LIST OF PERFORMERS

Now in their tenth season, Stiletto Brass Quintet has gained exposure as a leading chamber ensemble with performances audiences greeted with rousing ovations with the Pops Orchestra of Bradenton and Sarasota, at the Festival de Música de Cámara in Aguascalientes Mexico, the International Women's Brass Conference, with Doc Severinsen and the Heartland Festival Orchestra, at the National Trumpet Competition, the International Trumpet Guild Conference, the Great American Brass Band Festival, and concerts throughout the United States. The ensemble also shared the stage with Italian jazz great Andrea Tofanelli and commissioned and premiered a new composition entitled Scarpe! An adamant believer in music for young people, Stiletto Brass, while on tour, regularly performs educational concerts and gives master classes in the schools.

Stiletto features five highly accomplished women from the U.S. with careers spanning the fields of solo, orchestral, wind band, and brass chamber music: Amy Gilreath and Susan Rider, trumpets; guest artist Stacie Mickens, horn; Natalie Mannix, trombone; and Velvet Brown, tuba.

The group, as highlighted in the December 2014 edition of the acclaimed international brass magazine, "The Brass Herald", reflects timely changes in the music scene. Its energetic and diversified repertoire includes compositions written by leading composers of our time, as well as classical and popular works from the Baroque period to jazz. Stiletto's concerts are fun, serious, heart-warming, entertaining, and always an audience's favorite!

Stiletto Brass Quintet is an Artist ensemble for Buffett Crampon USA. Stiletto Brass Quintet's first CD with guest jazz great Doc Severinsen is available on CD Baby.

"The Stiletto Brass Quintet is a group of five superb musicians whose technique and ensemble work is simply unmatched. Joyousness, melodic introspection, tenderness, excitement---the full range of emotions is in every note they play. The fact that they are beautiful women in red stilettos...well that's just icing on the cake. If they give the impression of owning the stage, it's because they do. I've seen a lot of brass quintets in my day, but the Stiletto Brass Quintet is truly a breath of fresh air and a wonderful evening's entertainment."

—Doc Severinsen - Former Tonight Show with Johnny Carson Band Leader

"Stiletto is one of the most exciting groups to emerge recently in the brass world. Their artistry, covering so many styles, is versatile and musically very deep. Individually, each of these musicians is an artist in their own right. Together, they are a force to be reckoned with. Marvelous! Don't miss them!

—Marvin Stamm - Jazz Artist

"..Stiletto Brass Quintet, has really hit the scene running and caused quite a sensation at the ITG Conference in Columbus Georgia and the Great American Brass Band Festival in Danville Kentucky."

GIVING AND SUPPORT

Our musical offerings are supported by contributions from alumni, friends, and generous benefactors. If you enjoy our concerts, please consider giving to support our continued efforts. Giving is simple and can be made through the University system by visiting www.onlinegiving.uark.edu. Simply designate the Department of Music for your gift, choose an amount, and fill out the online submission or call Fulbright Development at (479) 575-4272. Your gifts will help the Department better our students through scholarships, performance, and the best in instruction.

The University of Arkansas is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music and the Department of Music is housed in the Billingsley Music Building. Home to over 300 music students and fifty faculty members, we offer a variety of degree programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Through generous support from alumni and friends, the Department of Music became an All-Steinway School in 2010. The University of Arkansas is the third SEC school to gain the distinction and one of only 150 universities worldwide with the honor.

Department faculty and students perform over 600 concerts per year, on and off campus. Large concerts are performed at the 600-seat Faulkner Performing Arts Center with intimate chamber and solo concerts primarily presented at the 200-seat Stella Boyle Smith Concert Hall. Additionally, students and faculty perform throughout the region, including Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Fayetteville Public Library.
