Announcements:

Center for Community Engagement:

- Jane B. Gearhart Full Circle Food Pantry:
 - Thanks to Greek Life and their generous donations from Canstruction! The pantry received over 10,000 pounds of food!
 - The Jane B. Gearhart Full Circle Campus Food Pantry is hosting a month-long campaign during April titled “End the 38” to raise awareness of food insecurity on campus. University of Arkansas students experience food insecurity at over 3x the national average with 38% of students not knowing where they are getting their next meal. Full Circle is an on-campus food pantry for students, faculty, and staff that offers a free 3-day supply of groceries to every member of a household as long as one person has a U of A or UAMS ID number. There are several events scheduled as part of the “End the 38” that will benefit the Full Circle Pantry including All in for Arkansas, the Farm to Table 5k, Hogfest on Saturday, Apr. 14, and Earth Day Block Party on Friday, Apr. 20.

- We will also be having a feature event called Strike Out Hunger, in partnership with Razorback Baseball, that will consist of food drives at Baum Stadium entrances during the home games vs South Carolina on Apr. 12 – 14, and Alabama on Apr. 27 – 29. Donate 3 items during Strike Out Hunger and receive a free gift while supplies last! For more information, go to fullcircle.uark.edu.
- We could use some help collecting food donations at the baseball games this month! Check out this link to sign up (and get into the game free!): <https://givepul.se/x7n3x>
- VAC Food Programs
 - Come see both Pantry and RFR at the Earth Day Block Party on Friday, Apr. 20! Both teams will be out tabling and answering any questions you have about both programs. We'll have swag and other goodies so stop by and see us!
 - We need volunteers to help keep both our food programs up and running over the summer! Volunteer applications will be released soon! Follow both the Jane B Gearhart Full Circle Food Pantry and Razorback Food Recovery on social media for updates. If you have any questions, email pantry3@uark.edu or rfrint@uark.edu.

Housing:

- Supporting Survivors: A Panel Discussion on Sexual Assault and Advocacy will be held on Tuesday, Apr. 17, at 6:00 p.m. in Memorial Hall Room 230. Panel members include Andjoua “Jo” McLemore (an Advocate), Dr. Valandra (African American Studies Program Director) and Olivia Whitley (Let's Talk NWA Advocate). Sarah Lowe and Adedoyin Abe, No Woman Left Behind Interns, will serve as facilitators. This program is hosted by the No Woman Left Behind Program and the African American Studies Program.
- Night Market, an @Home series program, will be held on Wednesday, Apr. 18, from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at the Hawkins Family Terrace (AFLS Patio). Night Market is an experience that will bring food and cultures from around the world to the University of Arkansas. In the outside setting of the program, the food and music will give the feel of being in an international market.

- Congratulations to the residents of Walton Hall for winning the RecycleMania 2018. Walton Hall residents recycled 483 pounds during the competition (that's 3.47 pounds per Walton resident). In total, our campus residents were able to recycle 6,867.25 pounds in the RecycleMania Competition this year.

Multicultural Center:

- The National Society of Leadership and Success, UARK Chapter, is hosting a Canned Food Drive throughout the month of April to benefit the Jane B. Gearhart Full Circle Food Pantry. If you have goods you want to donate, you can drop them off the Multicultural Center, Union room 404.
- Wednesday, Apr. 18, The Multicultural Center is collaborating with the Native American Student Association (NASA) for the Native Cultural Showcase from 2:00 PM – 5:30 PM on the Union Terrace.

Off Campus Student Services:

- Apr. – 30: Roommate Agreement Giveaway. Students who send in a completed Roommate Agreement and be entered to win an Off-Campus Living Starter Pack! Contracts must be received by April 30 and can be emailed to iliveoff@uark.edu or brought to ARKU 632.
- Faculty, staff, and students can now request off-campus living presentations from OCSS on our website to help educate students about the transition to life off campus.

Office of Student Activities:

- University Programs is excited to announce the 2018-2019 Executive Board:
 President: Everett Lilly
 Vice President: Landry Chopin
 Comedy: Robbie Marks
 Cultures and Concepts: Sidney Webb
 Daytime: Savannah Broughton
 Digital Entertainment: Sharae Bowens
 Music: Brady Shipman
 Traditions: Emma Kreutzer
 Visual and Performing Arts: Avonte Jones
- Applications
 - ASG Cabinet – due Thursday, Apr. 19 at noon – Members of the ASG Executive Cabinet are appointed to complete initiatives and events in certain areas of campus life. Cabinet areas include Off-Campus Student Affairs, Safe Ride, Health, Safety, Athletic Relations, Diversity & Inclusion, and more.

- ASG Associate Justice – due Thursday, Apr. 19 at noon. ASG Associate Justices are members of the judicial branch and are responsible for administering ASG Elections, interpreting the ASG Code & Constitution, and hearing cases of complaints by ASG members.

Pat Walker Health Center:

- Eating Disorder Awareness – Campus Walk will take place on Thursday, Apr. 19 from 12:00 – 12:30 p.m. on the Union Mall. Pat Walker Health Center's Eating Disorder Treatment team is organizing a Campus Awareness Walk which will include a few short laps (approx. 30-minutes) around campus to raise awareness about the dangers of eating disorders as well as help bust myths, get people informed, and empower those to seek the support they need. Participants should plan to meet at the Arkansas Union Mall. Signs and banners are encouraged, and some also be handed out at the walk.
- April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) and the 16th Annual Take Back the Night March is scheduled for Thursday, Apr. 19 at 7:00 p.m. beginning at the Fayetteville Square. More information to come.

In addition, we will again hold the annual “Dress Down to Raise Awareness Day” on the day of the TBTN March. On this day, wear a 2018 TBTN t-shirt with jeans or khakis to work and make a “fashion statement” to raise awareness about sexual violence and the need for all to engage their voices for prevention and advocacy for victims/survivors. T-shirt order forms will be available on Monday, Mar. 26 and orders will be due by noon on Wednesday, Apr. 4. We hope to have a record breaking number of participants and departments with this year's events. More details and SAAM calendar of events will be available on Newswire & the health center website.

- Prescription Drug Take Back Event is scheduled for Saturday, Apr. 28. Details to Follow – Collaboration with UAPD and Razorback Action Group.
