coached Arkansas' first women's conference championship team at the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships. As a result, her peers voted her SWC Coach of the Year for the second year in a row. She also was named SWC Outdoor Track Coach of the Year in 1989. Lewis spent 19 years (1989-2007) as the director of Women's Athletics. She served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. From 2008-14, Lewis served as Associate Vice Chancellor and Executive Associate Athletic Director in the combined men's and women's athletic program. In 1998, she was voted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor for her contributions as a coach and administrator. In recognition of her outstanding achievements, Lewis was named to Arkansas Business magazine's "Top 100 Women in Arkansas" in 1996, 1997 and 1998. The publication also named her to their 2010 "Women of Influence" in Arkansas.

2017 Amber Nicholas Shirey

Selected in 2017, Amber Nicholas began her career at Arkansas as a player for the Razorbacks (1989-92) becoming the first women's student-athlete selected to receive a NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. She closed her career as one of two players in school history to rank on four career total lists (points, 6th; rebounds, 10th; steals, 2nd; assists, 1st). Twice named All-Southwest Conference, she was the MVP of the 1991 SWC tournament, leading Arkansas to the first non-Texas title. Shirey equaled her court performance in the classroom. A kinesiology major, she had over a 3.9 GPA, and twice was voted to the College Sports Information Directors of America's Academic All-America Team. She was a three-time conference academic team member. Shirey graduated and went on to a student coaching role for one season before being named assistant coach, a position she held for 14 seasons with two different head coaches. In 2007 Shirey redefined herself in a new role as executive director of operations, a position she held until returning to the sidelines as the Razorback assistant.

2018 Tracy Webb

The fourth Lady Razorback basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era. Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the Lady'Backs' first NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament.
