The Body Project is an initiative that is focused on women helping other women break down unrealistic body standards and societal pressures to conform to a certain appearance ideal. The program is comprised of two 2-hour sessions that will be one week apart, and is facilitated by trained peer leaders. Upcoming programs will be in the Multicultural Center's Meditation Room in the Arkansas Union on Sunday, November 11, and Sunday, November 18, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Embody the Belief, an @Home series program, will be held on Tuesday, November 13, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Willard J. Walker Hall Main Lobby 2nd Floor. Come explore different beliefs and understand personal experiences from students on our campus! Participants will be introduced to Registered Student Organizations affiliated with selected religions and beliefs and will also have the opportunity to participate in a simulation experience. Will your spiritual identity be represented? Come find out! Not affiliated, but curious about our campus students' beliefs? Stop by and join the conversation!

STUDENT ACTIVITIES:

University Programs won the "Best One-Color Poster" at the NACA Central Regional Conference in Arlington, TX, October 4-7. The poster was designed by Chris Young with UA Productions and it advertised the Battle of the Bands Competition.

Headliners Concert Committee wants student feedback! Please pass along our Springtime of Youth 2019 survey to your students to complete.

Student driver safety training has moved online! Instead of watching a video, students can now complete the driver safety training module and take a short quiz on HogSync. Be sure to share this information with anyone who coordinates student travel.
