Honors Recital Performers

Michael Burner is from Rogers, AR. He is the second trombonist for the Arkansas Philharmonic, and has performed with the Fort Smith Symphony and Tulsa Opera. Michael is principal trombone of the University Symphony Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, and New Music Ensemble. His primary teachers are Gerald Sloan and John Kitzman.

Jessica Carvin, a native of Springdale, Arkansas, is in her senior year at the University of Arkansas studying music performance in flute under Dr. Ronda Mains. As a student in the honors program and an Arkansas Governor's Scholar, she has been a member of the Chancellor's List and the Dean's List at the University of Arkansas since her freshman year. Jessica performs regularly as principle flute of the University of Arkansas Wind Ensemble and also plays with the Arkansas Philharmonic Orchestra. She plans to pursue her Masters of Music in flute performance at the University of Arkansas next fall.

Andrew Chu is a violin performance major at the University of Arkansas. In February, he won second in the Concerto Aria Competition and will be performing the finale of Bruch's Violin Concerto no. 1 with the UA Symphony Orchestra. Andrew gave his debut as a soloist with the Fort Smith Symphony this past February for Earquake, a musical educational experience for students in the Greater Fort Smith Region. Andrew performs regularly as a section violinist in both the Symphony Orchestra of Northwest Arkansas and the Arkansas Philharmonic Orchestra. Aside from classical music, Andrew plays violin in a gypsy jazz ensemble.

Brandon DeNike is the son of Sean and Deana DeNike and is from McAlester, Ok. He is a music major and is graduating this spring with a BA in music. He has been a part of the U of A percussion ensemble and the RMB for the last four years. He plans to attend chiropractic school next fall.

Kelby Ferguson is a junior music education/performance major with an emphasis in percussion. She is from Alma, Arkansas. She participated in the Razorback Marching Band for three years and was a member of the University of Arkansas Concert band for two semesters. She was also a member of the University of Arkansas Wind Symphony/Symphonic Band for two semesters, and a member of the University of Arkansas percussion studio and the percussion ensemble.

Jennifer Fox is currently the trumpet graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas. She received her bachelor's degree from Ithaca College in trumpet performance and music education. While here, she has been awarded conference scholarships at the 2012 and 2013 International Trumpet Guild conferences and was the winner of the 2012 MTNA young artists state competition in the brass division. Jen is a member of the Boston Mountain Brassworks, the Symphony Orchestra, Trumpet Ensemble, New Music Ensemble and performs with the Fulbright Brass Quintet. She is currently a student of Dr. Richard Rulli.

Janelle Hollister is a senior voice performance major at the University of Arkansas, and has studied voice for seven years. While at the University of Arkansas, she has performed the title role in Anna Bolena, as well as the roles of Casilda in The Gondoliers, Despina in Così fan Tutte, and Anna Kennedy in Maria Stuarda, all of which have been in scene performances with the UA Opera Theater. As a student in the honors program, she has been a member of both the Chancellor's List and the Dean's List at the University of Arkansas since her freshman year. Her academic performance at the U of A enabled her to receive the Arkansas Territorial Sesquicentennial Scholarship.

Andrew Jones is currently a second year tuba graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas where he is a student of Dr. Benjamin Pierce. He performs with the Wind Symphony, Wind Ensemble, Symphony Orchestra, Arkansas Tuba Quartet, Fulbright Brass, and the Arkansas Philharmonic Orchestra. He holds a bachelor's degree in music education and music performance from the University of North Texas where he studied tuba with Donald C. Little, was a member of the North Texas Wind Symphony, and was
