ARKANSAS BRASSWORKS

Arkansas Brassworks is the faculty brass quintet of the University of Arkansas. Consisting of Richard Rulli (trumpet), Tlaloc Perales (trumpet), Katey J. Halbert (horn), Cory Mixdorf (trombone), and Benjamin Pierce (tuba), the group was formed in the fall of 2003 to serve as a performing outlet for the faculty and as a model for student groups.

Richard Rulli teaches trumpet, brass chamber music, and conducts the trumpet ensemble at the University of Arkansas. Tlaloc Perales is currently pursuing the Master of Music in Performance at the University of Arkansas studying with Dr. Rulli. Katey J. Halbert is currently the Visiting Assistant Professor of Horn at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. Cory Mixdorf is a associate professor and a music minor advisor here at the University of Arkansas. And Benjamin Pierce is a professor at the University of Arkansas, teaching a large studio of tuba and euphonium players and directing the tuba/euphonium ensemble.

Arkansas Brassworks performs each semester in the Stella Boyle Smith Concert Hall at the University of Arkansas Fine Arts Center. Additionally, the quintet performs concerts and master classes throughout the region. Tours are undertaken annually. Concert programs include repertoire from Renaissance brass to contemporary brass quintet compositions and jazz.

GIVING AND SUPPORT

Our musical offerings are supported by contributions from alumni, friends, and generous benefactors. If you enjoy our concerts, please consider giving to support our continued efforts. Giving is simple and can be made through the University system by visiting www.onlinegiving.uark.edu. Simply designate the Department of Music for your gift, choose an amount, and fill out the online submission or call Fulbright Development at (479) 575-4272. Your gifts will help the Department better our students through scholarships, performance, and the best in instruction.

The University of Arkansas is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music and the Department of Music is housed in the Billingsley Music Building. Home to over 300 music students and fifty faculty members, we offer a variety of degree programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Through generous support from alumni and friends, the Department of Music became an All-Steinway School in 2010. The University of Arkansas is the third SEC school to gain the distinction and one of only 150 universities worldwide with the honor.

Department faculty and students perform over 600 concerts per year, on and off campus. Large concerts are performed at the 600-seat Faulkner Performing Arts Center with intimate chamber and solo concerts primarily presented at the 200-seat Stella Boyle Smith Concert Hall. Additionally, students and faculty perform throughout the region, including Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Fayetteville Public Library.
