Announcements:*Center for Community Engagement:

- Make a Difference Day (MADD)!: Sign-ups are live. Join us on Saturday, Oct. 28 for one of the largest days of service nationwide! The VAC Student Engagement team has partnered with 45 different NWA agencies to host over 60 projects, ranging from fall carnivals to cleanups in the community. You can sign up individually or as a group by clicking the link below. Sign-up Here: <https://uark.givepulse.com/group/138148-Make-a-Difference-Day-2017>
- Razorback Food Recovery: Clean Plate, RFR’s food waste awareness campaign, is still going on in the dining halls and the Union food court! Help us spread the word about why reducing food waste is so important and provide simple ways students can reduce their waste on campus. Each volunteer receives a t-shirt and a free meal! Click the link to sign up: <https://uark.givepulse.com/group/6830-Razorback-Food-Recovery>
- Jane B. Gearhart Full Circle Food Pantry: Did you know that we offer hands-on cooking classes to students, staff, and faculty? Cooking Matters classes are being held across campus in residence halls this semester. If you’re interested in knowing more about the classes or hosting a class with your group, email cmintern@uark.edu for more information.

The pantry will be hosting a food drive for homecoming again this year with the goal of raising 27,194 pounds; one pound of food for every student at the U of A. More details are coming soon!

Chartwells:

- Cultural Bites with Chartwells - Cultural RSO's are invited to share meals from their native country during the dinner meal at Brough, Fulbright and Pomfret dining halls. A different culture will be featured each evening from November 13 – 17.

The students will work directly with the Chartwells Executive Chef to develop their menu and plan the meal. RSO students will help prepare and serve the dishes and engage with fellow students about their particular culture. The groups are also encouraged to wear traditional clothing, design decorations for their event and create informational displays about their food and culture.
