ASGSA Celebrates Spring

The Animal Science Graduate Student Association brought cheer and color to the halls of the Department of Animal Science, by hosting a door decoration and a "Spring food" competition.

They also hid five easter eggs that contained $10 Walmart gift cards for those lucky enough to find them.

Winners were:

Door Decoration - Khalisa Kitz

Food - Haley Bartimus

Egg Hunt: Hadley Twilley, Connie Stewart, Laura Meyer, Linda Jones and Kelsey Basinger

Animal Science Hosts Beef Council

On April 29-30 the Department welcomed the Arkansas Beef Council for their annual meeting.

The meetings were held at the Pauline Whitaker Animal Science Center and the group also was given a tour of the Department's meat science facilities including the abbatoir and the meats kitchen. }

Dr. Yancey guides the Beef Council through the meats kitchen in the Animal, Food and Life Sciences Building. She explained the various pieces of equipment and how they help with the Department's research.

B&B Steak Feed 2015

On Thursday, April 30, the Block and Bridle club hosted its annual steak feed fundraiser. Faculty, staff and students from across campus made their way to the Animal, Food and Life Sciences Building for a $7 steak lunch. The lunch included a steak, baked potato, green beans, roll and tea or lemonade.

The Meats Quizbowl team held a dessert auction during the lunch. Some of the items up for auction included: Razorback petit fours, caramel brownies, a cookies and cream ice cream cake and banana pudding.

This marked the ninth year Block and Bridle organized the steak feed, and this year they fed an estimated 150 people. }
