Celebrity Sentence

By Payton Willhite

I think sometimes that I could be famous.
maybe it's the shape of my ears or the general disinterest in having my photo unexpectedly taken. I have always craved
for someone to tell me Exactly who to be. someone qualified. at least twenty years experience in being above a constant fear of rejection. sometimes I imagine that the bioluminescent stars in the corner of my room form a pattern I can understand. become predictive.
tell me to fail
and land among them.
another bit of glowing plastic.
