Existential Crisis

Morgan Nance

I question Death,
We sit together on park benches
I tell him what air tastes like He explains what it's like to be still
and what true silence sounds like

Death asked one day
why I don't hate him
as much as the rest.
Looking deep into those black sockets—
more beautiful than the stars.
You were the only one
who was ever
truly honest...
