Announcements:

Associated Student Government

- On Saturday, Oct. 22, Associated Student Government will once again host Rollin' with the Razorbacks – ASG's annual program to send students to a Razorback football away game visits Auburn University this year to see the Razorbacks take on the Tigers.
- ASG will hosting an Athletics Town Hall with support from staff in the Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics office on Wednesday Oct. 26. The focus of this town hall is to discuss with students who do not regularly attend athletic events what factors contribute to their experience.
- Senate passed an amendment to Joint Resolution #1 (Bikes, Blues, BBQ and Divisive Images). Since the amended version of Joint Resolution #1 that Senate passed was different from the amended version of Joint Resolution #1 that GSC passed, the two versions of Joint Resolution #1 will go to a legislative conference committee consisting of authors of the two versions of the resolutions which was passed. It will be the responsibility of this committee to draft the final version of the joint resolution.
- GSC Secretary Garrett Jeter completed focus groups this week with constituents from interdisciplinary, Fulbright College, Walton College of Business, COEHP, and engineering graduate programs.
- ASG's Hog Out the Vote met its goal and helped register over 500 student voters.

Center for Community Engagement

- The Center for Community Engagement is hiring a mentoring program coordinator. Please share with our job posting with your contacts.
- Join us by assembling a team and filling a project for Make a Difference Day. We have wonderful projects this year!

Dining Services

- Our On Site Insight Focus Groups are coming within the next few weeks. It would be helpful if every office and department could help us distribute the links for the various groups. We are looking forward to hearing the feedback from each of the following student groups:

Resident \(on-campus\) students

Off-campus students

Greek students

ASG students

RA students

Faculty & Staff

Catering customers

Greek Life

- Global Greeks had their biggest kick-off ever with 83 Greek students and 42 international students participating in the program.

Housing

- On Monday, Oct. 10, Geri Fornthner-Cruz, Christie Rollins, and Jakhongir Khatamov attended the UHNEO Conference.

Pat Walker Health Center

- The Allergy, Immunization and Travel Clinic is holding a walk-in flu vaccine clinic from 3-5 p.m. every Monday through Friday. Students, faculty and staff can walk-in or call 479-575-7223 to schedule an appointment if walk-in hours do not work for them. Remember to bring your insurance card!

- The Pat Walker Health Center continues to actively monitor the Mumps outbreak in Northwest Arkansas. There have been zero reported mumps cases on campus. We ask any patient with possible mumps symptoms to notify the medical clinic at 479-575-4451 before coming into the clinic as a precaution.
- The Health Center is open Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. The Primary Care Clinic has extended evening hours Tuesday through Thursday until 7 p.m. Appointments can be scheduled at 479-575-4451 or online at myhealth.uark.edu.

Acknowledgments:

Housing

- Housing welcomes Angela McKnight as the new Administrative Assistant for Administrative Services.

Off Campus Student Services

- Susan Stiers represented Off Campus Student Services in applying for and receiving a grant from the Women's Giving Circle to pilot a Pregnant and Parenting College Students Lunchtime Learning Series. The series of five lunches kicks off January 25.

Pat Walker Health Center

- Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is excited to welcome two new mental health clinicians - Kym Williams, LMSW, and Kendra Glasper, LMSW - as our new senior clinicians!
