Announcements:*Arkansas Union:

- The Arkansas Union will once again provide dedicated 24-hour study space for students during the Final Examination time period. Beginning Friday, December 8th (“Dead Day”), Arkansas Union Rooms 503 and 504 will remain open 24/7 through the following week. Students are welcome to come study individually or in groups; and resources like whiteboards, snacks, and other amenities will be provided by the Arkansas Union. Additionally, the Arkansas Union itself will also remain open 24/7 during this time period, to provide access to hallways, lounges, and other study areas.

Center for Community Engagement:

- We invite staff, faculty and friends of the pantry to join us for volunteering during Finals Week and winter break. Our student leaders will be focusing on their exams and recharging during break, so we are looking for volunteers to help us keep the pantry running. Everyone is welcome, and we will provide training at the beginning of each shift. Feel free to sign up for multiple shifts. <https://uark.givepulse.com/event/64475-Full-Circle-Finals-Week-and-Winter-Break-Volunteers>

Multicultural Center:

- The MC will host Final Frenzy activities during the week of finals, with a theme, activity, and food each of the days. All are welcome! Signage being posted at the MC and via social media pages.
- The College Access Initiative team is happy to introduce our two newest teammates: Amber Voigt and AnReckez Daniels, who started as Academic Outreach Specialists on 11/29/17. Please welcome them!
- The CAI team is gearing up for Summer 2018! Off-Campus Student Services:

- Off-Campus Student Services received 52 applicants for our Freshman Commuter Meal Scholarship. This scholarship provides an Off-Campus III meal plan, donated by Chartwells, to 10 freshman commuters who were selected based on financial need and responsibilities outside of being a student that may impede their success.

- Off-Campus Student Services wrapped up the Freshman Success Mentor program, with 37 freshman commuters completing the semester-long peer mentoring program that focused on resource sharing, campus connections, and personal support.

Office of Student Activities:

- Applications are currently open for the following positions:
  - Associate Justice - Applications close on Thursday, Dec. 7 at Noon. Visit HogSync to access the application when it opens. Interviews will take place in January.
- Savannah Broughton has been appointed to be the new University Programs Special Interests chair for the Spring 2018 semester.

Pat Walker Health Center:

- CAPS Fall Play Day is Wednesday, Dec. 6th from 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. in the Arkansas Union. We will have healthy food and various activity stations to help students to “de-stress” before finals. We will have dogs from a local animal shelter, mindfulness activities, yoga demonstrations, and much more!
